Miss Emma Lips - Niece of Capt. Charles A. Klink

Pauline Lips Brooks - Niece of Charles A. Klink

(their mother was Capt. Klink's sister) & they are sisters)

Pauline Lips married to Florence B. Brooks

they had two children - Harry G. Brooks & C. Jordan Brooks, Harry G. Brooks, Sr. & all of the above buried in Linwood Cemetery. Also Ethel Brooks wife of Harry G. Brooks buried there.

Harry G. Brooks, Jr. son of the above - lives at 1430 32nd Street, Columbus, Georgia, 31904 - Tele- 404-322-6288

he has one son Harry G. Brooks, III who also lives in Columbus, Ga.

Harry G. Brooks, Sr. had one brother and no sisters-brother was C. Jordan Brooks who is deceased and he had two daughters named Pauline & Dorothy Brooks who live in Florida, Pensacola, I believe.

I have been unable to locate any other Brooks who might be related to this line.

Departed from this life.

John J. Klink died near Rio de Janeiro.

Death of a respected German citizen here.

From Rio de Janeiro in Brazil the report arrived here yesterday that Mr. John J. Klink, a Louisviller, departed this life on his farm lying near the city on 24 March. The mournful tidings, which were sent to the mother of the deceased, Mrs. Elizabeth Klink, who lives at 525 E. Gray St., struck the aged lady hard. For 25 years she had hoped to be able to see her firstborn once again, and he had often given her hope of this joyful event in his letters. The grim reaper, who unexpectedly encountered him, eliminated all hopes of the mother's heart with one blow.

Mr. John J. Klink was born here in 1840, spent his youth here, and became a traveling salesman for the firm of Barkhouse & Co. after he attained the age of a young man. When the war broke out he entered the Southern Army, and served with bravery during the same in the 3rd Georgia Cavalry Regiment. As soon as the war was over, he moved to Rio de Janeiro and settled there permanently. His enterprises met with success; he bought a valuable plantation near this city, married the daughter of a respected family, and enjoyed such respect that he was elected for a term as president of the council in Rio de Janeiro.

Although things went very well abroad, he had the most earnest desire, as already mentioned, to return to his home once more to see his aged mother and his siblings (brothers and sisters). But there were always difficulties that developed, and so the desire was unfulfilled. Numerous schoolmates and friends will remember him as they read these lines, although a quarter of a century has gone by since his departure. Besides his mother, Mr. Klink leaves several brothers and sisters here, among the closest relatives. Mr. J. B. Collins of the Louisville Water Works Company and Mr. William Kline are brothers-in-law of the deceased.

THIS WILL COPIED FROM WILL BOOK IN COURT HOUSE, COLUMBUS, GEORGIA

CHARLES A. KLINK WILL and CODICIL

GEORGIA, MUSCOGEE COUNTY

In the name of God - Amen.

I Charles A. Klink of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and knowing the uncertainty of life, do make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills by me heretofore made.

Item 1

I wish and I hereby instruct my Executor, hereinafter named, as soon as possible after my death, to pay all of my debts (if there should be any) and desire that the same be paid out of any money that I may have at the time of my death on hand, should the same be sufficient and if not sufficient, then I desire that the property embraced in the residuary clause of this will be used by him for that purpose, and if a sale of property is necessary, I wish him to select from such property, that which can be in his judgment used best for that purpose. And I hereby authorize and empower him to sell, and dispose of said property, either at public or private sale as he may deem proper.

Item 2

I desire and instruct my Executor (hereinafter named) to purchase and cause to be erected over my grave a marble monument to be paid for out of the same fund as that out of which my debts are to be paid; said monument not to cost less than One Thousand Dollars (1000.00) this last matter I wish my said Executor to attend to as early as possible after my death.

Am Not Sure on this word

ITEM #3

I give and bequeath to my much loved neice, Emma E. Lips, as her sole and seperate Estate, free from any and all debts, contracts or liabilities or control of any husband she may have at the time or subsequent to my death, the East half of Lot number one hundred Seventy three (173) in the City of Columbus and State and County aforesaid, and situated on the South most corner of Oglethorpe and Randolph Streets, and known as the Post Office corner, with all the appurtenances thereto belonging.*

(* MY NOTE: Oglethorpe is now 1st Avenue and Randolph is 12th Street this is now a vacant lot but did house the post office until around 1940-1950.)

