

Distilleries - Kentucky

Mss.

A Bullitt Family

B937c Papers - Oxmoor Collection, 1683-2003.
164 cu.ft.

150,

412, In a letter dated 18 December 1845 from 910, Rosanna Hughes to John C. Bullitt she wrote
912- that Philip Speed had partnered with Benjamin
914, Davis in a distillery at the mouth of Harrods
918- Creek.(150) In a letter dated 17 June 1784
922, from John Brown to William Christian, Brown 924, mentioned that he had bought some rye and will 926- start distilling soon.(412) There were numerous letters and legal documents dated

Mss. 1885-1900 re: the legal matters of various
A distilleries, including Mellwood Distillery,
B937c Old Times Distillery, Frankfort Whiskey
941, Process Company, J.G. Mattingly Distillery,
961, Bernheim Brothers, T.B. Ripy Distillery,
966- Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Company, 970, New Hope Distillery, Ferncliff Distillery, and 1121, Brown Foreman Co. in the letterpress books of 1135, correspondence and legal documents for the law
1158- firms Bullitt & Harris and Bullitt & Shield.
1211, (910,912-914,918-922,924,926-941,961,966-970)
1213- There were letters dated 1965 and 1970 re:
1221, Glenmore Distilleries in Thomas W. Bullitt's business correspondence and references to area

Mss. distilleries, mainly National Distillers in A Bullitt's diaries dated 1948-1961, 1966, and B937c 1969-1970. (1121, 1135, 1158-1211, 1213-1221) 1700- There were letters and references to various 1708, distillers, including the Kentucky
1717- Distilleries and Warehouse Company, Schenley 1721, Distillers, and National Distillers, in 1723- William Marshall Bullitt's diaries dated 1919-
1754, 1928 and 1937-1957 and his business letters
1756- dated 1911, 1916-1917, and 1951 re: legal work 1758, he did for them. (1700-1708, 1717-1721, 1723-1760- 1754, 1756-1758, 1760-1761, 1770, 1785-1787, 1834)
1761, Correspondence of law firms Brown & Davie dated 1883-1885 and Humphrey, Davie, &

Mss. Humphrey dated 1910-1919 re: legal matters
A concerning various distilling companies,
B937c including Newcomb-Buchanan Co.(1842-1843)
1770,
1785-1787,
1834,
1842-1843