Yandell Family Papers, 1823-1887.

8 Boxes .. 792 Items

A collection of papers of the Yandell family. The bulk of the collection is composed of correspondence which consists basically of family letters. Most of the letters were written by Wilson Yandell, Lunsford Pitts Yandell, Susan Wendel Yandell, and Lunsford Pitts Yandell, Jr.

72x2

The letters consist mostly of family news, but also contain valuable information relating to a variety of other topics including medical practice, physicians of Kentucky, medical politics at Transylvania and the Louisville Medical Institute. In addition to medical matters, the correspondence contains valuable references to state politics and economic conditions in Kentucky and Tennessee, references to important citizens in Louisville and Lexington, the career of David W. Yandell, slavery, the secession crisis, and the Civil War.

In addition to correspondence, the collection also includes lectures of Lundsford Yandell, material about his father Wilson Yandell, notes for medical biographies, diaries of Lundsford Yandell, and a scrap-book.

Prominent correspondents include: Elisha Bartlett, ^{Charles} George Caldwell, Daniel Drake, Austin Flint, Timothy Flint, Samuel David Gross, Philip Lindsley, Henry Miller, and Benjamin Rush.

A calender of the letters and a genealogical chart is filed with the collection.
