Dear Cousin Lillie,

I'm looking over some old letters today
I find your note of you said you would write soon. - Much as I appreciated that

I had not realized that I hope that this will find you and yours in good health and courage excepting some little colds.

Please tell me about that dreadful accident to your how she is getting on -

Is her finger really cut off and if so how much.

Please give her our love
we are so glad that it was no

The St Louis folks have been having quite a serious time

Letter from Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson Rote, Shamokin, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania. To Gera C. Curry, Washington, D.C.

(Mrs. Wilson Rote? Great-grand child of John Wilson, 1746-1825.
Miss Curry - - Great-great-grandchild of " " " ")

Shamokin, Pa., Jan. 2, 1905.

Dear Madam:

I have in my possession the letter you sent to the Pastor of the Heersburg church, asking for the records of that church in order to help you trace your family ancestry.

I also have the two letters you sent me but hope you will pardon me for not answering before this.

I was left a widow a little less than one year ago, and at the time those letters came was about settling my home and settling up my business. My mind and time was so taken up that seemingly I had no time for anything else, but now I am comfortably settled and will try to tell you what I know about the Wilson family. (Wilson)

Now, I think at the time your great grandfather, James Curry, married Nancy Wilson, there was no church established at Heersburg, nor for many years after.

Your great-grand grandfather and my great grandfather, John Wilson, was borne in Tyrone, Ireland, December 25th., 1746, and died in Columbia County, Pennsylvania, April 26th., 1826.
(Now Montour County, Pennsylvania.)

Margaret Campbell, was borne in the same place June 3rd., 1781, was married May 21st., 1799, and died Dec. 16th., 1829.

Nancy Wilson Curry, their oldest child, was born in Ireland, July 7th., 1770. Their oldest son, James Wilson, was born in the same place, January 20th., 1773.

I think that they came to this country in 1773, as their second son, John, was born Nov. (no date) , 1774, in Columbia County, (Then Northumberland Co.) now Montour County, Pa.

Nancy Wilson Curry, died February 27th., 1813, but when married I cannot tell, neither can I tell who James Curry's 2nd. wife was, but always understood that he married very much beneath both his own and his 1st. wife's family, and that was the ~~REASON~~ great reason of his leaving Pennsylvania for his western home, as it nearly broke the hearts of Nancy Curry's parents to part from their dear grandchildren.

John Wilson and his family, Nancy Wilson Curry, with the rest, all belonged and worshiped at Chillisquaque Church, then Columbia now Montour County, Pa., and that is where many of them are buried. It is a long time since I have been there. I understand that the church has been torn down, and rebuilt at a nearby town, called Pott's Grove, and there is where I think the records are most likely to be found. If I feel well I think I will go and see the place next Spring, it is about 40 miles from where I live now. I think that is where Nancy Wilson Curry is buried, it may possibly be at Danville, but I know that it is not at Heersburg. If I go I will strive to locate the graves.

John Wilson's second daughter, Margaret, my grandmother, and his eighth daughter, Hannah, both married men by the name of Johnston, and yet no relation to each other. One moved to Cincinnati, O., as you said: the other had but one child - my mother - and her husband my grandfather, died young, and she being a great sufferer from rheumatism, was with her little daughter taken home by her father, until his death.

I think you must have misinformed about your great ~~XXXX~~ great grandmother being proud and haughty, for my mother always spoke of her as being a very mild and lovely christian woman, and had many sorrows and disappointments.

John Wilson's sons, Nancy Wilson Curry's brothers all left home young; two of them - James and John - went to York state, and married. One of them married a very proud and haughty woman, that did not even try to be pleasant with her husband's old parents when she visited them; perhaps that is the one you heard of? Hugh Wilson, the youngest son married and raised his family and died in Wisconsin. I do not know how many children he had but know of one daughter, Madeline, I never saw her but often read the beautiful letters she wrote to Mother, I do not think they ever met but kept up a lively correspondence for many years, then she married, not so very young either, and then her father died, and then the correspondence ceased. I suppose that she, as well as her mother, has passed the shores of time long ere this.

I think that Mother having lived with her grandfather so long makes me know what I do about them. He was "Squire" a great many years, as well as County Surveyor, and always went by the name of "Squire John Wilson."

The sons all lived to be over eighty, two as old as eighty-seven, but the daughters with one exception died much younger.

Sallie, fifth daughter of John and Margaret Wilson, ~~XXXX~~ married a man by the name of Vandyke and lived in Bradford County, Pa., they had four sons I think, the oldest one was called Henry. I was about twenty years old when I met him, he was a railroad contractor and one day while overseeing some work he met with an accident by which he lost his sight, and lived in total blindness for several years. He was a fine looking man; his only sister married a man named Wright? but I think she is dead, I know nothing of her family, I think they all live in Canton, Bradford County, Pennsylvania.

John and Margaret Wilson's third daughter, Jane Wilson, married a man by the name of Clark, Robert Clark. She lived to be over eighty, raised a large family ~~all~~ but they are all dead. Her youngest son the pride of her heart, went to what we then called the far west, it was about 1856, he was there but a short time until the Indians scalped him and murdered him. Her daughter - Jane Clark - married C.W. Bowman of Columbia County, Pa. She and her husband have been dead several years but their son Robert C. Bowman was, and I think now is, Postmaster of Berwick, Columbia County, Pa.

The two younger sisters of whom you spoke, Catherine, the youngest one, had in 1860 a stroke, the Drs. called it Palsy, it left her very helpless, her reasoning faculties were clear, but her speech was very much impaired, she died in 1884, aged 64 years. The other maiden aunt you spoke of, Mary Wilson, died Dec. 3rd., 1858, aged 71 years. They are both buried in Chillisqueague graveyard.

Well this is the substance of what I knew of our Great grandfather's family: perhaps I ~~XXX~~ may find out something more, if so will let you know if you wish it.

Now I will write something of my own family and why my maiden name was Wilson.

About the year 1814, there ~~XXXXXX~~ were two brothers by the name of Wilson with their young wives came from Juniatta Co. bought farms and settled almost adjoining farms to our greatgrandfather, but were not at all related. Their names were William and John Wilson. They both raised large families, and when William Wilson's family grew up the oldest son, Joseph, married Margaret Campbell Johnston, my mother. My father died in 1881, my mother died in 1898, in her 84th., year.

My parents raised a family of five, and I am their oldest child. There were two daughters and three sons, all married and living except my sister, she died in 1876.

I was married in 1862 to William Rote of Montour County. We were blessed with five children, two sons and three daughters: the sons both died when about five years old. My oldest daughter is married, but ~~my~~ both my younger ones died in young girlhood, one was seventeen, the other died in 1899, at the age of nineteen: then last February, husband was taken from me and I feel to be left alone. While I have had many joys through life, I have had great sorrow.

If there is any thing else you want to know write, and if I can I will tell you. I can copy family record, if you wish.

Yours truly,
Elizabeth Wilson Rote.

Campbell

The name was spelled ~~KAMPBELL~~ in the letter. I asked if it was O.K. or whether it was an inadvertence, for the usual spelling of ~~KAMPBELL~~ Campbell, or whether it should have been the Campbell.

The oldest "Curry Bible" so far known is the one owned by Miss Ella Stewart of Grangeville, Pa., grand-daughter of William Curry 1778-1852.

JOHN WILSON CURRY AND HIS FOUNDRIES

There is not much known of my paternal great grandfather, John W. Curry. We know that in some way he was related to James Wilson, signer of the "Declaration of Independence" for Pennsylvania. His, John's grandfather was in some way a hero in The American Revolution and was scalped by Indians at Fort Meade, Pennsylvania. There is a statue honoring him in Danville, Pennsylvania.

There are two accounts of John Curry's birthplace. One of these being in Pennsylvania and one in Louisville, Kentucky in 1796. Which of these is correct, I do not know. I know nothing of his personal life since nothing was passed down to me.

I do know that at the time prior to 1832, he lived at 9th and Main and sometime before 1832, he moved to 10th and Market because my grandfather was born there in 1832.

He, John was a foundry man or as the old books stated, a moulder. Off and on, the name of the business changed, but his name was always in it. During and after the Civil War, his name disappeared entirely and I do know that he left Louisville and died an embittered man in Zanesville, Ohio in 1877.

I do know that his foundry operations were big for those days and he became wealthy.

This is an account of his and his partners first business taken from "HISTORY OF THE OHIO FALLS CITIES AND THEIR COUNTIES" - Page 231.

In 1831, the first foundry in Louisville went out of business and was succeeded by Messrs. D. S. Beatty, John Curry and Jacob Beckwith. Here, casting and steam engine business was carried on successfully.

The first air furnace of any value was erected by them. They also built the first regular boring mill and substituted the blowing cylinder instead of the common wood and leather bellows. It has become a very prominent and successful business in Louisville.

In 1844, the Jefferson Foundry was started by Curry and Miller and steam machinery and engines were manufactured at the foundry on 9th Street between Main and Water.

The employment was very extensive for those times. There were a hundred hands, 75 worked in the foundry and machine shop and the balance on the various new and old boats in the port. Engines and machinery compared with any in the union and in some cases, were better.

The foundry consumed 500 tons of pig iron annually, 75 tons of boiler and sheet iron and 100 tons of bar iron, coming chiefly from Tennessee. The operation used 30,000 bushels of coal.

This is about all that I know. I am enclosing some pictures and ads from the old city directories. I am also enclosing some information on Dennis Long and how he came to Louisville.

THE GRAINGER FAMILY

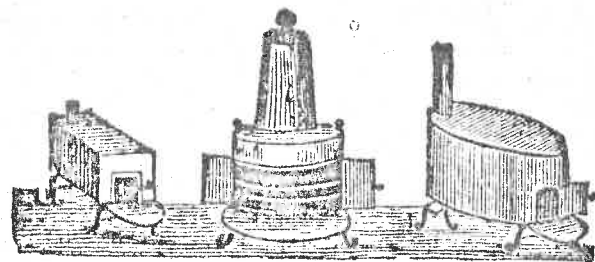

Of course little is known of the Grainger family besides what I enclose here. William Grainger and his wife, Elizabeth came from Wales some time around 1823. They settled in Louisville and their daughter, Mary Anne married my grandfather in 1850.

