Indian War in the Year 1780

While stationed at Sturgis Station, Kentucky, on a stream called Beargrass, we were continually annoyed by the Indians. Myself and others were held as minute men in this year. Colonel Lyon was killed by the Indians, also Mr. Martin, also three men taken prisoners by the Indians; their names not recollcted at this time.

In the Spring of 1781 removed to Salt River; nothing of consequence occurred this year. In the year 1782 the Indians were very troublesome. The fore part of the summer we were compelled to stand sentry every night around the fort and every day round our corn patches while they were tended. In September the same year a general call was made on the forts, myself living in Barnett's Station (Note by S. F. P. - This fort was on the mouth of Pottenger's Creek Ky) turned out under Captain Pottenger and joined General (George Rogers) Clark in an expedition against the Shawnee's Nation which were collected on the Miamis (Little + Big Miami Rivers in Ohio). Took two of their towns in which two of our men were wounded. One of them died of his wound.

In the year 1783 nothing particular occurred. In the year 1784 was drafted and stationed at Boone's Station for thirty days. For two or three years after this we were called on frequently to scour the country, sometimes as expressmen and so forth.

In all these expeditions we found (furnished) our own guns, <sup>powder</sup>

② and accoutrements, also our own provisions, and were our own pack horses. (Signed) David Lee 1781

Tipppecanoe County, to wit } in the Year 1837. }

"On this seventeenth day of April in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-seven personally appeared in open court before the said Circuit Court for Tipppecanoe County in the State of Indiana, being a court of record by the constitution and laws of said State, the said Court being now in session, David Lee, a resident of Lawrence Township in the said County of Tipppecanoe, aged seventy-one years in January last, who being duly sworn on his solemn oath deposes and says and makes the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832: That he first entered in the service of the United States in the Spring of seventeen hundred and eighty-one and was enrolled when fifteen years of age on Beargrass Creek about ten miles above the Falls of Ohio River in the State of Kentucky at a place called Sturgess's Station in the Company of Captain Sturgess (who was killed the same fall of the said year by the Indians on Brashear's or Floyd's Creek). This was a volunteer company and deponent served for the space of three months in guarding the fort and protecting the frontier against the Indians and frequently had to pursue them. He then removed to Salt River in the same state upon the Rolling Branch (now called Rolling Fork) of said river and was enrolled in the company of Captain Samuel Pottenger, in the Spring of the year 1782 and commenced Clark's campaign in the month of August 1782 and Colonel ~~Robert~~ Green had a small company of regular soldiers. <sup>They marched</sup> up the Ohio, crossed the Ohio River at the mouth of Licking (River) and built a block house where Concumtine now stands, and then went and cut a road to the two Indian towns on the West or upper side of the Big Miami (Shawnee towns) which he assisted in destroying. Got back to the Ohio River at Concumtine on the 14th of November 1782. Had a wounded man named Captain M<sup>r</sup> Loraker who died there. The block house was burnt over his grave to keep the Indians from finding him. Col. Hon. Lewis was killed by the Indians, as were also Morgan and Martin. Three men were taken prisoners by the Indians - an old man and two sons named Summitt. He went home towards the last of November 1782. Nothing of special consequence happened in the year 1783 in which this deponent was concerned. In the year 1782 the Indians were very troublesome. In the first part of this summer we were compelled to stand as sentry every night around the fort and every day around our cover patches while they were landed. In the year 1784 this deponent was drafted as a private in the Company of Samuel Pottenger, Captain and was sent to Boone's Station in the State of Kentucky, where he was detained from 30 to 40 days, and for the ensuing three years this deponent was frequently called upon and compelled to pass through

③ The Country as express man, that in all these expeditions he found (furnished) his own rifle and accoutrements and also his own provisions as was his own pack horse. This deponent further swears that he was born in the month of January, on the 27th day, in the year 1766. That he was no record whatever of his age because his father died without leaving to him any memorial of his birth. That he was born in the State of New Jersey from which at a very early age his father removed to the river Potomac and thence to Salt River in Kentucky, about 15 or 16 miles South of Bardstons. Since the Revolutionary War he has lived in Hamilton County, Ohio, until he removed to this State and County on the 15th day of November, 1829, since which time he has continued as a citizen and resident of this County. He served as a volunteer and always chose their own Captain, and when he returned home became his own master, and never received any regular written discharge. That he is known to Dr. L. Fairman, William Mayors, Esq, Mr. William Campbell, William Skinner, Esq, Sheriff, James H. Mayors, Jacob Smith and others, that he hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to any pension except the present, and that his name is now on the pension roll of this State sworn to and subscribed in open Court, on the 17th day of April in the year 1837 as set forth above

of North Carolina

Jane Gray married 1st John Withrow in North Carolina; 2nd John Gilkey, also of North Carolina; 3rd Capt. Samuel Pottenger (1754-1831) in Pottenger's Fort, in Nelson Co., N.C. The following is a copy of a document found among the papers of the Gilkey family. The John Gilkey named therein was the second husband of Jane Gray (Withrow) and by her had two children: Jane Gilkey (married John Pottenger, brother of Capt. Samuel; and Robert Gilkey (married Sarah S. Kercheval, dau. of James and Mary Pottenger Kercheval, the latter a sister of Capt. Pottenger.

Copy of the document:

"We, the undersigned, being mutually chosen by William Porter of the County of Rutherford and State of North Carolina, and Robert Neven of Kentucky, agent for John Gilkey's son Robert Gilkey, to settle the accounts between William Porter, Administrator upon the estate of John Gilkey, and to set a value on the land belonging to the above estate; we do award and say that William Porter had justly due him from said estate the sum of 145 pounds, 17 and 6 pennies; and that the land is worth one pound per acre. To which opinion we set our hands this 16th day of November, 1802.

Comment on the above. A Capt. Robert Gilkey, in that part of North Carolina, was a native of Ireland; came to America at the age of twelve; settled first in Lancaster, Penn'a; came to Guilford Co., N.C., then to Beatty's Ford (also in N.C.) where he lived during the Rev. War. After that war (in which he served under Gen. Gates in South Carolina) Capt. Gilkey moved to Rutherford Co., N.C., where a son, John Gilkey (92 years old in 1881) was born and was living on February 3, 1881. He furnished these facts at that time and they are embodied in the Draper Collection of Manuscripts, State Historical Society, at Madison, Wis. (File: Draper MSS -- 7DD108) John Gilkey said further that Capt. Robert Gilkey's daughter Jane married Capt. William Porter (who became a prominent man); that Porter was born in Rowan Co., N.C., and had an older brother Robert who moved to Greenville; and that Capt. Robert Gilkey married Jane McQuarter of Carlisle, Penn'a.

Query: Who was the father of the above decedent, John Gilkey?

The Jameson Family

(These extracts are from "The Jamesons in America 1647-1900" by Ephraim Orcutt Jameson)

The Jamesons in Virginia.

1st James Jameson, whose parentage and birthplace are unknown, married Margaret (whose surname is not known) and they resided in St. Anne's Parish, Essex Co., Va. He died <sup>there</sup> in 1736. Their children were:

Thomas Jameson (737) who died in 1768.

James Jameson (738), b. 1720; m. 1742, Mary Gainer; d. Dec. 6, 1766

David Jameson (739), m. Mildred Smith; d. 1793.

The father, James Jameson, was doubtless of Scotch lineage. His ancestors, it is said, were engaged in trade with the colonies, in which he may have also been interested, for there is found in the "Diary of Rev. William Homes" of Chidwark, Martha's Vineyard, the following record: "November 30, 1717, John Mc Clellan and James Jameson came to my house *** this Lords day." And it may have been that his ship was lying at anchor, over Sunday, at Homes Hole, on her way from Scotland to Virginia.

James Jameson may have been the son of James and Sarah Jameson of Boston, Mass., "born 22: 10 month," and baptized "28 day 10 mo. 1751," of whom there appears no further record, who may have found his way to Virginia. Or he may have been the son of a James Jameson (954) whose death, <sup>it</sup> is said occurred Jan. 17, 1720, in Middlesex Co., Virginia.

James Jameson and his wife Margaret, according to the records, resided in the Parish of St. Anne, which was established in 1692, County of Essex, Colony of Virginia. They gave a deed conveying fifty acres of land to Thomas Short, which was admitted to record May 17, 1720, Margaret Jameson freely relinquishing her right of dower in said land the same day.

James Jameson, Samuel Sally, and Elizabeth Gray, January 5, 1721, witnessed the last will and testament of Thomas Ayres, the great-grandfather of Samuel Ayres who married Donathea Graham Jameson (769).

~~Begin p. 131, par. 3~~

Mrs. Jameson probably died before her husband, as no mention is made of her in his will, which was dated April 19, 1736, proved Nov. 17, 1736, and reads as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen, I, James Jameson, being sick and weak, but of sound and perfect memory, do make, constitute and ordain this my last Will and Testament in manner following:

"Imprimus. I give and bequeath to my son James the land I bought of Richard Coleman, lying in King and Queen County,

"Item, I leave ten pounds current money to my son David and one Gold ring with a stone to Mrs. Eleanor Roy: and will that all the remainder of my Estate of what kind soever be Equally divided amongst my beloved sons, Thomas, James and David. Appointing the Rev<sup>d</sup>. Robert Rose, Mr. Daniel Gaines, Mungo Roy & my said son James, Ex<sup>rs</sup>. of this my last Will and Testament

The inventory and appraisement of his estate were made Nov. 17, 1736, by commissioners appointed, Daniel Gaines, Thomas Short, and Charles Sharp, and admitted to record

May 17, 1737. James Jameson, the son named as one, <sup>(3)</sup> of the executors, being a minor, John Tawler was appointed in his place until he should become of age. Rev. Robert Rose became the guardian of James Jameson and Thomas Jameson the guardian of David Jameson, during their minority, and filed their bonds of £1,000 each Dec. 18, 1737.