ITEM # 4

I give and bequeath to Charles Lips, son of Henry C. Lips, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars, which said sum I hereby direct my Executor to pay to him if he shall have arrived of the age of twenty one years at the time of my death - If however he should not have arrived at the age of Twenty one years at my death, then I direct my said Executor to pay over said amount to his father, the said Henry C. Lips, for the use and benefit of the said Charles untill he shall arrive at the age of twenty one years, at which time said amount shall be paid to the said Charles by the said Henry C. Lips.

ITEM # 5

I give and bequeath to Charles Klink Chapman son of my friend J. P. Chapman the sum of Five Hundred Dollars, said sum to be paid to the said Charles Klink Chapman by my Executor at the time of my death provided he shall have reached the age of Twenty one years, if not said sum shall be paid to the said J. P. Chapman for the use and benefit of the said Charles K to be paid to him when he shall have arrived at the age of Twenty one years.

ITEM # 6

I give and bequeath to the Trustees of the Female Orphans Asylum of the City of Columbus the sum of Five Hundred Dollars.

ITEM # 7

I desire and so direct the residue and remainder of my estate of whatsoever kind the same may consist to be by my Executor converted into cash at either public or private sale, as to him may seem best, and the proceeds thereof to be by him equally divided between all of my Nephews and Neices, whom I hereby constitute the sole beneficiaries under this item of my will, share and share alike, in no wise excluding my said Neice Emma E. Lips, to whom I have in the 5 item of this will made a special bequest, but that all of my said Nephews and Neices whom I again declare to be the sole beneficiaries under this clause of my will, shall receive an equal share of such residue or remainder, as though no such special bequest to the said Emma E. Lips had been made.

ITEM # 8

I hereby nominate and appoint my tried, trusted and faithful friend Timothy Markham of said State and County, Executor of this my last will and testament, and it is my desire that he be not required to give bond and security as such Executor and as compensation for carrying out the several provisions and bequests contained herein, I give to him the sum of Five Hundred Dollars.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 26th day of June A.D. 1884
C.A.Klink (L.S.)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Charles A. Klink to be his last Will and testament, in our presence as witnesses thereto and at his special instance and request, and signed by us as such witnesses in the presence of said Testator Charles A. Klink, and all in the presence of each other. This 26th day of June A.D. 1884.

"Robert E. Lee"

by

Kent Masterson Brown

Please make your reservations early by calling either Betty Jobson or Sandy Griffin (telephone numbers above) absolutely no later than Thursday, January 16, 1986. Please do not call Big Spring. Also please note the changed times.

The Louisville Civil War Round Table will again have the pleasure of hearing one of our own members talk on Robert E. Lee. Kent spoke to us last December, 1984, on the Confederate Soldier and on numerous occasions before that. We always enjoy having him come and welcome him again this month.

Kent Masterson Brown was born in Lexington, Kentucky, February 25, 1949, attended public schools, was graduated with a Juris Doctor Degree from the School of Law, Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia, in 1974. He is currently a practicing attorney in Lexington,

Kent Masterson Brown

Kentucky, and is a nationally recognized authority in the field of health law. A lecturer and faculty member in the National Health Lawyer Association, Kent Brown has delivered speeches on national health law and policy all across the country.

Kent is a life-long student of the American Civil War and has spoken and written widely on the subject. He is currently the editor of the Civil War Forum of the Virginia Country Magazine. We are all looking forward to hearing Kent once again.

Our 25th Anniversary Celebration

This is the one we've been waiting for and a special committee has been working on for many months. As has been the usual practice for many years, we will again be joined this month by members of the Sons of Confederate Veterans and the Military Order of the Stars and Bars. They are honored to help us celebrate our anniversary.

There will be special presentations at this meeting. Everyone attending will receive both a souvenir program and a commemorative souvenir of the event. The Military Order of the Stars and Bars will present the Robert E. Lee Award for Excellence in Journalism. There will be special toasts made to honor the evening. Our menu will be the usual delicious Big Spring buffet, with prime rib included and a special prepare-your-own sundae bar. Those who ordered a commemorative silver mint julep cup will be able to pick them up that evening. The committee has promised to make this evening a memorable one.

We would like to thank our 25th Anniversary Committee who has worked so hard putting together this special anniversary celebration. They include Wayne Wiedman, Chairman, John Holt, Walter Jobson, Louise Sandidge, Everett Sannemann and Gordon Snyder. Please come and help us celebrate this special moment in the history of the Louisville Civil War Round Table.

