Preamble To Constitution of the Crispus Attucks Chapter of the Sons & Daughters of the American Revolution

There are two things needful for success: I Publicity II Org=anization.

I

By Publicity is meant the making known in every way possible, especially in public print the underlying principle of equality in the American Constitution & "equality" without regard to race, color or previous condition, that underlies the political and social fabric of the U. S. and which forms the nature and character of American citizenship.

II

By Organization is meant the consolidation of the Chapters of that Society known as the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution of which the Crispus Attucks Chapter is a component, so that by the united effort of these chapters consisting of the descendants (and their partisans) of the American Revolutionists of 1776, the above principles, which form the object of main-tenance of the Society, shall be sustained and defended against the insidious attacks of those who would reduce our efforts to naught.

The war for American Independence was a war against race-distinction and race-separation which exist in European monarchies and aristocracies, and resulted in establishing in the U. S. in their stead the law of race-equality and race-union so that from the social and political combine of all races in the U. S. in a perfect equality there might result that one American Race by the union of them all, thus realizing the plan of the Founders of the American democratic Republic. All Chapters of the Sons & Daughters of the A. R. have incorporated these fundamental principles as the object of their being, and any Chapter that is remiss in this deserves to be of these principles for whose sustenance alone

The American Citizen and the Slave

In the eye of the law, there is no "Negro-problem" in the United States, because the Negro is an American Citizen. It was to destroy the distinctions which exist in ^{European} law of European monarchies separating the Noblesse of pure race from the ^{business} bourgeoisie, or proprietary class and they from the ^{the} peasantry of mixed races of laborers and ^{proclaimed} ~~declared~~ that the United States ^{in its Declaration of Independence} ~~declared~~ from this law of ^{the aristocracy} ~~the aristocracy~~ ^{in European monarchies} ~~recognition and representation of European monarchies~~, that, in America "All men are created equal." This means that the law takes no notice of race-distinctions, and that a citizen is a citizen whether he be black or white, and that the law takes no notice of ^{his} color - so far as the law goes the black man, the white man and the man of intermediate shades are equal citizens - American citizens, just that and nothing more. The only difference that the law recognizes between them is in the Census, in the law of taxation; that is, their financial difference. The rich man pays a bigger tax than the poor man; can employ more of the time of the law-courts and thus has a greater influence in the government. But this does not disturb the equality of the citizens, for if a ^{citizen} of dark complexion with wealth can do exactly the same as a ^{citizen} of light complexion ^{with wealth}. Even in the days of slavery in America when the white man was buying and selling the black man, the reverse of this was then happening in the Barbary States of Africa - the black man there was buying and selling the white man.

Slavery ceased first in the ² northern states and it was there held that it was contrary to this basis of citizenship, that "All men are created equal" in America. It was further pointed out that for fear that any aristocracy might rise above the level of citizenship, that all nobility was prohibited - no race distinctions would be tolerated. The Constitution declares "No state or states shall issue titles (or orders) of nobility" etc.

Chief-Justice Taney however with remarkable hypocrisy abused his high office with issuing the following decision in the "Dred Scott Case" of 1857 in which he tried to explain that the ^{Negro} ~~black~~ race in America was not included in the Declaration of Equality for all men. He said "It is too clear that the enslaved African race were not intended to be included and formed no part of the 'people' who framed and adopted the Declaration." Well, if the "enslaved" Africans were not included, how about the free Africans who served in the war for American Independence and adopted the above Declaration for which they fought? How about Christopher Columbus who fought and died side-by-side with the whites in Boston at this time and for whom the white citizens of Boston have created a statue in Boston ~~Cannon~~ along side of Washington and Adams? ^{and} American citizens came from Europe, Asia and Africa and these Africans of 1776 ~~who~~ fought with their white brethren for equality as it was written in the Declaration.

But the interpretation of Chief-Justice Taney, of the U.S. Court put a new meaning in it, - a false-meaning which had to be wiped out in blood in the Civil War of 1861-5 which overthrew the illegal conditions of slavery and established equality as it was meant.