In the first city directory (1832), he is listed as a malster, probably meaning a brewer. He joined the first brewery in the city which was Metcalfe & Son and the company later became Metcalfe & Grainger, Grainger & Sons and at the time of the Civil War, they seem to have become extinct. This is all I can say about them.

Grandpa Henry Curry?

Dear Sir:

It will make me very happy if you can help me to locate the birthdate of my great grandmother, Elizabeth Curry, also who were her parents. The only thing I know about her, is - she was born in Louisville, Ky. My grandfather was born in 1852 (this date will give you some idea of when she was born) in Wilkes Co. No. Carolina where she must have lived. But I cannot find anything about her family.

The D.A.R. Vol. 104 Dec 189 reads
Miss Mary Elizabeth Curry - Born in Louisville, Ky.
Daughter of Lieut. Robert Curry.

- 1- Oscar Curry (1829-1911) - m. 1862 Margaret Glass (1841-1896)
- 2- Hugh " (1807-1871) - m. 1823 Mary Anne Blue
- 3- James " (1771-1832) - m. Nancy Wilson in 1822 (she was born 1780)
- 4- Robert Curry m. Jane McWilliams (1760-1825)

Robert Curry (1741-80) served as Lieut. 1776, in Col. Samuel Hunter's Northumberland's Co. Penn. regiment. He was killed by the Indians near Lawville, Pa. He was born in Ireland.

Any information you can give me on Elizabeth Curry & her family will help me a great deal.

I am scratching away at great speed - here at the office - I find this letter paper short kindly pardon the change. - Again I ask

"Can you get me the date of your great Uncle Hugh Curry's birth ^{and} of his marriage to Miss Mary Anne Blue at Jamesville O.^h? Would any of their descendants - among the Louisville relatives be interested either from a family or a W. A. R. and S. A. R. point of view. - I think these Jamesville Blue's belong to the Penn^a family ^{and} that these three neighbors went to Ohio about the same time - if not together - i. e. James Curry ^{and family}, Edmund Herrin ^{and family} and - Blue's and family - These Blues are celebrated in all the wars - Rev. 1812, Mexican and Civil. - Their descendants should be and I presume would be very much interested if they only ^{what I} know ^{do}. - I would be very glad to write to any one you may suggest or to hear from them and I want our great Uncle Hugh's dates for 2 reasons ^{at least}, very specially ^{and} as soon as I can get them. - 1st to learn ^{how} ^{long} old he was when they moved to Jamesville ^{to locate} ^{the date}

2nd and to learn any detail that I can regarding his marriage there ^{and the} Cory home in or near ^{near} ~~Janesville~~ ^{Janesville}.
I am having the records searched for all data regarding the James Curry family - and am much handicapped by not knowing either when he went to Janesville - or when he died: -

Cousins Gordon L. Curry of Louisville and Clarence G. Curry - are looking up quite a number of points in ^{Louisville} Jennie Pearl Curry is doing every thing possible in St. Louis, Dr Edwin
A. Curry - (grandson of Robert Son of Lieut Robert Curry) and his wife ^{Louise} Penna - Mrs Elizabeth Jane Curry McWilliams of Morrisburg Pa Grand daughter of Wm Young's child of Lieut
Robert, and Mrs Annie Rebecca Mc-Williams Hain of New York City - Granddaughter of Jane Curry McWilliams 2nd child of Lieut Robert Curry. ^{the} Among those who are busily at work helping to compile our family tree

As yet we have not reached any of ^{the son of} James Curry's descendants (Son of James and ^{the son of} Nancy Wilson Curry) - One of the old bibles was ^{in the} ^{grand} ^{son of} Hugh Curry's family a few years ago - Can you learn anything about it this the ^{child of his son} ^{Oscar Curry} -

5
As it does not seem to be with the ^{Grand} children of Virginia Curry Hinkle (the Cullen Johnston's Coldwater Miss) nor with those of Mary Frances Curry Moss - St Louis etc - Nor so far as we can learn with those of Sophia Louise Curry Clarkson -
I have not the date of the birth of my father's Cousins ⁷ ^{Virg} ^{My} ^{the} - She and your mother are the two - I remember being so very fond of - ^{the} but a little child - when I saw them so much "before the war." - by the way the Penna. ^{ancestors} belonged to the Grove Presbyterian Church - Now the Mahoning Presbyterian Church of Danville Pa. - were such staunch old Scotch - Presbyterians that when the singing of hymns instead of psalms was introduced - some of them got up and marched out of the Church
"too much levity for church" -
The Penna people to this day are of the same church connection, and nearly if not quite all of them are Democrats. I ^{let} ^{bring} you lots of loving thoughts - I hope we will meet ^{and} know each other before so very long. I have ^{only}

Kate is a fine Amateur Photographer -
a very talented - jolly - pleasant personage - has just returned from 18 mos in Texas with Emma who had been most dangerously ill with recurrent attacks of pleurisy and double pneumonia - So her friends here - Church and Camera Club - prevailed upon her to tell them something of her trip. - I mail you a clipping - Although a bad night (deep snow - and slippery pavements - in "the Sunny South" - in Dec.)
She had a big house - and all agreed that it was one of the most enjoyable evenings we ever spent - Her voice like Father's - is clear and strong, her manner so easy that she held us over 1 1/2 hrs - and all called it a very short evening - It was difficult to ^{realize} it as her very first attempt. She was born in Louisville April 30, 1858.
Do you remember ^{the} ^{her} long black hair and

than I am? - And Emma is both fine housekeeper Emma is getting on very well indeed and ^{and} ^{her} home will be O.K. by Spring - that's "strapped"

Condition of the lower lung can only be overcome entirely by constant deeper ^{and} deeper breathing - until it is all free - So we are told - otherwise she is fine - I da - is Connected with the Associated Charity work here - has $\frac{1}{4}$ of the City in her charge and is regarded as particularly efficient in every way. All are active in our Church work (Universalists)

I tell you all these things so that you can feel that you know something about us and because I want ^{you} to know that we will be interested in any family matters you may tell me. for in my interest in the Ancestral research I have not lost my desire to know more of mine own people of my own and the younger generations.

Do you remember Any of the stories your grandfather John Curry used to tell of his boyhood and his grand parent Wilsons - of his grand - Mother Wilson's temper ^{and} of her family names - or relatives. Do you know when the William Wallace comes in. Hoping this budget will not be unwelcome to you - I shall hope to hear from you very soon again. Please do not wait to answer all my questions but write what you can to yours most Sincerely Cora R. Curry

CURRY

JAMES CURRY

Born January 29, 1752, in Belfast, Ireland. He with 4 younger started with his parents, James and his English wife, to America in 1762 on the ship "Good Return". The four younger children died, and were buried at sea. Only son James, age 10, survived. He lived with his parents in Virginia. Four more children were born to the older James and wife in America.

JAMES CURRY, JR.

In 1774 James Jr. served as a private in Dunmore's War with the Indians. In 1776 he joined the 8th Infantry, Continental Line. Became 2nd Lt. in December, 1776; 1st Lt. on June 24, 1777. Transferred to 4th Virginia Infantry September 14, 1778. Made Captain September 23, 1779. Fought at Brandywine, Germantown, Valley Forge. Taken prisoner at Charleston, 1780. Exchanged in 1781. On the staff of General Gist. Wounded at Yorktown. With Washington at entry of New York, 1783.

Returned to Virginia after Revolution ended. Virginia gave land grants in Ohio Territory as pay for soldiers' service in the Revolution. James' grant was in the area now occupied by Columbus, Ohio. He never took up the claim. He was Brigade Inspector of the Virginia Militia. He was made Colonel in the Ohio Militia during the War of 1812. He was too old for front line duty then, so drilled troops all of that time. After the War ended he returned to Virginia, where he became Clerk of Court in Augusta County, Virginia. State Representative from Madison County, Ohio, 1819-20. He introduced the bill which passed, to erect Union County, Ohio. Became Associate Judge in Union County, Ohio, 1825-27.

Dear Mrs. Currey:

We have a book in our collection Haddon, McClure, Curry and Allied Families by Eliza Haddon Brevort and Doris Bond Wheeler. There is in this a great deal of information on the Curry's. You may wish to try to find this book at a genealogical library near you. If you can't I'll be glad to copy any requested pages.

I did find in the above book on a list of the 1830 census households a Hiram M. Curry living in Tippecanoe Indiana, and Providence M. Curry in MONTgomery Co. These counties are geographically close to each other.

If you are seeking the brothers of Providence Montz Currey who was born in 1845, a look at the 1850 census for the county you believe his father's household was in would help you, and list other children. We do not have the 1850 census for Indiana.

Sincerely,

Nellie Watson

Dear Mrs. Currey:

I am not able to tell you anything with the information you have supplied. First of all I need to know the name of the father of Providence Montz Curry in order to locate names of brothers of Providence. Also where did the marriage take place or what county?

I have looked at a 1800 tax list for KEntucky and find a Hiram M. Currey paying taxes in Mason Co. in 1800.

In a History of Mason County a Hiram Mirick Curry is witness to a will of Benjamin Thraikill on the 27th day of March 1793.

If you can supply me with any additonal clues, I'll take another look.

Sincerely,

Martin Watson

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have been directed to you by many experienced genealogical researchers who have told me that your organization is the best resource for tracing early Kentucky ancestors. I am trying to find information on my great-great-greatgrandfather ROBERT CURRY.

He is listed on the 1850 and 1860 Ohio census (Bloom Township, Fairfield County) as born in Kentucky.

He is buried in the Lithopolis Cemetery, Lithopolis, Bloom Township, Fairfield County, Ohio. His tombstone inscription says died January 1867, age 84 years. If this information is correct, he would have been born in Kentucky in about 1782-83.