A Letter From Lee

Washington University
October 3, 1865

General Pierre Gustave Toutant-Beauregard:

"I hope both you and Johnston will write the history of your campaigns. Everyone should do all in his power to collect and disseminate the truth, in the hope that it may find a place in history, and descend to posterity. I am glad to see no indication in your letter of an intention to leave the country. I think the South requires the aid of her sons now more than at any period of her history. As you ask my purpose, I will state that I have no thought of abandoning her unless compelled to do so....."

1st Lt. John J. Klink, Jr.

My Confederate Ancestor

by

Frank G. Rankin, Jr.

(We think it most fitting in this Silver Anniversary Edition of the Adjutant's Call to feature the Confederate ancestor of the Louisville Civil War Round Table's founding father, Frank G. Rankin, Jr. Following is a short history of the Confederate career of 1st Lt. John J. Klink, Jr.)

As soon as it was possible to fulfill family obligations, John J. Klink, Jr. hastened South from Louisville through the Federal lines to Columbus, Ga., where his uncle, Charles A. Klink, had already joined up with the 17th Georgia Infantry as 1st Lieutenant, eventually to be Captain. Uncle Charlie had come to this country from Germany and had made a fortune in steamboating, ending up owning six. In the fifties, sensing the unpleasantness to come, he sold out and bought a vast plantation in Columbus. John, the eldest son of John J. Klink, Sr., a silversmith and watchmaker, was his uncle's favorite and he wanted to be near his uncle.

John enlisted with the 3rd Georgia Cavalry April 10, 1862. The 3rd was known as Capt. Thompson's Cavalry, C.S.A., sometimes known as Dillard's Rangers. His horse was listed at $250.00 which represented a pretty good horse for that time. He was breveted 2nd Lt. and on April 16 was commissioned 1st Lt. and shown on the rolls as commanding the company. His previous experience in the Kentucky State Guard evidently was recognized. The Company was also referred to as Crawford's Cavalry in the Columbus area and had been recruited by Col. Martin J. Crawford. They were immediately sent into service in Tennessee and were part of General Joseph E. Wheeler's command going into Kentucky. A good portion of the company were embarrassingly captured at Murfordsville, but were immediately paroled. Uncle John was not in this action, having been detached with another command to make a raid up from Owensboro into Louisville. They came up to Clover Hill on Dixie Highway, camped there, dashed into 18th and Oak Streets, shot up the area and then left hurriedly. This encampment is documented in the Miller Family (owners of Federal Hill) now on file at the Filson Club. However, Miller thought it was Morgan's men.

John's record shows him on a number of occasions detached for special duty. Because of his familiarity with Kentucky and Louisville, he was in and out of Louisville many times. He visited Abraham Lodge #8 F.A.M. sitting in Lodge with Union officers. The Confederates would leave the Lodge an hour before the Federals left, so there would be no suspicions cast on a brother officer. John was known as a wanted man by the Federals and the family homestead was searched in December, 1864, while John's father lay dead in a coffin.

John fought all through the War in Perryville, Murfreesboro, Chickamauga, and Atlanta. They fought Sherman in Georgia and the Carolinas. We have two of his original reports, one dated March 24, 1865 and another April 3, 1865. They are signed by him showing the numbers of the company down to 45 men, the regiment was down to 150. Although his parole at Washington, Georgia, was dated May 3, he told his family he did not surrender until June 10, as his group was cut off from the regiment and they didn't make up their minds until then.

He made his way back to Kentucky, had a brief career as a drummer while making provisions for taking care of his widowed mother, then took off for Brazil to join his Confederate brethren there. He became a successful coffee planter with a large plantation. He was also a participant in civic affairs becoming head of the Rio de Janeiro City Council. He married a 15 year old, beautiful Portuguese girl, Jesuina Pereira DeSilva. His estate, Nova America, was outside the city of Itapira, State of San Paula. On his death, his sword, revolver, knife, buttons and spurs came home to Kentucky along with a small trunk of Confederate money.

Spring Field Trip

Those of us going on the field trip to Natchez and study the Battle of Vicksburg with a guided tour will welcome more members to join us. We plan to meet in Natchez on Tuesday evening, March 18, spend Wednesday and Thursday there, move up to Vicksburg by Thursday afternoon, tour the battlefield and surrounding areas Friday and Saturday, then return home on Sunday, March 23. Rooms will be reserved in your name, but you will be responsible for payment directly to them, as well as your own meals. We need to have a final list of those going by the January meeting, so if you want more information, contact either Kenneth Hafendorfer or Lowell Griffin before then.