Harrison Southworth, Esq., 1897 clerk of the circuit and county courts of Essex county, Tappahannock, Va., makes the following statement: "The Records of Deeds and Wills go back to 1656; Orders of Courts go back to 1683; but there are no records of births, marriages and deaths prior to 1853."
He states further that he has searched the records in that office from 1707 to 1741, and a summary of all Jameson items is as follows:

"James Jameson qualified as Executor Dec. 17, 1717; James Jameson and Mary Quarley in 1717; James Jameson of St.
Anne's Parish made a deed to Thomas Short for 50 acres of land, and the same was acknowledged by Margaret, his wife, May 17, 1720; James Jameson vs. Jno. Hawkins, suit in 1721 for Trespass and Assault; Thomas Jameson in 1737 allowed compensation as witness in court; James Jameson's will, dated and probated in 1736, mentions sons Thomas, James and David; Thomas Jameson qualified as guardian of David Jameson in 1737."

No. 737 Thomas<sup>2</sup> Jameson (James<sup>1</sup>), son of James Jameson# (736) and Margaret..... his wife, was born in St. Anne's Parish, Essex Co., Va. The name, parentage, and birthplace of his wife are unknown. They resided in Orange Co., Va. Capt. Jameson died in 1768.

The Children were:

James Jameson (740), married Lucy Hackley.

Thomas Jameson (741), b. May 3, 1743; married Judith B. Hackley; died Aug. 14, 1827.

Margaret Jameson (742), b. 1747; married March, 1767, John Hawkins; died Sept. 12, 1770.

John Jameson (743), b. 1751; married<sup>(1st)</sup> Feb. 25, 1785, Rachel Berrin; married<sup>(2nd)</sup> Elizabeth Davenport; died Nov. 20, 1810.

David Jameson (744), b. Aug. 19, 1752; married Mary Mennis; died Oct. 2, 1839.

William Jameson (745), born 1755.

Thomas Jameson is mentioned in Thomas Walker's Journal of 1750 as "Capt. Jameson near Panther Gap." This place is in Rockbridge Co., Va.

In 1737 he gave bonds as guardian of his youngest brother, David Jameson (739). Capt. Jameson must have died between Thursday, Nov. 26, 1767, on which day he witnessed some transaction on record, and the following July 28, 1768, when his son Thomas Jameson was granted letters of administration on his father's estate. The estate was appraised Sept. 24, 1772, by William Pannell, Wm. Bromough, and Uriel Malloy.

Capt. Jameson, it appears, must have been a resident, for a time, of Orange Co., Va. Little is known of him beyond his military standing as a captain; usually he is styled "gentleman," and held the office of a justice of the peace.

May 26, 1757, the commissioners who appraised the <sup>(5)</sup> estate of Jeremiah Morton were sworn by Capt. Jamison, gentleman.

"William Jamison, orphan of Thomas Jamison, deceased, being above the age of 14, March 23, 1769, chose his brother, Thomas Jamison, his guardian, Foliver Craig, junior, security."

The above refers doubtless to the youngest son of Thomas Jamison, William Jamison (745), who was a soldier, or an officer, in the army of the Revolution with his older brother Col. John Jamison (743), and testified at the trial of one Smith, in connection with Arnold's treason and the capture of André.

~~Begin with No 738 (p. 152) James Jamison, second son of James and Margaret Jamison, then copy No. 739 David Jamison, their third son~~

James Jamison, son of James (736) and Margaret Jamison, was born in 1720 in St. Anne's Parish, Essex Co., Va. He married in 1742 Mary James, daughter of Daniel and Elija James. She was born in 1722 in Essex Co., Va. They resided in Liberty Hall in that county. He died Dec. 6, 1766, and she July 18, 1806.

Their children were:

Martha (746) b. 6/13/1743; mar. Francis Meredith; d. 1818
Thomas (747) b. 7/17/1745; mar. 1767 Mary Robinson; d. 1771
Peggy (748) b. 4/18/1748; d. in infancy 2/2/49
James (749) b. 3/21/1754; d. in boyhood 3/19/65
David (750) b. 10/5/1757; mar. 4/25/82 Sarah Gray; d. 1812
Mary (751) b. 3/2/60; mar. 1775 Reuben Garnett; d. 8/27/1839
Elija (752) b. 9/14/62; d. 9/2/1839

James Jamison was not of age when his father died in 1736 and Rev. Robert Rose, one of the execs. of his father's will, (6) was apptd. his guardian during his minority. He died in the meridian of his manhood.

Mrs. Jameson's father, Daniel Gaines, was one of the commissioners to appraise the estate of James Jameson, her husband's father, and also one of the execs. of his will in 1736.

Daniel Gaines, whose will was recorded July 18, 1757, bequeaths a negro girl to his granddaughter, Mantha Jameson.

Mrs. Jameson had a brother, Bernard Gaines, who married Sarah Ayres, dau. of Thomas and Mary (Scott) Ayres, and sister to William Ayres whose son Samuel Ayres married Dorothy Graham Jameson (769), dau. of Thomas and Mary (Robinson) Jameson.

The above Thomas Ayres, Samuel Ayres' grandfather, died in 1755 leaving a widow and a large family of children, of whom William was the oldest of ten or twelve. Scarcely had two years elapsed when the widow and mother of these many children married again. Her second husband was John Boulware. And it is to Mrs. Mary (Ayres) Boulware nee Scott, i. e., to his wife's mother, that Bernard Gaines writes a letter dated "January 4th 26th 1770" in which he says:

"I have sent by William Gaines, my son Daniel to go to school for I can't get him to school here." He adds also, "I have sent down a horse for Peggy to ride to my house and nothing will give me more pleasure than to see some of them there."

Mrs. Jameson died Dec. 10, 1778.

David Jameson it is said graduated from Princeton College, N.J. He established himself in business as a merchant, and was a prominent citizen of Yorktown, and favorably known throughout the state of Virginia. He was made in 1777, one of the privy council, in 1780-'81 he was Lieutenant Governor of the Commonwealth in the administration of Gov. Thomas Nelson and in 1783 he was a member of the state senate.

Lieut. Gov. Jameson was the first person in Virginia, and probably in America, to invent and use a rain-gauge, by which he measured the rain-fall for the entire year. Among recorded transactions are the following: - Under date of Nov. 10, 1795, David Jameson, of the town and county of York, Va., gentleman, and Mildred, his wife, gave a deed to Charles Mennis, of the same county and town, under date of Sept. 1, 1792, David Jameson of Yorktown, sells negroes to Donathea Graham Jameson and Thomas Jameson, children of Thomas Jameson (747) deceased, late of Yorktown, Va.

<sup>entire copy</sup> Lieut. Gov. David Jameson made his will Oct 14, 1792, and to it added a codicil May 21, 1793, and the instrument was probated July 22, 1793, so that his death must have occurred between the last two dates.

His will reads as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I, David Jameson of York Town, being of sound mind, but at present of indifferent health, do make, constitute and appoint this my last will and Testament. I give and bequeath unto my nephew, John Jameson, one moiety of my estate both real and personal of which I may die possessed of, to him the said John and his heirs forever.

I give the other moiety of my Estate that I may die possessed of both real and personal to be equally divided between my nephews David Jameson of Culpeper and David Jameson of Caroline county, to them and to their heirs forever.

Witness my hand and seal this 14th day of October, 1792

"Memo: On the 21st of May 1793, Mr. David Jameson of York, desired me to add by way of Codicil to his will, that Cupid and Frank, two of his slaves, should at his decease be Emancipated, the last mentioned to be bound out to some Trade of the Administrators of his Will, and that Grace a girl at present about the house should be given to Mrs. Mary Minnie Wm. Reynolds."

Mrs. Jameson was a granddaughter of Col. Lawrence and Mildred (Chowan) Smith, and received her grandmother's Christian name, and as a descendant of the Martians and Peades of Yorktown, Va, she was of the kinship of George Washington. Mrs. Jameson died in her 46th year, and was buried at what was known as "Temple Field", and later as Temple Farm. Her tombstone has the Jameson arms impaled with the arms of Smith, and the following inscription:

"Underneath this marble lies the Body of

and Daughter of Edmund and Agnes Smith of York County.

She departed this life

to the Ky. Country

After being at Surgeon Station
"He then returned to Salt River in the same state for the Relief of Salt River and was recruited in the company of Capt. James <sup>at</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>about</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>best</sup> of May 1782 and commenced Clark's Campaign in the month of Aug. 1782 and Col. Clark commanded. Clark had a small co. of regular soldiers. He marched up the Ohio at the mouth of the heeling & built a block house whose bins now stands & then went and cut a road to the two Indian towns on the West or upper side of the Miami (Shawnee town) which he stopped to destroy. Got back to the Ohio r. at Cin. 4 of Nov. 1782. We went home towards the last of Nov. 1782."

In the yr 1784 was drafted as a private in the Co. of Captain Patterson and was sent to Penn Sta. in the State of Ky where he was detained 30 or 40 days & for the ensuing 3 yrs. was frequently called upon to march around through the country as express man. That is all of the expeditions that he formed his own rifle & accoutrements & also his own provisions and

"The dep'n of Saml P. taken at his <sup>house</sup> in Nelson County on the 31st day of May 1809 by consent of parties to be read as evi. in the suit in Chancery now depending in the Nelson Cir. Ct. wherein Andrew Rowson is Compt. & Samuel Oldham and others Defs. The dep't. being of lawful age & duly sworn saith that he was on the Creek now P. Creek in the year 1778 & x x x x x He states that in the fall 1782 he was on a Campaign with Han Oldham a bro. of the Dep't Samuel Oldham. Said Will Oldham said he had entries wh. he supposed to be on this Creek wh. he had got of Eaton & that the entries were made on Potomac Creek & he supposed this to be the Creek. Han Oldham then asked this Dep't. if he came to the creek & made the necessary surveys in order to regulate the surveys of the entries he got of Eaton by, if the Dep't. would suffer him. The Dep't. replied in the affirmative & Han Oldham came the following month & made the surveys for the Dep't. & afterwards made the surveys of the Defendant Samuel Oldham. The Dep't. found claim made for Oldham to survey Samuel Oldham's entries & the Dep't. marked the lines of sd. survey. The Dep't. further states that he afterwards directed the making of the entry in the name of Abednego Carter assignee of Elias Barber now owned by the Compt. thinking Oldham's claim not good and thought to hold the land, not having heard the Creek called Potomac Crk. except in the cases above attended to by them. Oldham. The Dep't. states that there are knobs on both sides of Potomac Creek generally from the head to the mouth. The Dep't. states that his premises was divided into three surveys & that they were all made by Han Oldham at the time above alluded to and that the survey for his allotment was made at the same time by the sd. Oldham, & that from that time the Dep't. sd. surveys were made he could & would have them to any inquirer the lines & corners for three or four yrs. afterwards & that he presumes the boundaries of his lands around the station would as well understand by the which stands as the boundaries of any other lands under similar circumstances. But that he don't think that Abednego Carter knew them without information from the Defendant as Carter then lived at Gordons Station. The first from the time it was erected on the Dep't's land on Pot. Creek in 1781 was notoriously known by the name of Potomac Station. The Dep't. knows nor never heard of any other lands entered or surveyed on Pot. Crk. in the name of Potomac but that of the Defendants. The Dep't. knows no others by the name of Potomac in Ky. in 1783 & 1784 but himself and two brothers who were late and then lived with the Dep't. The Dep't. states the place & location named as the beginning corner of the Compt's entry & survey is on the south side of main Pot. Crk. He states that there are large knobs on the south side of his line called for to be adjoined by the Compt's claim (Signed) Samuel Pottinger

Page 403 The Dep'n of Saml P. taken by consent of parties in the suit now depending in Chancery in Court of Order Pleas of Nelson Co, wherein Samuel Oldham is Compt & Meshech Carter is Def. The Dep't. deposes & saith that he built a cabin in the lower corner of Meshech Carter's field where the above survey lines.

Q. by Compt. Where were the cabins you first saw in the yr. 1778? A. One of the cabins was just above Meshech's field on the south side of the Crk; another in the fork & a third up the mouth of the Crk. The Compt. appeared to be abt one or two yrs. old & that the Compt. were about 15 ft. long, 3 or 4 logs high. Q (by Mr. Beall) Was you well acquainted with the meanders of the Crk. & the banks about there? A - I was acquainted with the Crk. as a hunter. Q (by the same) If there had been other cobbins dont you think you would have seen them? A - I suppose - may be I might. Q (by Mr. Nourse) How far from the Crk. was the foundation of the a cobbins? A - About two miles & a half. Q (by same) How far from the second? A - About a half a mile from the other foundation. Q (by the same) Do you think of any sign on the bank of the Crk.? A - No; not any. Q (by same) As you hunted on the Crk. if there had been a track do you not think you would have discovered it? A - I should suppose I should as there is generally paths to tracks. Q (by Mr. Beall) Did you not sometimes when you saw paths follow them to find tracks? A - Some times I would (to). Q (by same) How long do you suppose you were hunting on that ground to the best of yo. knowledge? A - About 2 or 3 wks. in the winter 1778. Q (by same) What did you build & settle there? A - Built a cobbins and covered at some times after Yemas in the winter 1779. Q (by same) Did you discover any more foundations of cobbins there (exclusive of what you have mentioned before). A - No more just on the northward but two more about three miles from any old cobbins one up one fork & one up the other. The cobbins were raised & ribs on & appeared to be raised about the same times of them lower the Crk. below. Q (by Dep.) Do you know who built the two cobbins? A - I do not know who built them. Henry Platts told me he was in company & he believed he & his Co.

 built them. Q (by Mr. Nourse) Were you & are you acquainted with the traces that lead from the big knob on the head of P. Crk.? A - I am. Q (by same) Did you ever discover any old blazes on or near a west drain leading from said knob? A - I dont remember I did.
 Q (by same) Did you ever discover any leading back the upper Crk.? A - I dont remember I did.
 Q (by same) Did you conceive of self. entered on this right? A - I do not conceive myself ent.
 in it. Q (by Compt) Did you ever see the sign on the lower side of Mrs. Carters spring branch near the Crk. where there is two bushes better, one marked with the letters R. R and the foundation of a cobbins at Johnsons spring? A - I never saw any empts. at Johnsons spring or a marked bush I saw two letters on a bush but dont remember what they were nor the saw them. Q (by same) Did not a certain James Ray & John Ray keep a no. of horses there in 1778 but I know they had a no. there in 1779 & 1780, and fur. this dep. south west.

 Wm Rogers & Henry Platts JPs for Nelson Co, a Deed was not being produced from the parties agreed to proceed to the taking of this and the following dep. without a Dedition.

This dep. being 1st sworn on this point, to wit a suit in Chancery depending on the Cr. Sec
 Cr. of Nels Co. wherein S. B. D. is Compt & Mesack Carter, 1st dep. & 2nd as follows:

I came to this country [Ky.] in the yr. 1776 and in the (year) 1778 Jas. Har. & myself came to the Crk. now called P. Crk. & ed. Har. then gave it the name of P. Crk. by wch. name it was called I have always heard it called since that time until the yr. 1780 when Wm. Platts surveyed his claim on sd. Crk. his entry called for Carters Crk. but before that time I never heard it called Carters Crk.

Q. - (By Dep.) When did you first after m & Har. were on the Crk. return to the Crk. and stay over any consid. time? A - Some time before Yemas in the yr. 1778. Q. Did you then discover any old built on or near sd. Crk.? A - I was on all parts of the Crk. but disco. no cobbins within miles of the land now in dispute. Q. - What kind of land is there at the mouth of P. Crk. A - Low & some oak. Q. - (By Compt) Were there not some empts. on the yr 78 on the Crk. within than three mi. from the land in dispute? A - I saw less empts. - One abt. 1/2 mi from the place the other at the fork of the Crk. These strips had some trees decident and two or three round of logs put up & I likewise saw one up the N. fork. Q. (by Dep.) What kind of soil grows on the Crk.?

Copied

C A - It was very recent & plentiful in the bottom & was nearly as high as a man's hand & a gut dial as high as a man's hand on horseback. Q - Did we ever see any trees on the Crk. marked 14 or 14? A - I do not rem. that I ever saw such marks on trees on the Crk. Q (By J. Rowan) Do you think that any oaks were found on P Crk? A - I do not. Q (By J. Rowan) Do you think that the survey described above? A - I do not. Q What do you suppose the length of P Crk? A - About 8 or 9 on a H. line. Q Is there not a large round knob at the hd. of the Crk & like was a clay bed on the S. side? A - There is; & for the day I do not (Signed) Samuel P.

 after the dep. of full age being 1st sworn depositions & oaths

Q (By Conway Oldham) When were the differ surveys made on your settlement presumption?
 A - I believe for the latter part of the yr. 1782.

Q. Do you feel confident you are correct in the statement you have made of the date of sd? A - Yes

Q - (By same) On & abt. the 5th of April 1784 at the time sd. Carter's entry was made, was it was not P. Crk known as P. Crk, & its neighborhood as Eaton's Crk, A - At the time Wm. Oldham surveyed the lands for his bro's when he made his return to the Sur. Office he called it Eaton's Crk. now known by the name of P. Crk. To the best of my remembrance that so the way he fixed it. Q (By same) At the time sd. Carter's entry was made was it was it not known as P. Crk & its neighborhood that P. Crk was the Crk intended by Eaton's Crk?

A. When Wm. Oldham came to survey his bro's lands he told me he came to make the surveys on Eaton's Crk & sd. he sd. P. Crk was Eaton's Crk & did make the surveys on P. Crk.

Q (By same) Was it or was it not known as P. Crk. at the time sd. Carter's entry was made that the sd. Oldham's entry was intended to be on P. Crk. A - It was surveyed on the Crk. Q (By same)
 At the time Oldham's entry & survey was it or was it not much talked of, but it or did it not produce much

This deposition does not contain much of interest. Its main purpose was to show that Pallengoni's (P. Crk) was first known as Eaton's Crk.

A. In 1779 P. Ck. was well known by that name from the head to the mouth & in summer of 1781 the place where S. P. now lives I began to know & known by P. Station & long aft. it went by that name. How long it was called so before I don't know.

Dep. of John Gitley

"In the summer 1780 I became acc. with what is now called Pot. Ck. & it has been genly. known by that name ever since. I have lived not far from it ever since that time.

Q. "When did the place where Sam. P. now lives on P. Ck. take its name as Pot. Station; or do you know when?"

A. "In the Spring 1781 & has been genly. known & called so ever since that time."

Pottenger's Station mentioned in Thomas Williams Entry { Possession Report } Page 51.

"June 30, 1781. Thomas Williams enters 221 1/2 acres of land upon a Treasury warrant No. 4217 on Pottenger's Creek, about 4 miles above Pottenger's Station, beginning at the southeast corner of Edward Worthington's survey and running on his north line 120 poles, and then up both sides of the run { Cedar Creek } for quantity."

Artificiate Book of the Virginia Land Commission, 1779-1780

(In the office of the Clerk of the Fayette Co. Ky Court - "Register" Ky. Hist. Soc. Vol. 21 - 1923)
Page 7 - Jan 1923 "Register": The list of land claimants contains the name of practically every man who played a part in the stirring drama of Kentucky's early settlement. It is an Honor Roll of men whose lives were sacrificed in their hands as they opened the outposts of civilization hundreds of miles into a savage, unpopulated wilderness. "Mr. Lucien Beckner, former newspaper man, writer of sketches of early Ky. history, and now connected with the Louisville Public Library calls the foregoing "Artificiate Book" (as it is usually referred to) the "Doomsday Book of the Conquest of Kentucky."

"The Legislature of Va., in 1779, passed an act authorizing the Gov. to appoint a Commission to go to Ky. & sit as a Court, to hear proof and grant the Titles by issuing Cts. to rightful claimants." The act is found in Henning's Va. Stat. Vol. 10, pages 35 to 50. "They were given authority to issue a Ctf. for 4000 A. settlement when claimants rights were established, and the Ctf. might also cover a presumption right of 1000 A. add, and adjoining. The claim. was req'd to pay a fee of 10 shillings for each 100 acres by his Ctf. thus being the State price and also an add. 10 shillings as a fee for the clerk who issued the Ctf." (P. 4 "Register," Jan 1923. See proof for app't of "four Commissioners, who should not be residents of Ky. Co."

"Register" Sept 1923, Vol. 21 - No. 63: "At a Court continued and held by the Commrs. of Ky. District for adjutting titles to unpatented lands, at Harrodsburg, the 2d day of Feb'y 1780" (p. 230)
Present: "Wm. Fleming, Ephraim Figg & Edm'd. Lyne"

21 - Samuel Pottenger this day (died in Feb. 26, 1780) claimed a settlement and presumption to a tract of land in the Dist. of Ky. on acct. of raising a crop of corn in the Ky. Dist. in the year 1776 lying on Pottenger's Creek, beginning about one fourth of a mile below the Cobbin and extending up the creek for quantity. They are of opinion that the said Pottenger has a right to a settlement of 400 A. to include the above location & the presumption of 1000 A. adjoining and that a Ctf. issue accordingly. Ctf. issued for 1400 Acres, fees paid." Pages 231 and 232

"Register" Sept 1923 Vol. 21, p. 303:
"At a court cont'd. & held by the Commrs. for adjutting Titles to unpatented lands in the dist. of Ky. at St. Asaph's the 26th day of April 1780:

Jonah Heaton this day (Apr. 26, 1780) claimed a presumption of 1000 A. of land at the State price in the dist. of Ky. on acct. of marking & improving the same in the year 1776 lying on Cox's Creek, a branch of the Four Fork of Salt Riv., about 5 or 6 mi. below Isaac Cox's land to include his imp't. Satisfactory proof being made to the Court they are of opinion that the said Heaton has a right to a presumption of 1000 A. of land to include the above location & that a Ctf. issue accordingly." The record shows that a Ctf. was issued for 1000 A.

Same Court, same day (p. 303 "Register"): "Thomas Polke this day (Apr. 26, 1780) claimed a presump. of 1000 A. of land at the State price in the dist. of Ky. on acct. of marking and improving the same in the year 1776 lying on the div. ridge bet. the Four Fork & the Rolling Fk. of Salt Riv. on the head of a branch of Cox's Crk. abt. 4 mi. After describing Louisville, the author says
"In addn. to these, there is Bank-Town, in Nelson Co. Horse-donkey, in Mercer Co.; both on the west waters of Salt River x x x Several new townships are marked out; the pres. of these are Lexington, Franklin and Ohio <sup>Callwell 1799</sup> townships. On each of these, towns are laid out, and no doubt, can be ascertained but that a rapid progress will be made in settling them.

The Township of Lexington contains 15,000 acres on the rolling flk. of Salt River, in about 37 $\frac{1}{4}$ ° n. lat. + 85 $\frac{1}{2}$ ° long. w. from London.

(At this point a footnote states: "This tract is purchased by agents and vested in the hands of Trustees for the security of the subscribers. It is divided into 150 shares for each of wh. a cert. is issued on a stamped parliament, containing a recd. for the consid. money, which at present is 20 pounds, and expressing the title to the subscriber + his heirs. The agents are empowered to grant 14 lots, in proper situations, to subscribers gratis, + to sell 14 lots on the east side of said 1 gratuitous lots, in proper situations, the year

the year 1799 at 90 lbs. each, + 14 lots on the s. w.
corners in the year 1800 at 120 pounds each, and 14 lots on the s. e. cor. in the year 1801 at 150 lbs. each,
+ 12 of the remaining lots in 1802 at 200 lbs. each,

& the last 12 lots in the yr 1803 at 250 lbs. each - provided in each year a longer price than is here specified cannot be obtained; & if any lands remain unsold in 1804 they are to be equally div. among, & legally conveyed unto, to the subscribers & their hrs. as their private property, as for & as the money arises by this re-sale of the lands, it is to be pd. in equal dividends to the holders of the stks. The agents receive an allowance of 5 lbs. per cent. for their trouble. All which is more partic. set forth in the printed plan, wh. may be had gratis at the American Agency office, Fleet-needle-street, London. (End of foot-note)

The town (Lyston) is laid out on the South side of the above fork, on a very eligible plain, combining every thing necessary for utility & ornament.

The streets, angles, avenues & slope of the creek, are to be free for pub. use. The streets to be 100 ft. wide. The houses to be built regularly accordg. to the taste of the prop<sup>r</sup>, upon the sites running n. & s. on a line 25 ft. distant from the st. - and upon the sites run'g e. & w. on a line with the streets.

The town is div. into 188 lots, 14 of wh. to be free for the gratuitants, as by a partic. arrangement.

12 lots, in eligible situations, to be reserved for such subscribers as take 10 shares, 1 lot to each such sub'r.

One lot to be free to the 1st schoolmaster, and his hrs., chosen & settled by the freeholders of the twp. & town.

one lot free to the pres't of a college, & his successors.
" " " " " first member of a college belonging to Nels. Co., chosen after the yr. 1794, as a residence in Lyston, provided he builds a

1 lot free to the 1st man who shall erect a commodious hotel for the entertainment of travellers, undertake to keep it in good order & well provided with refreshments, on reasonable terms, under the regulation of the police, accord. to circumstances, providing for the comfort of the traveller, & guarding strictly against imposition.

2 lots to be free for public granaries, to be used by merchants, who will build upon them gratis, till such time as the public occasions shall call for their appropriated use.

The angles marked on the plate a, a, a, a, to be appropriated as market places; & the strand of the wh. to be commodiously adapted with docks and landings whenever the unappropriated public lots shall bear a price equal to the undertaking, together with such improvements of the navigation in the trading port, as shall be found proper & expedient. And from these ~~unappropriated~~ those parts of a lot formed by the fort of Lystra wh. shall belong to the liberties of the town, to be kept in a neat manner as a common meadow, upon which every inhabit. of the town and freeholder of the township, shall have the priv. of grazing his horse the first night of his coming into <sup>the</sup> town, or of his return from a journey, under the inspection of an overseer, taking care to do no injury to fence, or hedge, or ditch.

The remaining parts shall also belong to the liberties of the town, & finally be laid out in such lots, with such restraints on the order of bldg. as shall preserve the beauty of the whole; & these lots, together with every remainder unappropriated hereby, as hereinafter mentioned, in the year 1804, if not previously sold by order of the subscribers, to be then conveyed, with what <sup>other</sup> ~~part~~ <sup>part</sup> ~~of~~ <sup>of</sup> any, of the township, to the subscribers, as their private property.

84 lots in the Township are appor. for the common good and sole use of the town, to be sold at such times & on such occasions as shall arise & be agreed on by the freeholders of the town, for bldg. a church on the angle marked A, so far as 10 lots shall go to that purpose; an edifice for a college on the angle marked B, so far as 10 lots shall go to that purp; an edifice for a town hall on the angle marked C, so far as 10
lots shall go to that purp; & some other public bldg. as a theatre or place of amusement, on the angle marked D, so far 10 lots shall go to that purp.
These edifices to be handsome & uniform, to be built with wings fronting the curve line wh. forms the arcus; the church to be adorned with a steeple & the other bldgs. with cupolas, and for doing other works of public utility, such as may arise in all times here till the whole stock thus appropriated is exhausted but as the exigency arises, such lots are to be sold for the purpose, indiscriminately, as they shall bear a price adequate to the underlaying.

THE TOWNSHIP OF LYSTRA

Copied from Winterbotham's "United States," Second Edition, Vol. III, page 141, et seq. This history was published in London, Eng., in 1799. Opposite page 141 is a copperplate map of the City of Lystra, situated at the confluence of the North and South Branches of the Rolling Fork of Salt River, in the horns of the Y formed by these branches and the main river. The town of Bradfordsville, Marion Co., Ky., stands on the site of Lystra.

Copied by Samuel Forrest Pottinger, 7940 Orchid St. N.W., Washington, D.C., in the Library of Congress, Sept. 17, 1948.

"The township of Lystra contains 15,000 acres on the rolling fork of Salt River, in about  $37\frac{1}{4}$  deg north latitude and  $85\frac{1}{2}$  deg. longitude west from London. This tract is purchased by agents and vested in the hands of trustees for the security of the subscribers. It is divided into 150 shares for each of which a certificate is issued on a stamped parchment, containing a receipt for the consideration money, which at present is 20 pounds, and expressing the title to the subscriber and his heirs. The agents are empowered to grant 14 lots, in proper situations, to settlers gratis, and to sell 14 lots on the east side of said gratuitous lots, in the year 1794, at 20 pounds each, and 14 lots on their north ends in the year 1795 at 30 pounds each, and 14 lots on their south ends in the year 1796 at 40 pounds each, and 14 lots on the west sides in the year 1797 at 55 pounds each, and 14 lots on the northwest corners in the year 1798 at 70 pounds each, and 14 lots on the northeast corners in the year 1799 at 90 pounds each, and 14 lots on the southwest corners in the year 1800 at 120 pounds each, and 14 lots on the southeast corners in the year 1801 at 150 pounds each, and 12 of the remaining lots in 1802 at 200 pounds each, and the last 12 lots in the year 1803 at 250 pounds each -- provided in each year a larger price than is here specified cannot be obtained; and if any lands remain unsold in 1804 they are to be equally divided among, and legally conveyed unto, the subscribers and their heirs as their private property. As fast as the money arises by this re-sale of the lands it is to be paid in equal dividends to the holders of the certificates. The agents receive an allowance of 5 pounds per cent. for their trouble; all which is more particularly set forth in the printed plan, which may be had gratis at the American Agency office, Thread-needle street, London.

"The town of Lystra is laid out on the south branch of the above (Rolling) fork, on a very eligible plan, combining everything necessary for utility and ornament. The streets, angles, circus and shore of the stream are to be free for public use. The streets are to be 100 feet wide; the houses to be built regularly according to the taste of the proprietor, upon the streets running west and south on a line 25 feet distant from the street; and upon the streets running east and west on a line with the streets.

One lot free to the first member of Congress belonging to Nelson County, chosen after the year 1794, as a residence in Lystra, provided he builds a house thereon, in which case it is granted to him and his heirs; otherwise, the grant is to the next chosen member who will build on these terms. One lot free for the first senator, in like manner. One lot free for the first judge, provided Lystra shall become a town where courts are held, and the judge shall build a house on the lot, in which case the grant is to him and his heirs; otherwise, to the next judge who shall take it upon those terms. One lot free to the first minister of the first church whatever the persuasion may be, chosen by the free suffrages of the freeholders, and his heirs. And a lot free to the said first minister and his successors. One lot free to the first man who shall erect a commodious hotel for the entertainment of travelers, undertake to keep it in good order and well provided with refreshments, on reasonable terms, under the regulation of police, according to circumstances, providing for the comfort of the traveler, and guarding strictly against imposition.

"Two lots to be free for public granaries, to be used by merchants, who will build upon them gratis, till such time as the public occasions shall call for their appropriated use.

"The angles marked on the plate a, a, a, a, to be appropriated as market places; and the strand of the stream to be commodiously edified with docks and landings whenever the unappropriated public lots shall bear a price equal to the undertaking, together with such improvements of the navigation in the Rolling Fork as shall be found proper and expedient. And from these immunities, those parts of a lot formed by the fork of the stream shall belong ~~shall belong~~ to the liberties of the town, to be kept in a neat manner as a common meadow, upon which every inhabitant of the town and freeholder of the township, shall have the privilege of grazing his horse the first night of his coming into the town, or of his return from a journey, under the inspection of an overseer, taking care to do no injury to fence, or hedge or shrub. The remaining parts shall also belong to the liberties of the town, and finally be laid out, with such restrictions on the order of building as shall preserve the beauty of the whole; and these lots, together with what remains unappropriated hereby, as hereinafter mentioned, in the year 1804, if not previously sold by order of the subscribers, to be then conveyed, with what may remain, if any, of the township, to the subscribers, as their private property.

"Eighty-four lots in the township are appropriated for the common good, and sole use of the town, to be sold at such times and on such occasions as shall arise and be agreed on by the freeholders of the town, for building a church on the angle marked A, so far as 10 lots shall go to that purpose; an edifice for a college on the angle marked B, so far as 10 lots shall go to that purpose; an edifice for a town hall shall be on the angle marked C, so far as 10 lots shall go to that purpose; and some other public building as a theater or place of amusement, on the angle marked D, so far as 10 lots shall go to that purpose. These edifices to be handsome and uniform, to be built with wings fronting the curve line which forms the circus; the church to be adorned with a steeple, and the other buildings with cupolas, and for doing other works of ~~of~~ public utility, such as may arise in all times hereafter, till the whole stock thus appropriated is exhausted; but as the exigency arises, such lots are to be sold for the purpose, indiscriminately, according as they shall bear a price adequate to the undertaking."

~~Editorial in The Louisville (Ky.) Courier-Journal, October 20, 1926:~~

"The Courier-Journal rotogravure page last Sunday of Photographs of ancient buildings at Greensburg was timely, as the old stone Court House, pictured among the others, may soon be torn down to make room for another. Only three days before, the Fiscal Court of Green County had confirmed the sale of property facing the public square and adjoining the jail lot on two sides and ordered the money to be set aside for the eventual construction of a new Court House on the public square.

"Greensburg's Court House, built in 1799, is reputed to be the oldest building of its kind still in use as a court building. Nearby is a smaller stone building, of one room only, about 14x16 feet in size, which was the first County Clerk's office. In this small building was filed the first court order, which authorized the construction of the Court House. This was in 1797, five years after the first Legislature of Kentucky had created a number of new counties, carving Green County out of Lincoln and Nelson. The county jail, property adjoining which has been sold, was constructed in 1800.

"It is to be hoped that when the old Court House is razed the records therein will be carefully preserved. These are potential sources of important history. Almost daily, old county records, of seeming little importance, are contributing their bit to national history. For instance a few years ago a chance discovery, among a bundle of old Washington County tax records, established, for the first time and positively, the name of Abraham Lincoln's paternal grandmother. These old records were rescued by Mrs. Joustt Taylor Cannon, Secretary of the Kentucky State Historical Society, when they were about to be burned.

"Recently the Green County Record published an interesting document, an indenture by which ARCHIBALD POTTENGER was bound out to Joseph Philpott to learn the trade of a shoemaker. It was dated August 18, 1797, and probably was among the first filed in the County Clerk's little office, which still stands. The Record, about the same time, published a number of other interesting old papers. The 129-year-old indenture read:

"This indenture, made this Twelfth Day of August, Seventeen Hundred and Ninety-seven, between Joseph Philpott of the County of Green and State of Kentucky, of the one part, and ARCHIBALD POTTENGER, of the County and State aforesaid, of the second part, Witnesseth that whereas the Clerk of the County Court of Green County, Kentucky, hath been ordered by the said Court to bind out the said Archibald to said Joseph Philpott to learn the art and mystery of a Shoemaker, Now, the said Joseph doth by these presents covenant and agree to and with the said Archibald to teach him the art and mystery aforesaid and to read and write and also common arithmetic, including the Rule of Three; and at the expiration of the term of his service or when the said Archibald arrives at the age of Twenty-one Years, the said Joseph doth covenant and agree to pay to the said Archibald the sum of Three Pounds and Ten Shillings and also a new and decent suit of Clothes; and the said Archibald doth covenant and agree to serve the said Joseph until he arrives at the age of Twenty-one years in working at the trade aforesaid."

"The agreement between Joseph and Archibald may not be of any great historical value, but it is decidedly an interesting paper, because of the light it throws upon customs in Kentucky a century and a quarter ago. In such fashion many of our forebears not only learned "the art and mystery" of a trade, but acquired what little education they had, in regions where schools were few and rarely free. The publication of these papers indicates the possibility that some were moved to make room, but it is to be hoped that they were not destroyed."

MASTERTSON DATA

It is not known from what part of Pennsylvania Jacob Miller came. As he and the Mastertsons no doubt lived in the same part of that Colony the following data taken from the pension declaration of John Mastertson of Nelson Co., Ky., will afford a clue for further research along that line.

JOHN MASTERTSON

was pensioned at the rate of $20 per annum from March 4, 1831, the number of his certificate being S-16460. His declaration was sworn to in Nelson Co., Ky., on October 6, 1832, wherein he gives his age as 73 years. This shows that he was born in 1759.

The main facts in the declaration are that he was drafted into the service of the United States as a militiaman (private) for the term of six months in the year 1777 (could not remember the month), at a place called Pidgeon Creek on the Monongahela River "in what is now called (1831) Washington County, Pennsylvania." His captain was John Crow, and states that the regiment was commanded by Col. William Crawford; also names Col. John Stinson and Col. Sullivan as other principal officers under whom he served.

From Pidgeon Creek he was marched to Pittsburgh, and from there to Fort McIntosh, "which fort we built," he says. From Fort McIntosh to Fort Lawrence was his next march, "which fort we also built," he adds.

His service was proved by Barnabas Carter, "residing in Nelson Co., Ky.," who states that he was present and saw Mastertson drafted for six months "and saw him start" and remembers well when he returned from the service.

The pension papers state that John Mastertson was in no battles.

(Data obtained in the U. S. Pension Bureau, Washington, D. C., by S. F. Pottinger, on December 31, 1927).

Some time when it is entirely convenient to you, I would greatly appreciate it if you would see if there is a record at Hamilton of the marriage of and let me know what you find. She was the dau. of Samuel and Susan (Withrow) Pottenger who emigrated from Nelson Co., Ky., where they were married, to near Seven Mile in Butler Co., Ohio. This Samuel was the son of "Old Sam" and Eleanor (Willett) Pottenger, mentioned in the attached letter. This could be among the earliest records.

S. F. P.

Miss Froumer tells me that marriage license records prior to those in Hamilton might be procured from records in Cincinnati Court House for in the early years, Hamilton and Butler Counties were one - Hamilton first and Butler taken off later

Mrs. Q. A. Davis,
Hamilton, Ohio.

Dear Mrs. Davis:

It is very kind of you and Mr. Davis to undertake some of the work that I have in mind without making any charge for it; but what I have mapped out to be done in Butler County is too much to be searched for nothing. If you or Mr. Davis feel that you would like to search the records at your convenience, for marriages, conveyances of real estate, administration and probate along the lines of families that I would furnish, I would be glad to have you think the matter over and let me know about your charges for the work based on some unit of time, such as the hour, or day, just as it might best suit you. Or if you should not have the time to devote to the matter, perhaps you could refer me to some alert and active person who could proceed under simple directions outlined by me. If so, I shall greatly appreciate the favor.

Thank you very much for the Withrow data copied from the History of Butler County. James Withrow as the History records the name scorned that spelling and told his relations that he preferred to spell the name the way it was always pronounced in Western North Carolina--Weatheroe. As a member of the Kentucky Militia he was recorded as Witheroe. The first County Court for Nelson County, Kentucky, then Virginia, in 1784 appointed this James Weatheroe as its first patroller "to look out for and arrest slaves abroad without permit or under questionable circumstances." He is buried on what used to be known as the William McMacken farm, near Seven Mile, and the inscription on his headstone reads: "James Weatheroe died April 1, 1851, aged 83 years, 7 mos. and 8 days." It is true that he married the Widow Robbins. She was born Sarah Pottenger (1764-1827), daughter of "Old Sam" Pottenger (1718-1820) and his wife Eleanor (Willett) who are both buried in Greenwood Cemetery in your city. She married, first, Daniel Robbins and of their three children one, Eliza Robbins, married a distant cousin, Thomas Pottenger, son of John and Catharine (Raab) Pottenger of near Camden in Preble County. I think the daughters, Nettie and Susie, are incorrectly recorded. He had two daughters: Jane, who married George Phares, and Elizabeth (commonly called Setsy) who was engaged to my cousin Robert L. Pottenger of Kentucky, but at the last moment eloped with Tommie Hagan, a worthless fellow and a neighbor of ours on Pottenger's Creek in Kentucky.

I was born and reared at "Walnut Hill" which my great-grandfather, Captain Samuel Pottenger (1754-1831) built in 1788, one of the first brick houses in Kentucky. James and John Withrow, mentioned in the History, were his stepsons. John Withrow (1768-1842) married Anne Pottenger (1773-1853), a sister of the Captain, and on the same day and under the same ceremony John Pottenger, brother of the Captain, married Jane Gilkey, stepdaughter of the Captain. His wife, born Jane Gray, had been married first to John Withrow, Sr., (three children) and then to John Gilkey (two children). This double wedding, the first in the new settlement, took place in the large walnut-paneled "hall room" of the old brick house. The Withrows originally lived in Tryon County, N. C., but later their neighborhood was cut off in the new County of Buncombe. John Withrow, Jr., used to brag so much about the new county after he settled on Cotton Run that he got the name of "Buncombe John." The Draper MSS. at Madison, Wis., give a lot about the activities of the Withrows in the Rev. War, and one was hanged as a Tory, not far from the famous King's Mountain. I have visited relations in both Butler and Preble Cos. and have a lot of data on the old families, but need a great deal more. I live in Washington, D.C. (several years as a lawyer in the Treasury) and am here on a visit

I have a cousin, Miss Marjorie Grafft, at No. 19 North "B" St. in Hamilton. Would be glad to hear from you freely & to know that we can arrange for the research work. Thank you again for the Weatheroe data.
Very respect S. F. Pottenger

Mr. S. F. Pottinger
Louisville, Ky.

Dear Sir:

Yours of Oct. 23, was handed to me
today by the Regent of John Reily Chapter, D. A. R. Hamilton, Ohio of which I am a member.

I know of no research worker in this community, but think my husband (Quincy A. Davis) might receive some data from records at our County Court House for you, and if so, it would be without any expenditure of money on your part. We have gotten our own family records, old deeds, marriage records
etc. Some years ago my husband was County Auditor two terms and had a State app't. for ten years and is quite familiar with looking up data at the Court House. I too am quite familiar with the names Pottinger and Withrow. My father's name was Wesley B. Warrick, my mother's Anna Dehr. My Aunt (Margaret Dehr) married Leonidas Withrow, the son of Samuel P. Withrow. My Aunt and Uncle Lon are dead

some few years, there being no issue. Samuel P. Withrow also had sons Robert and John L. who married two sisters (name Murphy)
John L. became the father of Dr.
John M. The Doctor and School Board Withrow in Cincinnati.
I am acquainted with a Mrs. Ira
A. Pottinger nee Ollie Hardin, also Ira's sister Laura E. Pottinger.
They spell it with 'i' instead of 'y'.
I knew the Smith Pottinger family, Seven Mile, Ohio. Mrs.
Pottinger was the daughter of a Dr.
Pryor. They had one son Ed. all three have passed away. Ed. Pottinger married ~~Wesley~~ Grace Yingling who now survives him.

I write all this in order to convince you that I think we can help you if you will write again and tell which Pottingers or Pottingers you wish us to look up. There <sup>are</sup> records of deeds and land transactions at the Court House so far back as the 1808 ones, marriage records also. My grandmother Warrick was a Flemer the descendant of Rudolph Flemer who served in the Rev. War in 1778. He came from Washington Co., Maryland in 1804 to Butler County, Ohio and some of his descendants still live <sup>on</sup> and own the farm to which he came. He is my ancestor for W. A. P. membership. "Flemer" like Withrow and Pottinger is a very old name too in Butler County, Ohio.

John Withrow was born in North Carolina in 1768 Jan. 17 and was married in 1794 to Anna Potteuger, born in 1773 in Maryland. He came to Butler County, Ohio 1799 and was in the war of 1812, in one of the engagements being wounded by one of his own men.
He was afterwards engaged in fighting with the Indians. His father, John Withrow, was all through the Revolutionary war.

James B. Withrow, son of John Withrow first mentioned was born in Wayne Township in 1812, and in 1837 married Margareta Phares, born in Wayne Twp. in 1816. They had ten children, Mary Jane, born in 1838, married Thomas Sater, they live in Keokuk, Iowa. Dennis P. was born in 1839, Anna P. born in 1841, married Dr. Ben. Hardin lives in Keokuk, Iowa. Caroline A. born in 1843 married Samuel Stokes. William P. born in 1845; John S. in 1848; Georgetta in 1850; Winfield B. in 1852.
Robert C. born in 1855. Arthur B. was born in 1861.
Mr. Withrow has been township trustee for 11 years, also school director for 12 years. His son, Dennis P.
enlisted in the Civil war Aug. 30, 1861 - entered the field Sept. 20 of the same year. He was at the siege of Corinth and the battles of Perryville, Ky., Mission Ridge and Chickamauga. He was mustered out Sept. 24, 1864.

Wayne Township, Butler County Ohio

Among the early settlers was James Withrow from Nelson Co. Kentucky. He came to the wilderness as early as 1800 and settled on Section 33. His wife was a Mrs. Robins by whom he had five children by whom he had five children <sup>Samuel, Mary, John, Elizabeth, Susie</sup> all are now dead. <sup>(1795-1845)</sup> John James, Mellic and Susie

He built for himself a hewed-log cabin, which was then considered more than ordinarily fine. He was a lover of stock, and raised horses and cattle in large numbers.

Samuel, his son, lived to be 84 years old. John Withrow, his brother, followed James in November of that same year. His wife was Miss Ann Pottinger. His children were James, Samuel

John (then 2 and 1/2 years old and still living) Robert and Dennis. He settled on Section 34, where James Withrow now lives. The Withrows were originally from the Carolinas, and went to Kentucky, partly in love of adventure, it being in the days of Daniel Boone, and the country was full of Indians.

Captain Samuel Pottinger came from Maryland to Ky., where he built a "fort" on Pottinger Creek in Nelson Co. <sup>14</sup> <sup>roughly 13</sup> miles from Bardston. It was here that the Withrows and Pottingers met. Mrs. Ann Withrow, whose maiden name was Pottinger, had three brothers - Dennis, John, and Robert - who came two years afterwards to Ohio, but settled in Preble County.

Capt. Samuel and William Pottenger remained in Kentucky where they have numerous descendants, all of whom as if by concerted arrangement changed the spelling to an "i" in the second syllable of the name. This occurred in the third generation, about 1835-1845. I am the great-grandson of Capt. Pottenger. I have all needed information on the Kentucky families.

The remaining 9 children went to Ohio about 1801 and most of them lived near Seven Mile in Butler County, but many of their children went to Indiana.

James and Mary Kercheval's children:

Dear Mr. Pottinger:

I am very interested in the information you sent me in your letter. It brings to my mind new questions which I am taking the liberty to ask you. I had found no intimation that there were two John Pottingers who came to Maryland in the seventeenth century. Was it our ancestor or the elder one who owned "Major's Lot", five miles above Upper Marlborough?

What interpretation do you place on the item in the will of Colonel Samuel Magruder, 1711, "My Brother John Pottinger"? I supposed this was proof that their wives were sisters-- Sarah and Mary Bell.

I stated in my other letter that Elizabeth Tyler was probably the second wife of Samuel Pottinger (1693-1742). My reason for this supposition is a phrase in the will of her father, Robert Tyler--"Samuel Pottinger and his son Robert, son of present wife, daughter Elizabeth". Samuel Pottinger's oldest son, Samuel, was not mentioned in Robert Tyler's will and I reasoned he may be the son of another wife and not a grandson of Robert Tyler. The third son, John, was possibly not born when his grandfather's will was made in 1735. Robert Tyler mentions the children of his other sons and daughters, but of course that is not proof that his daughter Elizabeth had only one son at the time. If we had the birth dates of Samuel and the older daughters, Mary and Fricilla, it would be proof that they were or were not children of Elizabeth Tyler.

The earliest Robert Tyler I have record of died in 1660 in St. Mary's Co., Md. His son Robert married Joan Lawson, his daughter, Alice, married George Reade. These children probably came to Maryland with their father. I have no record of their mother.

Robert Tyler, 2nd, died in Calvert Co., Md. 1674. His wife, Joan Lawson, was married four times and died when only twenty-two years of age. Her father, John Lawson lived at Poplar Hill, New Castle, St. Mary's County. He was very prominent in civic affairs of that county. His wife was possibly Dorcas. He died 1668 and his will mentions three daughters--Joan, Dorcas and Jane. The latter was married to John Wright and 2nd, Richard Rider (of Ryder).

Joan Lawson (of John) married 1st 1668, George Reade, 2nd, John Mounten, 3rd, Robert Tyler (of Robert) and 4th, John Beall. Her will was probated 3 July 1675 in Calvert Co. She named the following children: George Reade, Robert and Elizabeth Tyler, John Beall and Peter Mounten.

Elizabeth Tyler, daughter of Robert and Joan (Lawson) Tyler was born 1670. She married William Marshall.

Robert Tyler, son of Robert and Joan (Lawson) Tyler was born 1672. He married 1st in 1694, Susannah Duval and 2nd, Mary-----.
Children of Susannah Duval:

Edward Tyler b. 7 Feb. 1696, m Elizabeth Duval (dau. of Samuel)
Mary Tyler b. 1 Feb. 1697, m 1st 1714, James Baldwin, m 2nd, Samuel Whitehead.

Susanna Tyler b. 14 July 1700, m 21 Jan. 1714 John Lamar (son of Thomas and Ann (Pottinger) Lamar.)

Elizabeth Tyler b. 22 Sept. 1701, m 1717 Samuel Pottinger.

Pricilla Tyler b. 12 June 1703, m Nathaniel Wickham.

Robert Tyler b. 9 Aug. 1704, m Mary Wade (said to be his first cousin).

Mareen Tyler b. 20 Feb. 1707.

The second wife of Robert Tyler (1672-1738) was listed as "Madam Mary Dodd". They were married 10 June 1708. Other sources say his second wife was Mary Wade. His son, Robert is also said to have married a Mary Wade. I am still seeking more information on this.

Children of Robert Tyler (1672-1738) and Mary:

Jane Tyler b. 20 May 1709. Died young.

I have not found satisfactory data on the Marshall Family. Sarah Marshall, wife of John Pottinger Jr. is said to be the daughter of William and Elizabeth (Tyler) Marshall. The source of this information has proved faulty in other instances and I cannot trust it. William Marshall, husband of Elizabeth Tyler (daughter of Robert and Joan (Lawson) Tyler), is said to be one of the "Marshall Hall" Marshalls but I cannot make the connection with the records of that family that I have had access to.

Do you know which wife of Mareen Duval was the mother of Susanna Duval who married Robert Tyler? Some sources state her mother was Mary and others say it was Susanna.

Re. the children of William Willett and Mary Griffith:
Verlinder who married Samuel Simmons was my 3rd great-grandmother.

Tabitha married Richard Simmons, who was a nephew of the Richard Simmons who married Susannah Pottinger. Richard (the husband of Tabitha Willett) was the son of Jonathan Simmons, who I believe was the brother of Richard of Prince George Co. Maryland and both are the sons of Jonathan whose will was probated Dec. 1, 1726 in Prince George's Co., Md.

My family seemed to have been imbued with the pioneer spirit from the time they lived in Maryland. By the time the place they were living became well settled they had moved on to newer lands. This had made it much harder to find their records.

My second great grandmother, Elizabeth Scott Simmons, left Meade Co., Ky. in 1820 when her husband (Samuel Simmons, son of Samueland Verlinder (Willet) Simmons) died, and settled in Illinois. There her son Leven married Harriet Bradford (my great grandmother). They joined the Mormons and went to Utah. The mother, Elizabeth Scott Simmons, went with her youngest son to California with the gold rush. Neither of them ~~were~~ heard of again.

Before Utah was fairly settled the sons of Leven and Harriet (Bradford) Simmons had moved on to newer lands--Idaho, Washington and Canada. My grandmother's family are almost the only ones left in this part of the country.

I have been interested in genealogy since I was very young. It was a hobby of my mother and I became interested through her work. I graduated from the Brigham Young University in 1928 with a major in Accounting and after a trip East worked in an office for six years. It was only after my marriage that I have had leisure to accomplish very much. In the past six years I have spent considerable time in the Genealogical Library in Salt Lake City. You can see I am still a novice. I am considered a little "queer" by my friends for spending so much time and effort among dusty old books and records but it is by far the most facinating hobby I have. It is because I have so few people to converse with on this subject that I was so very happy you took the time and trouble to write to me.

I thank you so much for all the information you have sent to me. If I can contribute anything to your records it will make me most happy.

Sincerely yours,

May D. Stark

Dear Mr. Pottinger:

I was happy to receive your letter and am sorry I haven't answered it sooner. I have been very busy and delayed writing until I could give it as much time as I desired.

I am descended through Samuel Simmons, son of Richard and Susanna (Pottinger) Simmons, and Verlinder Willett, daughter of William and Mary (Griffith) Willett. Their son, Samuel, was born in Prince George's Co., Md. and died in what is now Meade Co., Ky. in 1820. He married Elizabeth Scott, daughter of Thomas Scott, who took her family of small children to Illinois after the death of her husband. (I have had no luck in tracing this Thomas Scott. By any chance, have any of your family married into his family? He died in Kentucky in 1817.)

The Richard Simmons, above, lived at Landover, Prince George's Co., Maryland and his will was probated there April 19, 1784. He was the son of Jonathan and Elizabeth (whose maiden name I do not know) Simmons. He married Susannah Pottinger after 1735 and had the following children:

Samuel m Verlinder Willett
Jonathan b 1746 m Elizabeth----- Robert m May 9, 1781 Catherine Baldwin
Elizabeth m -----Willett
Mary m -----Willett
Susanna m -----Orme
Sarah m -----Mills.

After the death of Susannah (Pottinger) Simmons her husband (Richard Simmons) married (March 7, 1779, Anne Arundel Co., Md.) Mary (Griffith) Willett, widow of Wm. Willett, Sr.

Susannah (Pottinger) Simmons was the daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Tyler) Pottinger. Samuel Pottinger was the son of John Pottinger, emigrant and his wife Mary Bell, emigrant. John Pottinger came from England and his wife probably from Scotland. Samuel Pottinger had by his first wife (whose name I do not know) three children:

Mary M before 1736 James Mulliken Jr.
Pricilla

Samuel d 31 Dec. 1820, m Eleanor Willett (Who are her parents?)
Samuel Pottinger m, 2nd, Elizabeth Tyler, daughter of Robert Tyler and Susanna Duval (I have much information on the Tyler or Duval lines.). Their children are:

Robert (I suppose this is your ancestor. I have from various sources his wife's name listed as Rachel-----, Mary Willett and Elizabeth Willett. What is correct?)

Children of Samuel and Elizabeth (Tyler) Pottinger, cont'd.

Susannah        M Richard Simmons

Elizabeth

Jemima

John    m 1st, Sarah-----, and 2nd, Mary-----.

Do you have any clues as to the county in England from which John Pottinger emigrated? The Berkshire Pottingers had a coat of arms very much like the one attributed to him by the Maryland family histories. I have had the registers of many Parishes in Berkshire searched but have not found his birth record.

In your research have you chanced upon any histories of the Simmons Families? It has been a very difficult line for me to follow.

Concerning the Willett family, I have the parents of William (d. 1772) who are Edward and Tabitha. Their names are connected with the group that emigrated from Scotland with the Reverend Nathaniel Taylor about 1680 and settled at the invitation of Col. Ninian Beall in Prince George's Co., Md. It has been suggested that Mary Bell, the wife of John Pottinger came with this group also. I have been trying to find from which parish they came that I might have the Scotch records searched for their christenings. Do you have any information along this line?

I am interested in the Willett records you have of those families which came to Kentucky but I can't expect you to copy them all for me. Can you tell me if they have been published or could I obtain them from court records?

Can you tell me where I might find information of the ancestry of Mary (Griffith) Willett Simmons?

On the Pottinger line I have information more or less complete on the following family groups:

John Pottinger and Mary Bell

Daughter Sarah and Richard Isaac, their children and grandchildren

Daughter Mary and William Holmes

Son John and Sarah Marshall

Son Samuel and Elizabeth Tyler and some of their child.

Son Robert and Ann Evans and their children and grandchildren.

Daughter Rachel and Richard Purnell

Son William and Rachel Frather

Daughter Verlinda and Zephaniah Wade

Daughter Jemima was born 2 Oct. 1702--no further information.

If you think I have any records that would be helpful to you, merely indicate which or all and I will be happy to send them to you. I am very pleased when I find someone who is interested in my research and I am always happy to be able to contribute even a small item.

In 1928 I went to Kentucky to do research but at that time I did not make connections with the Willetts or Pottingers and it was only a family tradition that our ancestors had come from Maryland. Some time after the war I would like to again visit in Kentucky and Maryland and with the knowledge aforehand of the places important in our family history.

I sincerely hope you will answer this letter and tell me what you know of the earlier records and in turn what I can send you that would be helpful to you.

Yours truly,

In the will "JOHN DEMALL" .. Name in the record was first entered "John Duwall" - Duwall, <sup>was</sup> corrected to read "DEMALL". My idea is that Demall is a mistake - that it should be "Duwall" as "Demall" has no significance here, and is nowhere else found in the records - nor have I seen or heard it elsewhere.

The will of Mary Duwall 1739-40 mentions in one way or another, the same legatees - according to your sheet.

The index here lists no will of Mary Duwall - or Demall in 1739/40. I have one of Mary Duwall [T.T. 1. 334] 1819/20 which has no bearing on the immediate problem.

I have also one of John Duwall, T.T. 301. 20 Feb. 1790, 10 Meh. 1791. who is evidently a direct descendant, and allied with the Pottengers - as seen by the bequests:

taken July 20, 1796 at the house of John Harvill in Lou Ky

Joseph Heaton: In the year 1775 he came to the mouth of the Ky. River in company with Col. Isaac Cox, Thomas Polk and others and from that place they started with a view of going to Cox's Creek in Nelson County. The course which they pursued was a southwest course, or rather a little west of south course that they missed Cox's Creek and by altering it they came upon that creek; that they left Cox, and together with Daniel Holman, Thomas Jones, Richard

② Richardson and Samuel Richardson, went out in order to make improvements, conceiving that they would thereby be entitled to such lands as they or any one of them might improve; that they made sundry improvements on Cox's Creek and kept on in a southwest course until they crossed a large branch of Salt River, which is at this time called the Beach Fork of Salt River"

Page 388 Q. - Are you certain that it was in the year 1775 you came to Kentucky in company with Col. Cox and others as before mentioned?

A. - I am not certain as to the year, but think it was the next spring after Dunmore's War. (Note by S.F.P. that battle was fought in Oct. 1774).

Page 385 (Rowan vs. Oldham). Deposition of Thomas Polke: "He was in this country Kentucky, in the year 1776 in the month of April, and Jonah Heaton came with this deponent. This deponent and said Heaton traveled together until the said Heaton came to the south side of Salt River and parted on the waters of Ash's Creek. That this deponent and said Heaton came together again at Cox's Creek after seven or eight days; that the persons at Cox's Creek, or the chief of them, determined on exploring the country; that said Heaton accompanied by Samuel and Richard Richardson, Daniel Holman, and Thomas Jones went out with the express design of exploring or improving lands on the Rolling Fork. That the said company of Heaton's returned to Cox's Creek after the space of about two or three weeks, as well as this deponent now recollects which this deponent believes, though he was not at Cox's Creek when they returned. (Note - Capt. Thomas Polk was exploring the Sampson Creek lands during his absence.) This deponent left this country in the month of May, 1776, and returned to it in 1780."

Isaac Cox, Thomas Polke, Jonah Heaton, Samuel Richardson, Thos. Jones, and Daniel Holman, left the Monongahela country to come to Kentucky for the purpose of improving lands; that on their way they landed at the mouth of the Kentucky River and from thence went up the Kentucky River to Dreaming's Lick, and from thence proceeded on to Cox's Creek where Cox's fort had since been built; that he, with Heaton, Samuel Richardson, Thomas Jones, and Daniel Holman left Cox's Creek and proceeded westerly a southwest course with the intention to find the Rolling Fork."

"Where Cox's fort has since been built" Copied from the same

Q. - Did you not leave Cox and others before you came to Cox's Creek on your route from Dreaming's Lick to the Rolling Fork?

A. - About twenty miles from the Beach Fork on the north side we left Cox and others, Cox having told us that there was not land enough on Cox's Creek for both companies. We struck the Beach Fork and sent two of our men to Cox's Creek, who told us there was a fine body of land there. We went there and made improvements. Polke was there when we went back."