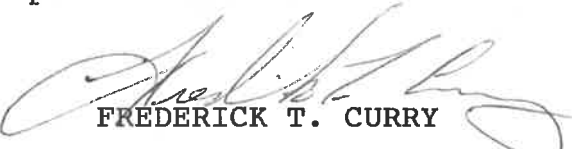

He married Margaret Ann (Ball) Gregg, widow of Samuel Gregg and daughter of John and Ann Ball of Fayette County, Pennsylvania.

Robert Curry and Margaret Ann (Ball) Gregg had at least two children--William N. Curry, 1818-1889, listed as born in Pennsylvania (my great-greatgrandfather) and Elias Bailey Curry, 1828-1914, variously listed as born in Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Ohio.

I believe I have found Robert Curry living in Redstone Township, Fayette County, Pennsylvania on the 1820 Pennsylvania census.

Given this information, do you have any records of a Robert Curry born in Kentucky in the 1780s? Any listings of the parents of any Robert Currys born in Kentucky during this period? To date, I have not been able to identify the parents or any other ancestors of Robert Curry. If there is any additional information I can provide you to assist any research on this request, please let me know.

Any assistance you can give me will be greatly appreciated. I am enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope for any information you can provide me.

Dear Mr. Love

I have found on the 1850 census the household of John Curry and his wife Thodosia, with children living in Louisville. They do have a son Hugh 18 years old. I believe this should verify your link of John and Hugh.

I was unable to find in Jefferson Co. the marriage of Hugh to Mary Ann. Do you have any idea where they may have married?

Hugh and his wife are not listed by 1870 in Louisville.

I do hope this is the information you are seeking.

Sincerely,

Nettie Oliver

I am seeking information to confirm that my ~~g~~-Grandfather Hugh Edmond Curry is the son of John Curry and Theodosia Herron.

Hugh and Mary are listed in the 1860 U.S. census as living in Louisville Ky.

Hugh was born in Ky. in 1832
Mary Ann was born in Ky. in 1835

Hugh had several children. One of which Theodosia my grandmother, Lee (a banker in the 1930's), Mary (a school teacher in the 1930's) both of Louisville.

Stories in the family say that ~~H~~ugh was a river boat Captain (census say Engineer SB) and also Fire Chief of Louisville.

Any information on Hugh and John would be usefull.

Mrs. Ivey:

I see that we have a correspondence and inquiry file on the surname Curry that seems to take your line back to Robert Curry (1741-1780) born Belfast, Ireland who married Jane McWilliams (1750-1825). It would take more searching than we have time for to put the details in order.

In our Moore family file I do not readily find anything that seems to relate to the Louisville Moores. The correspondence would show the names of the interested inquirers, but much of it is quite old.

In the Louisville city directories between 1852 and 1866 I see that Richard M. Moore was a watchman, bill poster, grocer, and county coroner, but I do not have any associated family information on him. The index of wills probated in Jefferson Co. through 1919 does not include a Richard Moore.

Our Filson Club History Quarterly is sent with Club membership at $18 per year, or separately at $10 per year. It contains scholarly articles on Kentucky history, but no queries and nothing genealogical except an occasional article on a ~~family~~ family.

We do not lend any materials from the library, since we believe it is important to have all of our materials available in one location for those who come here to search.

We are always very glad to receive additional papers for our surname folders, or books, booklets, or other materials on any family.

We can provide you with names of people who ^{use our library} ~~use our library~~ in working for others, if you ^{wish} ~~wish~~.

Sincerely yours,

Nettie

Mr. Martin F. Schmidt, Librarian
Filson Club Library,
118 W. Breckinridge St.,
Louisville, Ky. 40203

Dear Mr. Schmidt:

I am attempting to establish lineage for my grandchildren in the Curry and Moore families of Louisville, Ky. One of my great-grandfathers was Hugh Curry who married Marian Grainger (Granger). They were the parents of Miss Marian Curry who was connected with the Louisville public schools for many years, and Mr. Lee Curry, formerly president of Avery Savings and Loan Association; they were the grandparents of Mr. Gordon L. Curry, dean of the Louisville School of Pharmacy affiliated with the University of Kentucky, and Captain Charles Nabb Moore, former chief of the Louisville Fire Department. All, to my knowledge, are deceased. My descent is from the eldest daughter of Hugh Curry, Fannie Viola (better known as "Ollie") Curry who married William Warner Moore. My other great-grandparent was Richard Moore, born in Virginia, who married (probably in Tennessee) Elizabeth Jewel Thomas and settled in Louisville about 1847. He is said to have established a bill-posting business and also served as coroner.

A reply to the following questions will be appreciated:

1. Do you have information in your files or index on the above Curry and Moore families, or the names and addresses of others who may be interested in the same families?
2. Does the Filson Club publish a journal? If so, may I have the name, address and subscription rate?
3. May members of the Bay County Genealogical Society borrow material from the Filson Club Library on an inter-library loan basis through the reference and genealogy department of the Bay County Library, Panama City, Florida, 32401. Mrs. Mary Lou Watts is the reference librarian.

I have collected some material on the descendants of Hugh Curry and Richard Moore. If you think it would be of value to others I will be happy to provide a copy.

Thank you for your cooperation. A self-addressed, stamped envelope is enclosed.

Sincerely yours,

Betty H. Ivey

Dear Mr. Curry:

W. J. Curry
After many ~~days~~ at viewing the 1880 federal census for Jefferson Co. (Louisville) I amnot able to locate the household of Hugh Edmond Curry. He is listed in the 1880 Louisville City Directory as living at 529 Main near Johnston. Evidently the census enumerator missed him completely when taking the census.

I have also checked what records we have for St. Paul's Evangelical Church without finding a birth or baptism for Arthur Bernard Curry.

I do enclose to you a print-out of the 1900 census showing Clarence 1 year old in his fathers household, and the 1860 census for Hugh Curry with his family. I know this will be very difficult for you to read, but is is the best copy I could get.

If you can think of any new clues, that may help, I'll be glad to try something else.

Please send to me $2.00 for print-outs.

October 14, 1981

Mr. George R. Isaacs
7108 Hermitage Road
Richmond, Virginia 23228

Mr. Isaacs:

I have looked in various sources for information and can give you a good many leads to pursue further.

We have in our Curry family correspondence file some letters from Cora C. Curry of Washington D.C. probably given to us many years ago by her cousin Lillian M. Isaacs, or by her family.

In 1917 Cora and one or more of her 5 sisters were professional genealogists, but the letters we have were written in the early 1900's. Cora was born in 1852.

I have pieced together from these letters a rough chart which you can use for further searching. I have not been able to see much connection with Union Co. Kentucky, although there were 12 Curry households in Union Co. in 1850, there are various indications in the letters that the Currys, Herrons and others were established in Pennsylvania (Montour Co. and its predecessors) and Ohio (Muskingum Co. and its predecessors). There is a Union Co. in both of those states, and that may have some connection. I notice that Union is very close to Montour.

The chart speaks for itself but has some uncertainties, many omissions, and probably some mistakes.

Apparently John Wilson Curry and wife Theodora Herron came to Louisville soon after marriage (1820's) from Pennsylvania or from Zanesville, Ohio. Cora says that John and his brother Hugh (who married Mary Ann Blue) were both in Louisville in 1876, and that descendants named Jordan L. and Clarence G. Curry were in Louisville in 1904.

Richard Isaacs is listed in the 1855 Louisville City directory as a partner with John R. Emmit in Isaacs & Emmit, retail dry goods on 4th St. between Market and Jefferson, both men lived at the store. In 1859 Richard is living on Chestnut Street. In 1865 his residence is given as "country", and in 1869 as corner of Hancock and Broadway. In 1872, his occupation is real estate agent with Mr. Crum, still living on Broadway. An 1876 atlas of Louisville shows Mrs. T. Isaacs as owner of s.w. corner at Hancock St. and R. Isaacs as owner of a vacant lot west of that residence.

The Sehon Chapel was Methodist Episcopal, corner Third and Guthrie Sts; ^{at} some intersection as the later Trinity M.E. Church, now Trinity Towers apartments and Church, but I don't know if it is exactly the same spot.

I do not find a will of Richard Isaacs in the Jefferson Co. index through 1919.

I would assume that there is more information to be found in our library and in the Jefferson Co. court house, as well as the Pennsylvania and Ohio records. We can provide names of searchers in this area if you wish.

Sincerely yours,

To Whom It May Concern:

Re: Richard Isaacs ^{and} Theodosia Curry Isaacs Being born in Kentucky at Skylight, which is just up the road from Louisville, about twenty years ago. I am presently located here in Richmond, Virginia.

My wife and I are very much interested in genealogy and spend each Saturday Morning doing research upon our respective families at the Virginia State Library. I have been advised by relatives who reside in Louisville to contact "The Filson Club" to ascertain if you have information about my grandfather Richard Isaacs ^{and} grandmother Theodosia Curry Isaacs.
My information is sparse. I do have a clipping of marriage which states, "At Sehon Chapel on Thursday morning, at 11 O'clock, by Rev. Geo. W.
Smiley, Mr. Richard Isaacs, Merchant of this City, to Miss Theodosia Curry, of Union Co., Ky." The date noted is April 3, 1856.

I am very much interested in my grandmother's (Curry) ancestors. We think her parents were John (?) and Theodosia Herron Curry. I understand that my grandfather, Richard Isaacs, was one of the early merchants in Louisville operating a General Store. My information is that The Isaacs had a winter home in downtown Louisville and in summer lived at the old K.M.D. property, which later burned down except a small brick house which remained until it too was torn down in lieu of progress.

I would appreciate and thank you for any information that you may be able to give to me respects my ancestors or where I might obtain same. I have checked the Three volumes of Genealogies of Kentucky Families by The Register of Kentucky Historical Society to no avail. I appreciate any help or advice you can give.

Sincerely,

George R. Isaacs

Dear Mrs. Bogert:

Thank you so very much for all your efforts with reference to the Vezolles family background.