President's Corner

I want to wish each and every one of you a most glorious New Year and Happy Twenty-Fifth (Twenty-fifth anniversary of the Round Table). As you know, the big date is January 18th, a Saturday night at Big Spring Country Club. On that night, we will celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary. It will be a very special meeting and Kent Masterson Brown will be speaking to us. I am sure all of us will want to be in on this most special occasion.

Those of you who attended the December meeting heard an excellent talk by John Wells on guerilla activity in Eastern Kentucky. It was a most unusual and interesting talk.

This month is the final opportunity to make plans for the Round Table's field trip. The dates are the third week in March, specifically March 17 through 21. We will gather in Natchez, Mississippi on the 17th and finish in Vicksburg before returning home. Dr. Hafendorfer wants a confirmation on all who plan to attend at this month's meeting.

We have a most interesting year coming up with our meetings in February, March, April and May. As you can see, the Round Table is quite active. In reading through other Round Table newsletters, there is no question that our Round Table is one of the most active in the country and one of which we can all be proud.

Again, may 1986 be a most glorious year for each and every one of you.

Charles A. Klink Mill and Codicil

Georgia, Meriwether County.

In the name of God Amen.

I Charles A. Klink of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and knowing the uncertainty of life, do hereby and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other wills by me heretofore made.

- Item 1st I wish, and I hereby instruct my Executor, herein after named, as soon as possible after my death, to pay all of my debts, (if there should be any) and desire that the same be paid out of any money that I may leave at the time of my death in hand, should the same be sufficient and if not sufficient, then I desire that the property embraced in the foregoing clause of this will be used by him for that purpose, and if a sale of property is necessary, I wish him to select from such property, that which can be, in his judgment, and best for that purpose. And I hereby authorize and empower him to sell, and dispose of said property, either at public or private sale as he may deem proper.
- Item 2nd I desire and instruct my Executor (herein after named), to purchase and cause to be erected over my grave a marble Monument to be paid for out of the same fund as that out of which my debts are to be paid; said Monument not to cost less than One Thousand Dollars ($1000⁰⁰) this last matter I wish my said Executor to attend to as early as possible after my death.
- Item 3rd I give and bequeath to my much loved Niece, Emma C. Lips, her sole and separate Estate, free from any and all debt, contracts or liabilities, or control of any husband she may have at the time, or subsequent to my death; the East half of lot number one hundred and seventy three (173) in the City of Columbus, and State and County aforesaid, now situated on the South West corner of Ogilthorpe and Randolph Streets, and known as the Post Office corner, with all the appurtenances thereto belonging.
- Item 4th I give and bequeath to Charles Lips, son of Henry C. Lips, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars, which said sum I hereby direct my Executor to pay to him if he shall have arrived of the age of twenty one years at the time of my death. If however he should not have arrived at the age of Twenty one years at my death, then I direct my said Executor to pay over said amount to his father, the said Henry C. Lips, for the use and benefit of the said Charles until he shall arrive at the age of twenty one year, at which time said amount shall be paid to the said Charles by the said Henry C. Lips.
- Item 5th I give and bequeath to Charles Klink Chapman son of my friend J. P. Chapman, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars said sum to be paid to the said Charles Klink Chapman by my Executor at the time of my death, provided he shall have reached the age of Twenty one years.

and benefit of the said Charles K to be paid to him when he shall have arrived at the age of Twenty one years.

Item 6th I give and bequeath to the Trustees of the Female Orphan Asylum of the City of Columbus the sum of Five Hundred Dollars.

Item 7th I desire, and so direct, the residue and remainder of my estate of what soever kind the same may consist to be by my Executor converted into Cash at either public or private sale, or to him may seem best, and the proceeds thereof to be by him equally divided between all of my Nephews and Nieces, whom I hereby constitute the sole beneficiaries under this item of my Will, share and share alike, in no wise excluding my said Niece Emma E Lips, to whom I have in the 3rd item of this Will made a special bequest, but that all of my said Nephews and Nieces, whom I again declare to be the sole beneficiaries under this clause of my Will, shall receive an equal share of such residue or remainder, as though no such special bequest to the said Emma E Lips had been made.

Item 8th I hereby nominate and appoint my tried, trusted and faithful friend Timothy Markham of said State and County, Executor of this my last Will and Testament, and it is my desire that he be not required to give bond and security as such Executor, and as compensation for carrying out the several provisions and bequests contained herein, I give to him the sum of Five Hundred Dollars.
In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand
