CLASS HYMN.

LOUISE EMELENT PILCHER.

O, loving Father, hear;
We lift our hearts to Thee;
The gates of earthly life
Are open'd to us to-day,
And all our hearts with trembling joy,
Have banished fear of pain's away.

No earthly father's care
Could equal thine, divine
As through our chaste
Thou guardest us from harm.
'Tis thus we've learned to know Thy love,
For this we sing to Thee, above.

But now our only plea,
Dear Heavenly Friend and Guide,
Is that Thy loving care
May still with us abide:
O, teach us aye on Thee to call,
And let Thy arm enfold us all.

LOUISVILLE GIRLS HIGH SCHOOL

Prior to 1911 the records of the Girls High School were not so kept that it is now possible to tell certainly just what subjects were studied. For examples, "Mathematics", "Science", "Latin", "History", were used with nothing to indicate what particular branch of either was meant. To add to the uncertainty, two of the books have been lost. That we may be able to return as accurate records as possible, applicants are requested to fill out and return to us the following blank.