Now, I'm up a "tree" as to Mattie Sanders, who was married to George Vezolles. She was born in Dec. 1864, except she and George Vezolles were married on August 7, 1884. They had six children: George V., Blanche, Edith, Irene (my children's grandmother on their father's side), Harold and Edward. They lived at 2330 W. Walnut in Louisville.

I am enclosing my check for $25.00 and can only hope you are equally successful with finding anything about Mattie Sanders forebears.

This is my first excursion into trying to trace family ancestry for on my side of the family we have the original records dating back to the early 1600's which were handed down to the oldest child so I had never thought much about it until my children were making inquiries about their father's family.

Thank you again for you help.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mrs. Bogert:

Well, it seems I have to ask your assistance once more.

This request is for information from the 1916, 1917, 1918 Louisville City directories. Are there any entries concerning the home address and occupation of Irene Vezolles and who else may have resided in the same household then.

Also, would like to know where Irene Vezolles was married. I know the date of the marriage was January 1, 1919, to Joseph Edmond Currey. He was a 1st Lt. in the Artillery during WWI.

Perhaps this will be my last request for information and I do thank you for your very kind assistance.

Enclosed is my check for the above.

Dear Mrs. Williams:

I am sorry for the delay in answering your request. We get many letters each day and we operate with a small staff.

We do have a book in our collection entitled: Curry Descendants, by Noble K. Littell, 1986. In this he includes on page 6 a Daniel Curry Sr. who was the son of Thomas Curry and Sarah McCarthy, dau. of Thomas McCarthy. Daniel Sr. was the seventh child. Others were Margaret, Sarah, Catherine, Thomas Jr. and Jane.

The compiler does not include the wife's name of Daniel Curry Sr. but list his first son as Daniel Curry Jr. born 3/2/1784 and married twice. Daniel Curry's siblings are listed as Mary; Elizabeth; Hannah and Lettie. Daniel Curry Jr. Married 1st 10/8/1800 in Jefferson Co. Ky, Susannah Stafford ;b. 12/11/1784 and who died 4/25/1826, in Jefferson Co., daughter of Thomas and Eve (Whipys) children were Thomas S. Curry b. 3/2/1804 who married Malinda Murphy. Other children of Daniel Curry Jr. are Prescilla; Sophia; Martha; Sarah; Susan; William; Emily; Pauline.

Thomas S. Curry died 12/1/1891 in Adams Co. Illinois and married 10/11/1824 in Jefferson Co. Malinda Murphy b. 11/6/1807 and dies 4/23/1879 in Adams Co. Ill. She was the daughter of Abraham and Nancy (Connor). Their children were Benjamin, Allen; Mary; Susan; Richard S; William M; Sallie; Christopher; Nancy Ellen; Henry Harrison; James T; Sampson O; Pauline; and Daniel.

You may wish to write to Judge Noble R. Littell, at 1219 Kal-Ca-Lani Ave., Sebring, Florida 33870.

Re: Henry Sloan and Nancy Shields Curry

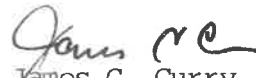

Dear Ms. Oliver:

In response to your letter of November 30, 1990, I plan to visit your Society in the next year, therefore I do not anticipate the need of a researcher there. If such becomes feasible, I will contact you for some names.

My earlier letter may have created some confusion in the marriage in Montgomery County. From what I can gather, Henry and Nancy Shields Curry settled on the Little Sandy River at Crane Creek on a large tract of land, possibly 2,000 acres, with six slaves and remained there throughout their lives. Both are buried nearby in the Anglin Cemetery.

I am attaching information which I copied from the Bible of Henry Sloan Curry, much of which was recorded after his death around 1828. Please use it as you deem proper.

Sincerely yours,

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Thank you for your response to my earlier inquiry on my ancestor, ROBERT CURRY. Enclosed is my check for $15.00 to request research on him.

Regarding the information I have on Robert Curry, I will restate what I had in my earlier letter. He is listed on the 1850 and 1860 Ohio census (Bloom Township, Fairfield County) as born in Kentucky. He is listed as 67 years old in 1850 and 76 years old on the 1860 census.

He is buried in the Lithopolis Cemetery, Lithopolis, Bloom Township, Fairfield, Ohio. His tombstone inscription says he died in January 1867, age 84 years. If this information is correct, he would have been born in Kentucky in about 1782-84.

He married Margaret Ann (Ball) Gregg, widow of Samuel Gregg of Redstone Township, Fayette County, Pennsylvania. She was the daughter of John and Ann Ball of Luzern Township, Fayette County, Pennsylvania.

Robert Curry and Margaret Ann (Ball) Gregg had at least two children--William N. Curry, 1818-1889, listed as born in Pennsylvania (my great-greatgrandfather) and Elias Bailey Curry, 1828-1914, variously listed as born in Pennsylvania, Virginia and Ohio.

I have found the following Currys in Kentucky on the 1790 Census:

1. Archable Curry	Fayette County
2. Archibald Curry	Woodford County
3. Archibald Curry	Woodford County
4. Daniel Curry	Fayette County
5. Daniel Curry	Jefferson County
6. James Curry	Bourbon County
7. John Curry	Fayette County
8. John Curry	Fayette County
9. Nathan Curry	Jefferson County
10. Nicholas Curry	Fayette County
11. Sarah Curry	Lincoln County
12. Thomas Curry	Jefferson County
13. William Curry	Fayette County
14. William Curry	Mercer County
15. William Curry	Woodford County
16. William Curry	Nelson County

I have also found the following land records in Fincastle and Kentucky County (Virginia and Kentucky) Records and History, Volume I, by Michael L. and Bettie A. Cummings Cook (1987):

(A96) p. 111	Chaplains Fork	John Curry,
5-24-1780,	400 A.
(A96)(50) p. 111	Chaplains Fork	William Curry,
5-24-1780,	400 A.
(A159) p. 116	Curry Settlement	James Curry,
7-3-1780,	300 A.
(A159) p. 116.	Curry Settlement	James Curry,
7-3-1780,	700 A.
(A3) p. 180	Salt River	James Curry,
11-11-1779,	400 A.

Any of these Currys settling in Kentucky at this time would have been early enough for ROBERT CURRY to have been born in 1782-84 in Kentucky.

I have found four Robert Currys listed in the Kentucky census of 1810:

h-2-331-34	Harrison County	305-324
h-3-330-15	Henderson County	325-348
h-3-341-14	Henderson County	325-348
m-4-365-3	Montgomery County	347-384

I have also found a Robert Curry, that appears to be my ancestor, in the 1820 Pennsylvania census (117 Redstone Township, Fayette County). He is listed with 1 male under ten years old, two males ten-sixteen and one male 26-45; two females under ten, one female ten-sixteen and one female 26-45. This looks like a fairly close match to what I know of him at that time.

Once again, as I stated in my earlier request, I am looking for any record that could verify that ROBERT CURRY was born in Kentucky and who his parents were. I am also enclosing a family history outline that I have put together from my search in the last several years. Any assistance you can provided me will be greatly appreciated.

Yours truly,

Frederick T. Curry

Dear Sir:

Knowing that you have a vast amount of information about the history and people of Kentucky, would it be possible for you to check your files and give me some information about the Curry and Tucker families of Nelson County? I am descended from these families but have been unable to learn anything about them before 1860, when I found them on the census of St. Clair County, Illinois.

William H. Curry, born about 1826 at Bardstown, Nelson County.
Rachel Angeline Tucker, born about 1834, also in Bardstown.
They were married about 1851/2. My grandmother, their daughter, was born in Bardstown in 1854. A family member advises me that both of them came from families who owned land; Rachel Tucker's family owned slaves. Also a report that at one time William Curry was tried and convicted for murder.

Do you have any compiled family histories in your library that bear upon these families?

I will greatly appreciate any suggestions that you could give that would further my search for information about these families. If there is any charge for this information, please let me know. I enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope, and hope to hear from you soon.

Yours truly,

(Mrs. Robert G. Mills)

Dear Mrs. Floyd:

I am sure you will be delighted to receive this brief account of the Curry family of Greemup County, Kentucky. It is taken from History of Greemup County by Nina Mitchell Boggs and Mabel Lee Mackoy (Louisville, Kentucky: 1951). The cost of this verifax copy is fifty cents which you can send us.

Our Greemup County marriages cover the period between 1804 and 1838. I did not find any of your Currys in the records. I regret to say. The county clerk of Greemup, Kentucky may be able to give you the name of a local person who would be able to continue research on your family lines. You will note that Harry Curry married Nancy Shields and his son, Hugh, married Margaret Bellew so you have these additional lines to follow and explore.

Our Greemup County material does not indicate the exact dates when the Currys arrived in Greemup County. We do have census records but, as our staff is small, we do not have the time to undertake this type of research. The 1850 census will list each individual member of a household and give ages and places of birth. Should you be interested in this specific information, write either Mrs. C.E. Craik, 418 Oxford Place, Louisville 7, Kentucky or Mrs. W.E. Satori, 317 Lotis Way, Louisville 7, Kentucky. Both are experienced genealogists.

Sincerely,

Gentlemen:

I would like to have some information about the Curry family that settled on Crane creek, which is located in Hopewell, Greenup, Kentucky; around the 1800's.

Hugh Means Curry married Margaret Bellew. Hugh Means Jr. one of their sons was born November 17, 1850 and died February 25, 1948. Ursula, Nancy, Ellen, Ment, Tay, and Henry were also their children, but I have no other dates of this family than the one I listed above.

I would also like to have the names and dates of the first Currys that settled on Crane creek. I know they were of French nationality, but I have no idea where they came from.

I would deeply appreciate your help and will send a contribution if you are able to give me any of the above information.

I thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Gentlemen:

I am trying to locate information concerning Henry Sloan Curry, who was born in North Carolina in 1783 and who married Nancy Shield on May 1, 1806, in what is now Montgomery County. They settled on a tract of land on Crane Creek, Greenup County. One son, Hugh Means, was born in 1811 and another, Henry Nixon Curry, was born in 1818. I have located another Hugh Means Curry, also born in 1811 in Jefferson County and who was married there in 1832.

Please advise if you have anything on this family and the cost of copy.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Thoesen:

I regret that the Filson Club does not have any ^{genealogical} records on Nicholas Curry and his son, William. The 1790 Kentucky Tax List places Nicholas in Fayette County and William in that county and Mercer County.

Inasmuch as you say that Nicholas Curry was a resident of Augusta County, Virginia in 1790, I would suggest that you direct your research to Virginia records- those of Augusta and nearby counties.

The Nicholas Curry who appears in the 1790 Tax List may be a son of the Nicholas in Virginia.

Perhaps the Virginia State Library, Richmond, Virginia will be able to furnish you with the name of some one available for research in their well stocked library.

Dear Mrs. Cullen:

In answer to your letter received in January.

I was very happy to receive what information your were able to give me of the Curry family. In reading the verifax copy that was taken from (History of Greenup County) by Nina Mitchell Boggs and Mable Lee Mackoy (Louisville Kentucky 1951) I found a mistake made in the Hugh Means Curry Sr. family, who married Margaret Bellew.

The mistake is made to whom their children married. One daughter's name was not listed. Her name was Ursula Curry. She married Hickman Floyd. I know this to be true for they were my husband's (Charles Woodrow Floyd) grandparents. Their daughter Ellen married George Daye.

Sincerely yours,

Wilma E. Floyd

Dear Mr. Moser:

This letter is in answer to one from Mr. Jack Holzhueter of October 9th addressed to Mrs. Dorothy Thomas Cullen. Mrs. Cullen retired from the staff of The Filson Club in February, 1968.

Our holdings of Richard M. Johnson papers have been accumulated piecemeal over the years as gifts and purchased and did not come to us in a body. Most of them are written by Johnson to several individuals, but none of them are to or from James R. Curry or Charles Bracken.

There are no entries for either Bracken or Curry in our manuscript catalog or our catalog of printed materials, with the exception of a few articles printed in the Wisconsin Historical Collections. We have no information file on either of them, nor is there any information on them in our family files or various Kentucky biographical encyclopedias or Perrin's History of Kentucky, which contains a section on Harrison County.

There is some biographical material on Curry in Mrs. Lucinda Boyd's Chronicles of Cynthiana and other chronicles, Cincinnati, Robert Clarke & Co., 1894; on pages 75-87 appears "Short Sketch of Judge James R. Curry's Life By Himself." The connection between the Currys and Deshas is contained in G. Glenn Clift, Governors of Kentucky, 1792-1942. Cynthiana, Ky., 1942, pages 29-30. According to Clift, John R. Desha, son of Gov. Joseph Desha, married in 1838, Mary Curry, daughter of Judge James R. Curry. Their daughter, Issa Desha, married William Campbell Preston Breckinridge of Lexington. Desha Breckinridge, longtime editor of the Lexington newspaper, was their son.

You may be able to obtain further information on the family history of the Curry and Bracken families from the Kentucky Historical Society in Frankfort and the Department of Special Collections, Margaret King Library, University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky.

There is a biographical sketch of James A. Curry of Harrodsburg, Mercer County, a son of James and Katherine (Stagg) Curry, who was a Henry Clay Whig, on pages 83-85 of Biographical Cyclopedia of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, Chicago, 1896. He may be a relative of Judge Curry.

As for the connection of Bracken and Curry with Henry Clay, I have not found any kinship. Clay was not from Harrison County, as Mr. Holzhueter indicates, but from Fayette County. Clay was born in Hanover County, Virginia in 1777. Clay's granddaughter, a McDowell, married Desha Breckinridge, a great-grandson of Judge Curry, but that would be too late a connection for your study. For Madeline McDowell's descent from Henry Clay, see Mary Rogers Clay, The Clay Family, Filson Club Publications, No. 111, Louisville, 1899, pp. 178, 208-209.

In addition to the Historical Society and the University of Kentucky, The Kentucky Library at Western Kentucky University, Bowling Green, Kentucky has a good collection on the state and may have material on Curry or Bracken.

We can provide a photocopy of the James R. Curry memoir from Mrs. Boyd's book for you, if you want it. We have an Apeco copy machine which makes a good copy and the book is small enough that we can get two pages per copy for you.

I wish we had more information for your project and I wish you the best in your search for information on the Brackens and Currys. There are two references to James R. Curry during the Civil War in Volume 1 of Richard H. Collins' History of Kentucky, which may be of some use to you.

Sincerely,

James R. Bentley
Curator of Manuscripts

CURRY Family

Thomas Curry is the first of the Curry name which I have been able to positively identify as being in my line. From family records and from statements made by his children to later census takers, we believe he was an emigrant from Scotland. He came to America after December 18, 1767, the date of birth of daughter Mary, as she was born in Scotland.

From deed records in Jefferson Co., Ky. we know his wife's name to have been Sally.

From Jeff. Co., Ky. marriage records we know of dau. Catherine who m. James Farrow, July 7, 1808; Margaret who m. Bartlett Asher, March 21, 1791; Sally or Sarah, who m. Isaac Brazier Oct. 12, 1803; and my ancestor, Mary, who m. Rodham Seaton, Aug. 13, 1787.

From a deed dated July 10, 1786 in which Daniel Curry promises to care for his parents in exchange for the conveyance of real estate, we know Daniel to also be a child of Thomas and Sally Curry. The 1810 census of Jeff. Co., Ky. lists Edward Currie and two Daniels.

My line of descent is from Rodham and Mary Curry Seaton. Their dau. Elizabeth m. Joseph Donaldson, and in turn, their dau. Martha Donaldson m. Milo D. Littell, my great grandfather.

I have considerable information on the allied lines, but have nothing of any consequence except the above on the CURRY line. I certainly would appreciate some help along this line.

Dear Ms. Snow:

I have not been able to find anything substantiated to tell you about.

I have looked at the Adjutant General of Ky's Report of those who were in the Civil War from Kentucky. In the Union listing I find a Thomas M. Curry listed as private serving in Co. B. 21st Kentucky Volunteer Infantry. He enrolled 25th of Sept. 1861 at Camp Ward Kentucky. He was discharged Dec. 14th, 1862 at Louisville, Kentucky.

I do see the marriage of Thomas M. Curry to Mary Russell 8-23-1846 in Green County, Kentucky.

In Green County Vital Statistics I see the death of Flora Curry who died with croup, 11/17/1878. She being the daughter of T. and M. Curry.

Dear Fellow Genealogists:

I seem to have hit a dead end in searching for one of my Kentucky ancestors, and your name was given to me, as one who has helped solve many Kentucky genealogy problems.

My ancestor, Thomas M. Curry, married Mary Russell in August of 1846, and they appeared in U. S. Census schedules in 1850 and 1960 with their children. In 1870, Mary Curry was listed as head of household with her children. In 1880 schedule, Mary L. Curry was listed in the household of Aron T. Curry as his sister-in-law. All this was in Greene County, Kentucky.

I checked with the courthouse for death records and wills, but they had nothing.

Since he left the scene between 1860 and 1870, I thought he may have perished in the "War Between The States" and since Kentucky was divided in that war, I do not know where to look for information.

If you can be of any help in this search, I will appreciate it very much.

I am enclosing a check in the amount of ten dollars (10.00), a small donation. If I owe you more, please advise.

Sincerely yours,

Marian C. Snow

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Thank you for your response to my earlier inquiry on my ancestor, ROBERT CURRY. Enclosed is my check for $15.00 to request research on him.

Regarding the information I have on Robert Curry, I will restate what I had in my earlier letter. He is listed on the 1850 and 1860 Ohio census (Bloom Township, Fairfield County) as born in Kentucky. He is listed as 67 years old in 1850 and 76 years old on the 1860 census.

He is buried in the Lithopolis Cemetery, Lithopolis, Bloom Township, Fairfield, Ohio. His tombstone inscription says he died in January 1867, age 84 years. If this information is correct, he would have been born in Kentucky in about 1782-84.

He married Margaret Ann (Ball) Gregg, widow of Samuel Gregg of Redstone Township, Fayette County, Pennsylvania. She was the daughter of John and Ann Ball of Luzern Township, Fayette County, Pennsylvania.

Robert Curry and Margaret Ann (Ball) Gregg had at least two children--William N. Curry, 1818-1889, listed as born in Pennsylvania (my great-greatgrandfather) and Elias Bailey Curry, 1828-1914, variously listed as born in Pennsylvania, Virginia and Ohio.

I have found the following Currys in Kentucky on the 1790 Census:

1. Archable Curry	Fayette County
2. Archibald Curry	Woodford County
3. Archibald Curry	Woodford County
4. Daniel Curry	Fayette County
5. Daniel Curry	Jefferson County
6. James Curry	Bourbon County
7. John Curry	Fayette County
8. John Curry	Fayette County
9. Nathan Curry	Jefferson County
10. Nicholas Curry	Fayette County
11. Sarah Curry	Lincoln County
12. Thomas Curry	Jefferson County
13. William Curry	Fayette County
14. William Curry	Mercer County
15. William Curry	Woodford County
16. William Curry	Nelson County

I have also found the following land records in Fincastle and Kentucky County (Virginia and Kentucky) Records and History, Volume I, by Michael L. and Bettie A. Cummings Cook (1987):

(A96) p. 111	Chaplains Fork	John Curry,
5-24-1780,	400 A.
(A96)(50) p. 111	Chaplains Fork	William Curry,
5-24-1780,	400 A.
(A159) p. 116	Curry Settlement	James Curry,
7-3-1780,	300 A.
(A159) p. 116.	Curry Settlement	James Curry,
7-3-1780,	700 A.
(A3) p. 180	Salt River	James Curry,
11-11-1779,	400 A.

Any of these Currys settling in Kentucky at this time would have been early enough for ROBERT CURRY to have been born in 1782-84 in Kentucky.