In order that hereafter there should be no mistake about the meaning of "equality" of citizens in the United States, the Thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments were added to the Constitution as the fundamental law - that there is no difference between citizens deriving from "race, color or previous condition". It is therefore not strictly proper to say "Colored Citizen", since color is a race condition. The words "American Citizen" cover all. ~~It~~ ^{As} has truly been said that the pure African race is ~~disappearing~~ ^{disappearing} in America. Before 1861 the white people of the South had many African concubines and those who visit the South will see the shading off of color from black to brown, from brown to fair. In the North many marriages take place between the colored and white races and so by the union of the races not only is the African race disappearing in America but the European or Caucasian race in America is likewise disappearing and the offspring of the two are going to form that American ^{race} of equal units ~~which~~ that is neither Caucasian nor African but American.

This was the dream of the first American Democrats and republicans to create a new race by the blending of all without regard to ancestry, color or previous condition. They have provided by their laws for the elimination of ~~all~~ ^{any} differences and inequalities.

A Society has been formed to maintain the Declaration and Constitution of the United States. It starts from the beginning and is called Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution. The following is taken from its membership requirements:-

BOY SCOUTS

Geo. T. Wood, Representative of the Kentucky Society, S. A. R., on the Louisville Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

President's Letter

Our purpose in issuing this little pamphlet at this time is to acquaint all our members, especially those members who have not been attending the meetings, with the activities of the Society since the issuance of our last Year Book, and to so stimulate their interest and that of all of the members, that they may be more active and more helpful to the Society than heretofore. Surely, we all realize that we are passing through strenuous and critical times—times that certainly try men's souls, and if there was ever need for a patriotic society to talk and preach and practice patriotism, that time is now.

While our Society deals with the past, nevertheless, we are working for the present and future welfare of our country. As Longfellow wrote in his celebrated "Hyperion"—Let us

"Look not mournfully into the Past;
It comes not again.
Wisely improve the Present;
It is thine.
Go forth to meet the shadowy future
Without fear and with a manly heart."

The S. A. R. is not a rich men's organization. It is thoroughly democratic and the dues of the Kentucky Society are only $2.00 per year, and I do not know of any society that accomplishes so much good for so little money, and I am sure that there is not a member of our organization who is not able and willing to pay the small dues that we ask.

I want each and every one of our members to take the time to read this little pamphlet and to thoroughly acquaint himself with what the Society has done and is doing.

The most important committee in the Society is the membership committee, for through the members "we live and move and have our being." I want every member of our Society this year to consider himself on this committee, whether he has been specifically appointed or not, and to earnestly help to secure as many new members as possible. There are hundreds of desirable men in this state who are eligible to join our Society who need only to be asked to join. They will not unless they are invited. Will not every member this year speak to some of his friends, who are eligible, and lend a helping hand in securing at least one new member? If everyone will only help, then with a long pull and a strong pull, and a pull altogether, we can increase our membership very materially this year, and at the same time, render a great service to our friends by inviting them to become members of our Society.

If any of your friends desire to join our Society, our efficient Secretary and our splendid membership committee will take pleasure in helping your prospect prepare his papers, and I hope that each and every member will be sufficiently interested to speak to his friends about this matter.

ALLEN R. CARTER,
President.

The National Society

The national Society of the Sons of the American Revolution was organized April 30, 1889, and incorporated by Special Act of Congress June 6, 1906.

It is composed of 46 State Societies, and Societies in the District of Columbia, Hawaii, the Philippines, and France.

The Kentucky Society was organized at Frankfort, Ky., April 9, 1889, its first President being the Hon. Wm. Lindsay. The Board of Managers meets on the third Tuesday of every month at the Pendennis Club for lunch and for the transaction of business. The annual election of officers takes place October 19.

The Kentucky Society celebrates every year the following anniversaries:

January 17—Battle of Cowpens.

April 19—Battles of Lexington and Concord.

June 17—Battle of Bunker Hill.

October 19—Surrender at Yorktown.

On these occasions, patriotic and helpful addresses are made by well-known speakers.

PURPOSES AND OBJECTS.

The purposes and objects of the Society are patriotic, historical, and educational, and include those intended or designed to perpetuate the memory of the men who, by their services or sacrifices during the war of the American Revolution, achieved the independence of the American people; to unite and promote fellowship among their descendants; to inspire them and the community at large with a more profound reverence for the principles of the Government founded by our forefathers; to encourage historical research in relation to the American Revolution; to acquire and preserve the records of the individual services of the patriots of the war, as well as documents, relics, and landmarks; to mark the scenes of the Revolution by appropriate memorials; to celebrate the anniversaries of the prominent events of the war and of the Revolutionary period; to foster true patriotism; to maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, and to carry out the purposes expressed in the preamble of the Constitution of our country and the injunctions of Washington in his farewell address to the American people.

REASONS FOR MEMBERSHIP.

It is a practical way of honoring a man's patriotic forefathers.

It preserves for future generations the family pedigrees of members back to the period of the Revolution.

The Society encourages continued public interest in the men and events of the American Revolution.

To the youth of the families of members it teaches important lessons of patriotism and good citizenship.

The chief principle was "That all men are created equal in the U. S. and the Constitution declares this equality to be regardless of" race, color or previous condition"

By the wide distribution of leaflets, printed in words that all can understand, it teaches the millions of aliens in the United States what the Nation stands for, what it means for them to become a part of the body politic, participating in the duties and responsibilities of active citizens in an intelligent manner.

It is non-sectarian, non-political, uniting in friendly relationship men of all creeds, men of the North, South, East and West.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP.

Any man shall be eligible to membership in the Society who, being of the age of twenty-one years or over, and a citizen of good repute in the community, is the lineal descendant of an ancestor who was at all times unfailing in his loyalty to, and rendered active service in, the cause of American Independence, either as an officer, soldier, seaman, marine, militiaman or minute man, in the armed forces of the Continental Congress, or of any one of the several Colonies or States, or as a Signer of the Declaration of Independence, or as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence, or as a member of any Continental, Provincial, or Colonial Congress or Legislature, or as a recognized patriot who performed actual service by overt acts of resistance to the authority of Great Britain.

HOW TO BECOME A MEMBER.

Trace your lineage back to the period of the Revolution through paternal and maternal lines and ascertain the names and residences of all male lineal ancestors of proper age for active participation in the struggle for Independence. This search may be guided by family papers and traditions, by published and original probate and land records of towns and counties, and by tombstone inscriptions. Search printed and manuscript records of military and naval service. Where two or more men of the same name are recorded from the same locality, identify as your own ancestor the one upon whom claim is based. Names of German, Dutch, or French origin may be disguised by translation into English or by various phonetic spellings.

References to manuscript sources must be accompanied by officially certified copies.

Application for membership is made on standard blanks furnished by the Secretary of the Kentucky Society or by any member of the Membership Committee. These blanks call for the place and date of birth and of death of the Revolutionary ancestor and the year of birth, of marriage, and of death of ancestors in intervening generations. Membership is based on one original claim; additional claims are filed on supplemental papers. The applications and supplementals are made in duplicate. One copy remains with the State Society and one copy is permanently preserved in the Registrar General's office, where a reference card index is kept of members' names and of their Revolutionary ancestors.

My Old Kentucky Home

The sun shines bright in my old Kentucky home;
'Tis summer, the darkies are gay;
The corn's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom,
While the birds make music all the day.
The young folk roll on the little cabin floor,
All merry, all happy, all bright,
By-m by hard times comes a-knockin' at the door—
Then my old Kentucky home, good night.

CHORUS:

Weep no more, my lady; oh weep no more today;
We'll sing one song for the old Kentucky home,
For our old Kentucky home far away.

They hunt no more for the 'possum and the coon,
On the meadow, the hill and the shore;
They sing no more by the glimmer of the moon
On the bench by the old cabin door.
The day goes by like a shadow o'er the heart,
With sorrow where all was delight;
The time has come when the darkies have to part,
Then my old Kentucky home, good night.

The head must bow, and the back will have to bend,
Wherever the darkies may go;
A few more days and the trouble all will end
In the field where the sugar canes grow.
A few more days to "tote" the weary load—
No matter it will never be light;
A few more days till we totter on the road;
Then my old Kentucky home, good night.

The Star-Spangled Banner

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
Over the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming;
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

On the shore dimly seen thro' the mist of the deep
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze o'er the towering steep
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream;
'Tis the star-spangled banner, oh! long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore,
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion,
A home and a country should leave us no more?
Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave;
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Oh! thus be it e'er when freemen shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
Praise the pow'r that hath made and preserv'd us a nation;
Then conquer we must when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, "In God is our trust."
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!
