KNOW THYSELF.

'Unto God belongeth whatever is in Heaven & Earth:

That he may reward those who do evil, according to that which they shall have wrought; and may reward those who do well, with the most excellent reward.—For every one is prepared a certain degree of Happiness or misery, according to that which they shall have wrought; that God may recompence them for their works: and they shall not be treated unjustly.—Mahomet.

'Know then thyself, presume not God to scan!
The proper study of mankind is man.'—Pope.

'The cloud-capt Towers, the gorgeous Palaces,
The solemn Temples, the great Globe, itself,
Yea; all which it, inherit shall dissolve,
And like the baseless fabrick of a vision—
Leave not a wreck behind.'—Shakspeare.

Philosophy. 'Without Philosophy, we should be but little above the animals that dig or erect their habitations, prepare their food in them, take care of their little ones in their dwellings, and have, besides, the good fortune, which we have not of being born ready clothed.'—Voltaire.

W. ROBINSON, PRINTER—[Greensburg Ky]

'Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge ye shall be judged: & with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.—Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them for this is the law and the prophets.'—Jesus Christ.

NATIONAL POLITICS.

SPEECH

HON. ALBERT G. TALBOT

OF KENTUCKY,

DELIVERED IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, JULY 23, 1850.

Defining his Position on Know Nothingism, Republicanism, and Democracy.

The House being in the Committee of the Whole on the Report of the Committee on the State of the Union--

Mr. TALBOT said:

Mr. Chairman. In a few remarks I had the honor to submit, on a former occasion, I stated that I had been elected to a seat upon this floor as an independent Whig. I stated then also the platform of principles upon which I was elected, and to which I stood pledged to all parties, and to the country. I take occasion now to repeat, and reiterate the same platform of principles, for by them I am willing to stand or fall. I had no time then, under the operation of the ten-minute rule, to elaborate and defend them, and I reserve now to ask the indulgence of the Committee to read, dictate and justify the positions then assumed--to define more clearly my own position--to indicate my future political course, and contrast, briefly, the relative positions of the different political parties now in the country. I desire also, Mr. Chairman, to respond to some of the remarks made by my honorable colleague [Mr. Cox] a few evenings since. In doing this, I will be necessarily compelled to say something about Whiggery and Democracy, freedom and slavery, Know Nothingism and Black Republicanism; and I invite the attention of gentlemen of all the political parties in the House, especially that of my honorable colleague.

I do not use, Mr. Chairman, to discuss the existing questions now before the country in a spirit of vituperation, or with a heart overflowing with personal rancor and sectional ill-will, to engage in crimination and recrimination. Of that, I think, we have had quite enough already. I would rather, if I could, wipe out--obliterate forever--every offensive word, either personal or sectional, that has been uttered on this floor, and say some thing, if I knew what, that would cause the members of this Congress to flow together, and legislate as did our fathers, like a band of brothers. And why not, Mr. Chairman? Why not we live, harmonize, and triumph together, as did our fathers? We have the same high privileges to enjoy, the same great interests to be protected, the same laws to be enforced, the same institutions to be maintained, and all the same institutions, and domestic to regulate that we had all the same population to be governed, naturalized, and foreign to be protected. They had all the same religion, and Roman Catholic, to tolerate all that we have. And yet, as if that fact they could live, and leg- islate together. They draw no distinction between a I countants at birth, and a foreign-born and naturalized citizen. In peace they lived and together they fought and died for each other, and the army and navy preserved harmony to the end of the war; they maintained all the rights of rights; they prevented any system of religion; they were not by doing justice to all, and in suspension, without discrimination, they led us on to great deeds, and from greatness to greatness, wisdom, diplomacy, and they have won for us the rank of nations the world. And by their wisdom and discretion, and their patriotism and foreign of the war, suffer ourselves to be divided, and precipitated into civil war, and thus prove incompetent to maintain and enjoy, and work, to preserve, and transmit our inheritance--our free institutions. Mr. Chairman, I have not risen to this position--not in a spirit of but a resolution. I would not, if I knew it, would not, already in an excited state of feel- ing, the country. Vituperation, denunciation, in my judgment, pro- duce either war or false- hood. If I am not for war, I am for p-