I have found four Robert Currys listed in the Kentucky census of 1810:

h-2-331-34	Harrison County	305-324
h-3-330-15	Henderson County	325-348

I have also found a Robert Curry, that appears to be my ancestor, in the 1820 Pennsylvania census (117 Redstone Township, Fayette County). He is listed with 1 male under ten years old, two males ten-sixteen and one male 26-45; two females under ten, one female ten-sixteen and one female 26-45. This looks like a fairly close match to what I know of him at that time.

Once again, as I stated in my earlier request, I am looking for any record that could verify that ROBERT CURRY was born in Kentucky and who his parents were. I am also enclosing a family history outline that I have put together from my search in the last several years. Any assistance you can provided me will be greatly appreciated.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

Knowing that you have a vast amount of information about the history and people of Kentucky, would it be possible for you to check your files and give me some information about the Curry and Tucker families of Nelson County? I am descended from these families but have been unable to learn anything about them before 1860, when I found them on the census of St. Clair County, Illinois.

William H. Curry, born about 1826 at Bardstown, Nelson County.
Rachel Angeline Tucker, born about 1834, also in Bardstown.
They were married about 1851/2. My grandmother, their daughter, was born in Bardstown in 1854. A family member advises me that both of them came from families who owned land; Rachel Tucker's family owned slaves. Also a report that at one time William Curry was tried and convicted for murder.

Do you have any compiled family histories in your library that bear upon these families?

I will greatly appreciate any suggestions that you could give that would further my search for information about these families. If there is any charge for this information, please let me know. I enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope, and hope to hear from you soon.

Yours truly,

(Mrs. Robert G. Mills)

Dear Mrs. Floyd:

I am sure you will be delighted to receive this brief account of the Curry family of Greemup County, Kentucky. It is taken from History of Greemup County by Nina Mitchell Boggs and Mabel Lee Mackoy (Louisville, Kentucky: 1951). The cost of this verifax copy is fifty cents which you can send us.

Our Greemup County marriages cover the period between 1804 and 1838. I did not find any of your Currys in the records. I regret to say. The county clerk of Greemup, Kentucky may be able to give you the name of a local person who would be able to continue research on your family lines. You will note that Harry Curry married Nancy Shields and his son, Hugh, married Margaret Bellew so you have these additional lines to follow and explore.

Our Greemup County material does not indicate the exact dates when the Currys arrived in Greemup County. We do have census records but, as our staff is small, we do not have the time to undertake this type of research. The 1850 census will list each individual member of a household and give ages and places of birth. Should you be interested in this specific information, write either Mrs. C.E. Craik, 418 Oxford Place, Louisville 7, Kentucky or Mrs. W.E. Satori, 317 Lotis Way, Louisville 7, Kentucky. Both are experienced genealogists.

Sincerely,

Gentlemen:

I would like to have some information about the Curry family that settled on Crane creek, which is located in Hopewell, Greenup, Kentucky; around the 1800's.

Hugh Means Curry married Margaret Bellew. Hugh Means Jr. one of their sons was borned November 17, 1850 and died February 25, 1948. Ursula, Nancy, Ellen, Ment, Tay, and Henry were also their children, but I have no other dates of this family than the one I listed above.

I would also like to have the names and dates of the first Currys that settled on Crane creek. I know they were of French nationality, but I have no idea where they came from.

I would deeply appreciate your help and will send a contribution if you are able to give me any of the above information.

I thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Wilma E. Floyd

Gentlemen:

I am trying to locate information concerning Henry Sloan Curry, who was born in North Carolina in 1783 and who married Nancy Shield on May 1, 1806, in what is now Montgomery County. They settled on a tract of land on Crane Creek, Greenup County. One son, Hugh Means, was born in 1811 and another, Henry Nixon Curry, was born in 1818. I have located another Hugh Means Curry, also born in 1811 in Jefferson County and who was married there in 1832.

Please advise if you have anything on this family and the cost of copy.

Sincerely yours,

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. EMMA PHILLIPS

On West Third Street
This Morning

Mrs. Emma Phillips passed away at her home, No. 202 West Third street, this morning, at 8.20 o'clock, after an illness of about two weeks, her death, however, being sudden, as her condition was not thought to be dangerous. Her death is attributed to heart trouble.

The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Services at the residence, conducted by Rev. Richard Morgan, followed by interment at Willow Wild cemetery.

Mrs. Phillips was born in Louisville, Ky., Oct. 30, 1839. She married O. B. Phillips in October, 1875, and came to Bonham as a bride. Her maiden name was Miss Emma Curry. Her husband was in the mercantile business here for years, being associated with J. A. Duncan, the firm name being Phillips & Duncan. She had been a teacher here for many years and was also a teacher in the public schools of Louisville before coming to Bonham. She was a woman of rare intelligence and knowledge, and many a young man and young woman of this city will tell you that they owe their first training to the sterling ability of Mrs. Phillips. She was a consistent member of the Trinity Episcopal church of this city. She was the mother of Oscar Phillips, present agent of the Texas & Pacific railway company at Pecos, and Miss Charlie Phillips of this city, and is also survived by two brothers, in St. Louis, A. J. Curry and Geo. W. Curry, and two sisters, Miss Lou Curry of this city, and Mrs. J. W. Bethurem who resides in South Texas.

She was truly a good woman and her loss will be deeply felt, not only by those who have been taught by her but by many others who have been associated with her and her many deeds of kindness and charity will live for years to come.

The Rev. William Wallace Curry.

The funeral for the Rev. William Wallace Curry, 97 years old, native Louisvillian and the oldest Mason in point of years of membership, who died in Washington, D. C., yesterday, will be held in that city today, according to dispatches. He will be laid to rest in Arlington National cemetery, and the Masonic Veterans' Association will be in charge of services.

Born in Louisville in 1824, he was the son of Capt. Robert Wilson Curry. He was a soldier, minister and politician. At the age of 19 he preached his first sermon in a Louisville church. In 1847 he joined the Madisonville, Ky., lodge of Masons, and at the time of his death he was the oldest living Mason in the United States. He resided in Southern Indiana for many years, and in 1881 he moved to Washington. During the Civil war he served with the Fifty-third Indiana Regiment. He was once a candidate for Congress while a resident of New Albany, and in 1871 he was elected Secretary of State of Indiana. Five sisters survive him.

RESIGNS HIS PLACE IN PENSION OFFICE.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—William Wallace Curry, soldier, minister and politician, for many years a prominent resident of Kentucky and Indiana, who is in his ninety-second year, resigned as a clerk in the Pension Office. He was an employe of that bureau for thirty-four years.

Dear Mrs. Dale:

I appreciate your forwarding the text from History of Greenup County, which I had checked and found to be highly inaccurate. My needs predate the time covered in that book.

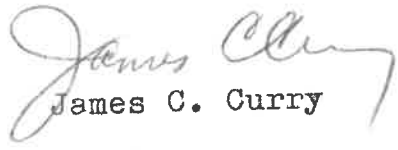

My checks with local records show that Henry Sloan Curry married Nancy Shields and that they were the parents of:

|--------------------------------|----------------|
| Mahala, Sept. 22, 1806 | June 19, 1858 |
| James Wilson, Feb. 27 | |
| Helena, Feb. 8, 1810 | Aug. 15, 1887 |
| Hugh Means, March 11, 1811 | June 13, 1898 |

| Amanda, Nov. 10, 1819 | |
| Nancy, Feb. 16 | |
| Margaret, | |
| Nane, Feb. 2, 1826 | May 21, 1919 |

My sources on the above were from an old Bible and from cemetery markers in Greenup and Carter Counties. The local court records have been a disappointment in that they are either incomplete or earlier volumes have gone on to better ends.

If you could find anything of earlier sources, I would appreciate hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,

January 12, 1917.

Miss Lillian M. Isaacs, 1037 Garvin Place,
Louisville, Ky.

Dear Cousin Lillian:

This is just a line of love and greetings to tell you that all are well. Father will be ninety-three on February 15th.

We are just as much interested in the family history as ever. If you are interested in such things I would be mighty glad if you can tell me anything of the family of your grandmother, my Father's aunt, Theodosia Herron Curry. Please tell me whether the name should be spelled Herron, Heron or Herring and whether you have any traditions about her people.

All I know is that her father, Edmund, married a second time and that Theodosia and Uncle John were married when Theodosia was very young. Have you any idea as to when they removed from Pennsylvania to Zanesville and why Uncle John took Theodosia on their wedding tour down through Danville, Kentucky, en route from Zanesville, Ohio to Louisville, Kentucky? I fancy that some of the Curry's of that locality were relatives but am very anxious to find out what I can from tradition before going into that matter.

I think I sent you data regarding our Revolutionary ancestor, Robert Curry, 1741-1780 so that you can use his record any time you desire to become a member of the D. A. R. If not, I will be glad to do so when you want it.

Is there any descendant of Uncle Hugh and Mary Ann (Blue) Curry who is interested in their family history. I want to learn more of her people. I have quite a bit of information which I will be glad to exchange with them if any of them care for it.

With best of wishes to you all, I am,

Very sincerely,

Core C. Curry

HISTORY OF COLUMBIA AND MONTOUR COUNTIES,

J. M. BATTLE.

A. WARNER & CO., 1887, PRINTED BY JOHN MORRIS CO., CHICAGO.

Montour County.

Robert Curry is numbered among the earliest settlers in this part of Pennsylvania. He was born in the North of Ireland June 9, (?) 1741; educated in the schools of his native country where his father was a well-to-do linen manufacturer. He emigrated to America in 1772, settling on Mahoning Creek in what is now valley township, Montour County, Pa., and there followed farming. He was killed and scalped by the Indians June 9, 1780. He was a Presbyterian in religious belief, and was one of the first to give his money and influence toward the propagation of religion in these parts, and was also a trustee in his church.

He married Jane McWilliams in Belfast, Ireland, and four children were born to them. James, who was born in Ireland, grew to manhood and settled in Ohio; Robert who settled on the North Branch of the Susquehanna River; William who settled on the home place in Valley Township, Columbia County, (now Montour County), Pa., and Jane, the first white child born between the North and West branches of the Susquehanna River, - married to Robert McWilliams. These sons were well-to-do farmers and noted for their honesty and integrity.

Extracts from a letter written in May, 1904, by Mrs. Emma Curry Phillips, of Bonham, Fannin Co., Texas, to her brother, George Wilson Curry, (born 1837,) St. Louis, Mo. Both were born in Louisville, Ky., and ^{were} the children of John Wilson Curry of Louisville, Ky., who was born February 21, 1796, in Northumberland Co., near Mooresburg, (now Montour County,) Pa., died December 11, 1877 in Louisville, Ky. His wife, Theodosia Herrin (Herring), who was born near Trenton, N. J., December 24, 1807, died at Bonham, Texas, January 31, 1898. They were married at Zanesville, Ohio, in 1823.

"Our great grandfather, our father's grandfather, was one of the first or earliest settlers in that part of Pennsylvania."

66 The people lived in forts or block houses, as you know, cultivating their fields with their guns by their side, in danger of attack from the Indians at any time. History tells us all that, you know. He was one of those pioneers, and this is the story as Mother told me but a short time before her death. They had a family of six (four) children, I think. The youngest an infant of a few weeks. (our grandfather was one of them, of course.) Every day he, as the other man, went to the field to plough. At noon their wives took their dinner out to them. So one day great grandmother went to the field as usual with her husband's dinner, and as he ate it they were surprised by a band of Indians. He was killed and scalped and she taken prisoner. Bound and guarded she travelled for the rest of the day until night fall. Then they stopped, built their fire, ate their supper and stretched themselves on the ground with feet to the fire in a circle. She was bound securely with thongs at the wrists and ankles. Then a stronger thong was put across her waist or body with the ends attached to an Indian on either side of her. To add to her misery and discomfort a drizzling rain began to fall. Thinking of her little baby and the other children, and having the horrid sight of her dead andscalped husband before her, can be imagined better than described. In those days all women wore a small pair of scissors attached to a tape that reached nearly to the feet, and the tape looped around the belt of their aprons. So she happened to think of her scissors and began very carefully to feel for the tape. Succeeding in her efforts, she slowly drew the scissors up until she could get them in her hands, then she worked the blade under the thongs around her waist and freed her hands. Waiting to see if her movements had awakened either of her guards, she slowly cut the thong across her body. Again waiting she ventured to slowly rise to a sitting posture and cut the feet free. Now came the most daring part of all, ~~but what will not a mother venture for her children.~~ Slowly and noiselessly she turned herself over and drew herself from between her captors. Rising on her hands and knees she crept away many yards, or until she thought it safe to arise to her feet. Then listening to see if she had been missed, and all being quiet, she ran cautiously, as fast as she could in the darkness, trying to get as far as possible from the dreaded savages; but, unfortunately, they awoke and finding their captive gone gave the alarm. Immediately torches were lighted and the search began. Hearing their cries, she gave herself up for lost, but like those brave women resolved still to try and escape. Seeing the light of the distant torches she determined to hide herself. Running to a large log she saw lying near, she threw herself down behind it. As she did so, she found it was hollow, and crept into it as far as she could, which seems to have been a very considerable distance, as it completely concealed her. The Indians came and sat on the log and talked, spark from one of the torches burned a hole in her apron. After hunting around for some time they went in another direction. Waiting for a long time until sure they were not lurking around, she crept out and travelled in an opposite direction until she fortunately met a party from the fort in search of her. Her husband was buried and she toiled on and raised the children, from one of whom (James) we are descended by our father, John Wilson Curry."

N.B.- J. M. Battle in The History of Montour Co., tells this story practically the same Story of the family

"Cousin William Wallace Curry you speak of is the head of the family, being the eldest of the race." Born in Louisville, Ky., February 13, 1824.

Lieut. Robert Curry, a soldier of the Revolution, was killed near Head Steekade, three miles below Danville, Pa., was buried with the honors of war in the Mahoning Presbyterian Cemetery.

His wife, Jane McWilliams Curry, died in 1825, and was buried beside her husband. Their remains were removed in 1903 to the new Presbyterian Cemetery.

My Dear Cousin Lillie;
I was very glad to receive your letter though very very sorry to learn of your recent illness.
I hope that by this time you have recovered much if not all of your usual health and strength.

Under the circumstances I do not think any apology was needed Surely it was very good of you to try to write at all.

Whenever it is so that you can I will be very glad to receive the bible records that you have. — If any early dates are therein please also state the date of the Bible print — itself.

I enclose herein a rough list of bible records from the oldest Curry Bibles that the Perma' folks have. — I am going on to Montour Co. — June 8-26 — and want all I can get before then — but not at the price of a single pair to you.

You spoke of a story attached to the tearing out of the record leaves of the Bible that your Uncle
George Wilson Curry of St
Louis — has — please tell it to me. — I think I am pride of wanting to know all that I can about it because I am proud of the many things our people have done for the upbuilding of this great Nation. I always knew of our Revolution-

our Pioneers in Kentucky

Miss Lily Isaacs;

My Dear Miss Isaacs;
or may I say -

My Dear Cousin
for one of my earliest recollections is of your Mother Cousin Theodosia
as I always heard her spoken of. I presume that you know - I am dying - about the family history - I have the great but my Mother's having been so helpless an invalid for so many many years - rather absorbed all other interests and everything centered in our own little home - She died in 1896 - have been almost helpless ever since her last visit to your people - "Uncle John's" and Uncle "Hughs" - in Lorisville in 1876. - So long ago that I do not now remember that your own Mother was there at that time.

This letter is to specially ask your interest and assistance in my work - I am very desirous of securing a copy of all the entries in the old family bible, births, marriages, deaths.

Can you tell me where any of these books are - I think your own dear Mother Cousin Theodocia had one - If so would you, be so kind as to copy all that there is therein of family data and send to me at your earliest convenience. I will be only too glad to tell you ^{any} and all that I know and send you any data I have or may get that you would like. Yours Cordially Cora C. Curry.

When did she die
When was she born

I want to locate as I have secured some seems to be too late

Mrs Taft's genealogy for Jennie Fearn - Mrs Taft you know
"belong to the Herron family of Southern, Ohio" - So it would be quite desirable for me to know all that I can find out about your Herron's who also are "from Southern Ohio" - your great grandfather Edmund Herron was a cooper by trade, he went from Pennsylvania to Janesville Ohio - Have you any information about that? What a shame it is that we did not begin this search a little earlier - I must think of all letting me - I think you must realize that your grandfather ^{John William Cherry} was ~~most~~ likely "the man" who was "engaged" by Capt Harry Shreve at Marietta Ohio as Engineer or rather "to take charge of the engine" after the "Washington" was blown up and repaired - the first marine engine explosion that ever occurred and which happened you know near Marietta, Ohio, - when Capt Shreve was hurt so badly that he could not attend to the engine. - the first Engineer.

Please try to find out for me where and where that long and intimate friendship began between Harry Shreve and John Curry and what boats they went on together.

This pen is as soft as pastboard and company is here so between my disabilities and my hurry, this is not a very creditable letter - but I do hope that you will be glad to receive it and will answer it as soon as may be.

Please remember Father
in particular, and myself, kindly to all the relatives who care to hear from or of us - Can you give me the address of some of Hugh Curry's family - who would care to help something of their grandfathers or mother - may be Blue Curry's people - Robin H. Curry?

that your grandmother - my great "Aunt Theodocia" - aged 91 could have remember her and your own

very fond of both Theodocia's you may remember -

Of your grand mother Theodocia Herron Curry daughter of tell me anything about her people - I only know that she had a step mother who was not kind to her so that she married very young and studied after her marriage her mother was the first wife and left two children - do you know whether the other was a

about them after they grew up - I have promised to look up had to be selected - etc - and I think that we have done remarkably well in the matter for we were all in good order for Ida when she came home for Thanksgiving

This fall I addressed some fifty-six envelopes to relatives and friends like yourself that I specially desired to hear from and put into my desk so that every moment of spare time
I may drop a line to one or another - tonight when I "put in my thumb and pulled out a plum" - it had your name on it - so in spite of the fact that I have been out in the Country all day today, nearly all day in the open air - and my hands are quite stiff from the chilliness of it - being used you know to hot house air - I am Scrawling this explanation to you as to my long silence, for in future I hope to do better tho' I never will be a Correspondent as other people are I suppose, for time is not long enough for me to get around often.

Now for genealogy - I am as deeply interested as ever and hope this winter to learn things that you will want to know. in the mean time I want you to tell me several things about your branch. Our National Genealogical Society is preparing for Special work this winter looking toward the Card Cataloging, and preservation of records which have been secured by us all and putting them in such shape that the information will be available for all interested in any family of any name. Hence we desire to obtain exact data so far as possible

Will you please tell me the places and dates of marriages deaths ^{and} births - as far as may be - of your parents ~~and your children~~ - I have only energy or will-power to leave I always think "Manana". —

The consequence is that in the last two years I have done very little writing of personal letters and still less of study —

Well this fall the question came "what are we to do this winter" — Pa said "well I guess we'd as well board" — I said "I suppose we'll just take an apartment when the time comes" — One of my sisters said "Well I think we'd better have a home of our own and stop this constant changing".

The unanimity of the consent — was a surprise to all;
house hunting began the next day soon this house was discovered purchased — workmen of every sort put to work — Then the furnishings

My Dear Cousin:

The enclosed sermon delivered by my father was one of "three delivered by him within four days" during one of the very hottest weeks of the year — and he seemed none the worse for the effort either — for a man who will be 85 the 15th of Feb, next
I think that is rather remarkable.

The other enclosure
a speech of Sister John's — the youngest of our family — will show you somewhat of what she has been doing during the past year — She now has some

7 or 8 County Agents at work under her.

As you will note we have moved since I wrote to you last, that was so long ago that I cannot recall just where we then were or what we were planning - so at the risk of repeating already known facts I will begin ^{at this} beginning. - For years we have been having two homes spending about six months in town and six months in the country - leaving the unused house closed and fully furnished during the interim - So finally when we sold our town house 1510 Ninth St (which we had owned so long that the city had built so far to the West ^{and} North West that we were left on a street rapidly going to boarding houses and stores) we concluded not to bother with a town house but to try easier ways of winter living - so we boarded during the season 1906-7, had a lovely place - everything charming - but I couldn't get any letters written or do anything at all personal - too much company - The next season 1907-8 - we had an apartment ^{and that} was so perfectly convenient in every way that I had even less time than the winter before - During the Summers I never do have leisure ^{and} opportunities come together, perhaps it is pure laziness - but when I am so very comfortable and surrounded by charming friends - I do not seem to have ^{either}

Did his part in the church work - had logs cut and hauled to help build the Church - in every way did all she could ^{and} had a fine place. her youngest son was brought his wife home some 15 years before she died - she ruled over everything to them - and spent her time mostly in her own room - So I could go ~~out~~ just sketching the many things they told us and of the things & places we saw but I doubt if you can read this - I've written it so fast
my office work has utterly excluded
all other writing until now I say do it ^{as soon as possible} Cora C. Curry

My father - an older son

children of his father and the mother had children 1/5

³
We went over the old roads visited the old site of the fort. - Saw the great - grand children of their friends - heard tales of heroism - and of tenderness read in an old bible that was buried once when they fled from the Indians Saw the little dress made by "The Widow Curry" as she was known for 45 years - by the moonlight out of one of her own waists for a little child born in Ft Augusta - Sumbury
when they were hiding in the cellar - dared not have a light the Indians were

So watchful - twins arrived - but one ^{boy} had been provided for and that too scantily to spare anything for the other. This baby Jane Moore - was named for "the Widow" and became the wife of her youngest son William then two years old.

This brave Ancestress of ours - used to say in those days how glad she would be if she could only die and go to her husband but that she must live for her children's sake - They say she was never seen to laugh after his terrible death - She was very good to the poor - the sick & the nearly - but she could not bear the sight of an Indian - once not long before her death she saw a "friendly" Indian over under a tree in front of the house - and dropped in a dead faint - She used to go out in a lane across the road from the house - in her old days and sit there for hours till they would go and bring her home - After her husband's death she took hold of the business - paid up what was still due on the second place

As I wrote you - I had planned
I went to Montour Co - June 8 to 26 - Had a grand time visited the descendants of all the other Curry branches thus - being the ones we visited

Of course we saw a number of others and children and grand children of quite a number of them - just think what a lot of 2nd Cousins Father met - for he joined me on the 16th, we visited Wilson's too, and at Shamokin

I saw some "leaves out out of one of the old Bibles"
It made my flesh creep for I fancied that it ~~was~~ might be from the bible
I had heard of as being having had the records torn out - in but no - Mrs Rote told me quite another story about them and when I reached home your letter had the story in full -

There is so much I would love to tell you of those dear ones in Penna
They were so good to us so glad to have us with them -

Please write to me
I will do better now Yours

hope you are quite recovered

Dear Cousin Lillie:

Thank you very much for your kind note just received - I thought that I sent you a postal acknowledging the receipt of your kind and considerate letter of June 25, last and your bible records -
Your letter I know was not answered as I had it on my desk
to be answered tomorrow night - as it is I felt that I must tell you tonight

Some as told me while there. — I was told that it had been used as the foundation for quite a number of published novels and tales - but could learn nothing more definite as to books or ^{more} authors.

We visited the graves of the Curreys - the Wilsons and the McWilliams.
We visited the old homesteads. — quite a bit of the original land is still owned by the Curry and McWilliams. — I saw the original Penn deeds and of the Sale made by our James & his 2nd wife May when they came west.

They said their parents used gun to both of the "Cousins who went to Kentucky" and wonder what became of them.
The bond was very close between your grandfather and them for he visited them in 1848 you know.
The great grandfather (ours) James was much beloved and respected by them and Nancy Wilson 1770-1813
our great grand mother's.
people were also among the most important people but they died off years ago

the Curry of Monroeville is the father of your grand father James Curry

As one lady put it -

"The Currys always carried their heads very high, and the Wilson's were not much behind them."

Another said - Yes I remember Anna Polly Wilson very well [she was Nancy Wilson Currys's sister died 1858]

- a little old lady who was always at church - she always wore a black silk dress and black gloves and sat up so very stiff and straight.

She used to drive an old old horse that she had had a long long time - and I used to think it was so very fine that she should be so very proud."

The story of the three year grand parents - the death of Robin and the capture and escape of Jane (James or Jean) has been one of the stock stories of Pennsylvania frontier life and Indian stories ever since and has been told & retold so often that there are quite a number of versions - our own however is well borne out by will send whatever you prefer - I hope you too will be thoroughly interested after a while if not all at once.

About that bible - yes your Uncle George has an old bible - the record of births - deaths ^{and} marriages torn out - we were all hoping that your family had the other - for it seems that there were ^{at least} two - once upon a time ^{and} at least, one of these is "one they brought over with them" - Please tell me the story as to ^{any} why this book was torn - I am safe not to make any
"mix-ups" - ^{and} I realize

My Dear Cousin:

I am so very glad that you wrote me so cordial a letter ^{and} that you are interested in family history - do you want - simply dates of the Revolutionary Ancestor Lieut Robert Cherry - and the story of his being killed and scalped by the Indians - or shall I send you the real thing i.e. - all that we know or may learn as we go along?

that it is all so long ago - that we of this generation could not (or at least should not) have the least bit of feeling about any of these long ago occurrences - While it is true that these very stories of troubles, quarrels, misunderstandings, etc., are the very things that are long remembered and that it is through these things that we will find the clues that which we can learn the things we want to know
This is just a little note to bring you our love - and to ask you please to get me
the dates of your grandfather, Hugh Curry's birth and marriage - and also whether his full name was Hugh Curry - As you know where the William Wallace came in - it is a family name - Elizabeth Vatcher - daughter of your great uncle, William brother of John Wallace was William Wallace Curry 1796 must stop - your Cora Curry!

Robert Curry was married in the 1741-1780
Presbyterian Church, Belfast Ireland
1769-70 - by Rev John Gibson D.D.
(Cousin of the bride) to Jane Mc-Williams 1750-1725.

James Curry their oldest child was born in Belfast 1770-71 - [was a little baby 6 - (wks or mos) when they came over -]

They arrived in Philadelphia ^{and} went to Carlisle for a short time thence in 1772 to the new County of Northumberland - being organized later (in 1813) Columbia County was organized - including this part.

and in 1850 - Montour Co. was ^{organized} So in looking up records - ^{these} three Counties are to be considered

Danville P.O. established in 1806
until 1791 was known as the Mahoning Settlement - sometimes as Dan's town.

Moorerburg was laid out in 1806.
Sunbury was the County Seat in the old days. and their business town.

Our people were all intensely ^{and} pure blooded Scotch - from County Antrim - Province of Ulster, Ireland - the Currys - we think - were a Belfast family - The Mc-Williams - were linen Manufacturers had a large Bleaching green - I tell you all these things hoping that in your memories and opportunities for Talking things over with the Louisville relatives - Some little memory or Childs story or ^{im-} pression may be brought out.

When we began - "Cousin Val" of Louisville - was in Washington - called on my father in the Pension Office - didn't even see any of us at home, - he sent the address to Jennie T. Leam Curry at St Louis - who wrote to Father asking some questions - which he in solid Saxon fashion - was positive that he could not answer - but in talking it over and much writing and consultation - little things or clues have been brought to light - till now we are in correspondence with all branches except that of our ^{great} Uncle James Curry who died in New Orleans - 1858-9 and left nine children - whose names and order Cousin Gordon has just sent me - Correcting the list as obtained of Cousin Georgiana Hamilton Kellum daughters of Nancy Curry Sister of John Wilson Curry 1813-1835
and Hugh 1796-1877
- Curry - and of Robert Wilson 1792-1835
- 1871
Curry - my grand father.

but I do not think Robert Carr ~~and~~ ^{on} his family had been awa-
ar. all. — tho' the recorded histos says "as they were returning to their homes" — while our story explains that he was that day out plowing and was putting her on the horse to take her back after he had brought his "drivier" out to him. — So ^{it} was returning home though in a different sense —

They had 4 children James - Jane - Robert and William
The two youngest sons of this were never married and within a very few years (5 or 6) were still living on the Robert Curry farm - which has always been on the Curry name. —

Saturday afternoon - I married. wrote the foregoing - meaning to have it once - As I did not get it off - I send you in this - An extract
I found relating to our ancestry & our Robert Curry - Soldier of the Rev.
War, - Should you want his data to join the
D. A. R. will send it to you.
This letter from ^{father} concerning Emma Philps to you and Laura - and Uncle George tells its own story - it is in the main absolutely correct - in a few details

- the facts are a ^{very} little different.
But we regard it as marvelous that the tradition - as told in 1898 - should so agree with the traditions as told by the other branches so widely separated as have been the descendants of the children of this Robert ^{and Jane} McWilliams Curry - and be so close in its main facts to the story as printed prior to 1831 but never seen or heard of by the children of our branch until I found it a few weeks ago.
First - T. H. Mead - or Stockade as it really was was one of the line of defences in the great border line protecting the frontier from the onslaughts of the British and Indians - it was so small that but little has yet been found concerning it - tho it is well known and only 3 or 4 years ago the L. O. A. R. made a pilgrimage - there on June 9 - it is on the old McWilliams Farm - which is still ^{and} ever has been in the McWilliams name.
Lieut Curry and his men there were soldiers fighting for their Country as well as taking refuge for their families - Gen John Sullivan's expedition in 1779 - was supposed to make it safe for residents to return -