SIMMS SURVEYS

Ash's Settlement - Chaplin Hills

In the northwestern part of Nelson County, near Cox's and Kenchelses Stations were Simms' surveys, often referred to in the records, and of importance in the settlement of that section.

Page 211 - Patrick Davis vs. Jesse Davis and John Young. Preamble: Your orator sheweth that Col. Elias Simms on the 25th day of April 1780 caused a survey to be executed on the waters of Salt River in pursuance of an Act of the General Assembly of Virginia entitled an Act granting Warrants to Elias Simms to survey certain lands, in October 1779.

Page 213 - Same case. "Your orator, Patrick Davis, shews that the surveys of Simms were notorious and generally known."

Terms of Surveys: April and May 1780.

Location of Surveys: Waters of Salt River and Chaplin Fork, Simpson's Creek, Ash's Creek, Jacks Creek, Hungry Run.

Page 215 Patrick Davis vs. Jesse Davis and John Young.

"The Court orders depositions to be taken as to the notoriety of April & May 1780 - see p. 4 of page 211, 12K. B) (5)

Simmons' Surveys and Towells Trace where it crosses the Chaplin Fork and the dividing ridge between Simpsons Creek and the said Fork."

Page 216. Same Case. Extract from Decree of Court: "At the time Simmons' Surveys were made there were in that part of the country no inhabitants. There were ten or twelve persons in company when the surveys were made, two other persons came to them when they were making the surveys, to wit: Isaac Cox and Thomas Polke. Cox had either just founded or did immediately after, in the same Spring, found Cox's Station, and Polke about the same time established his station on Simpsons Creek, afterwards called the Burnet Station both of which Stations were in the vicinage and for a long time the highest settlements to Simmons' Surveys, except the settlement of Ash, which was made in the same Spring and on a tract of land with which the surveys aforesaid interfused. Cox, Polke and Ash knew of these Surveys, Thomas Whitledge, who knew of the surveys, lived about that time and for some time after at Overall's, the next nearest settlement to the said Surveys (Bullitt's Lect on Salt River), Clayton Peyton, who made them, was likewise there after they were made, at Wilson's Station. Isaac H. Taylor, who also knew of them, resided then and for some time after, in and around Harrodsburg. From proof these surveys were made for the express known purpose of founding a fixed and notorious abutment to a blood of adjoining claims. Simmons' Surveys seem to have been early recorded, for they occupy the fourth page of the first Book of Surveys."

Page 253 - Same Case. Deposition of ~~Edmond~~ Polke (1808): "He was informed by his brother, Thomas Polke, and Isaac Cox, who are both now deceased, that in the Spring of 1780 they saw Chas. Simmons' surveys then making, and he also states that John Ash informed him that he knew of Simmons' Surveys, that interfere with his presumption; that since that time John Ash is deceased."

Page 219 - Same Case: "The new trace leading from Salt River Garrison to Harrodsburg, known by the name of Powell's Trace, ran along the dividing ridge between Simpsons Creek and Chaplin Fork."

Page 216 - Same Case: "Simmons' Surveys call for Powell's Trace."

Page 240. Same Case. Deposition of John Huston: "I shewed the place where Powell's Trace crossed Chaplin Fork. I ever understood it to be the trace leading from Harrodsburg to Bullitt's Lect."

Q. - Did you not understand that the trace was made in 1780?

A. - I do not recollect hearing when it was first traveled.

Q. - Do you know of any more than one Trace that was called Powell's Trace, leading from Salt River Station to Harrodsburg, that crossed Chaplin Fork?

A. - I know but the one.

⑥ Page 244 - Patrick Davis vs. Jesse Davis and John Young. Deposition of John Rogier: Q. - Do you think that Chas. Simms' claims on Ash's Creek were claims of notoriety?
A. - I cannot say that they were claims of notoriety, but I frequently heard them talked of among the people as old claims.

Page 255 Same Case, Deposition of David Cox: Q. At what time, did you first hear of Chas. Simms' surveys on Ash's Creek?

A. - I can't now recollect with any certainty.

Q. - At what time did you know of your own knowledge that Powell's Trace was called and known by that name?

A. - I believe I knew it in the Spring or Summer of 1780 to be known by that name generally.

Q. - At what time, or by what authority did you get the information that Simms' Survey, interfered with John Ash's preemption?

A. - I don't remember who gave me the information or where I first heard it; I suppose it was before the 24th of May 1780.

Page 253. - Q. At what time did John Ash settle his plantation on the Creek now called Ash's Creek?

A. - In the Spring of 1780, and that was his general place of residence till he was taken and killed by the Indians.

Q. - Was not Polke's or the Burnt Station and Cox's Station the two nearest settlements to Ash's Settlement?

A. - Yes, in the Spring of 1780.

Page 255 - Same Case, Deposition of Wm. Pearl: Q. - Did not Isaac Hite and others fall in company with you while making Chas. Simms' two surveys that lie on the waters of Ash's Creek?

A. - Isaac Hite, Isaac Hite and others were with us for a while.

Q. - Had you any conversation with them concerning the surveys?

A. - I don't recollect I had any myself, but heard some conversation between Col. Powell and Craven Peyton, two of our company, and Isaac Hite.

Q. - Where did Peyton live for some time after said surveys were made?

A. - In Nelson's Station and as I believe for some time afterward. I saw him taking in locations and acting as Clerk in George May's Surveyor's Office.

Q. - Where did Isaac Hite live for some time after Simms' surveys were made?

A. - I believe he lived some time in and around Harrodsburg as he had a home there.

Q. - Who was your Pilot when you made the surveys?

A. - Thomas Whitledge.

Q. - Where did Whitledge live? A. - At Mr. Overall's near Salt River & near Bullitt's Lick.

The John Ash referred to several times in the foregoing evidence, was one of the earliest settlers in this region of Nelson County, his preemption being on Ash's Creek as one of the notorious settlements at that time. He was killed by the Indians in 1782. His will may be found in Will Book A, Page 56, Jefferson County. He mentions his wife, Elizabeth, his brother, also brothers in captivity, and his father's estate.

Ely G. Galt,

Jesse Davis another pioneer of the same section settled in Chaplin Hills and built a Block House.

Page 257 - Patrick Davis vs. Jesse Davis and John Young. Jesse Davis Entry Certificate: "Jesse Davis, by Isaac Davis, this day claimed a pre-emption of 400 acres of land at the state price in the District of Kentucky on account of making an actual settlement on the month of May 1779, lying on the north side of Chaplin's Fork of Salt River, joining the lands of Wm. Harrison to include a small sinking Spring and his Improvement. Feb. 14, 1780."

Page 230 - Same Case, Deposition of Wm. Pearl: Q. - Where did you generally reside at that time, 1780?

A. - I recollect, in the State of Kentucky, from April 1780 until the latter part of August in the same year. I made my home at the Grob Orchard.

Q. - Were you frequently through the now Chaplin Settlement between April 1780 and Aug. in the same year?

A. - I was through several times on my way to the Salt Works and the Falls of Ohio. I had several small surveys on the waters of Chaplin and they extended over the waters of Simpson's and Ash's Creeks.

Q. - Do you recollect of having any conversation with Isaac and Jesse Davis while you were at Kincheloe's Station?

A. - I had frequent conversation with Isaac Davis at the Station, and recollect of conversing with Jesse Davis in the Country, but cannot tell where

Page 237 - Same Case, Deposition of Wm. Harrison: "In the year 1779 in the month of May he in company with Jesse Davis and others, having Wm. Stewart for our guide to show the said company vacant lands, we proceeded up the north side of Chaplin Fork, and there we made several improvements. I obtained a Certificate for 400 acres as my pre-emption or settlement claim which I sold to Wm. Kincheloe. In April 1780 I went in company with said Kincheloe, Jesse Davis and others to show said Kincheloe the improvement. As Capt. Jesse Davis' lands were to join the same, they then agreed to settle and dividing line between them and called on me to see it done."

Page 228 - Same Case, Deposition of Isaac Davis: "In April 1780 he was present when Jesse Davis and Wm. Kincheloe agreed and stumped to establish a line."

Page 231 - Same Case, Deposition of Thomas Simpson: "To the best of his recollection the aforesaid White Ash Stub standing in Jesse Davis' field near the young walnut tree, was a corner agreed on between Wm. Kincheloe and Jesse Davis to be their dividing corner to their dividing line between their two pre-emption."

THE BURNT STATION

An account of the Station on Simpson's Creek, known as Palkie's Kincheloe's and "The Burnt Station", as told by Deposition.

Q. When did Simpson's Creek obtain that name and by whom was it named?

A. - I never knew it by any other name than Simpson's Creek. In 1779 in the spring of the year, it was proposed by Mr. M<sup>c</sup>Lee to call it Simpson's Creek after this deponent, to which all the company agreed, ⑧ Q. Who were the persons in company when Simpson's Creek was named by that name?

A. - Samuel Pottenger, Patrick M<sup>c</sup> Gee, John Severns and this deponent <sup>who</sup> <sup>became</sup> <sup>one</sup>

Page 605 - Same Case. Deposition of Patrick M<sup>c</sup> Gee: Q. When did you first <sup>become</sup> acquainted with Simpson's Creek?

A. - In May or June 1779 when we first named the Creek.

Q. - Did you know or ever hear of Simpson's Creek having a different name, previous to 1779 when you and Mrs. Thomas Simpson gave it the name of Simpson's Creek?

A. - I did not know it by any other name, but did hear by some one at the time I was entering my land with the Commissioners - I think Thomas Denton that the creek was named by some as Crooked Creek

Q. Who was in company with yourself and Thos. Simpson in 1779 when you first gave Simpson's Creek that name?

A. - Captain Samuel Pottenger and John Severns.

Page 381 Book D, Court Records. Deposition of Samuel Pottenger:

Q. - Did not you and Thos. Simpson in company with others name the creek now called and known by the name of Simpson's Creek?

A. - Yes, in the last of April or first of May, 1779.

Page 607, Book B, Case of Cuthbert Combs vs. Levin Swells Hairs: Dep. of Daniel Blauk:

"He was acquainted with Simpson's Creek in the year 1780, and likewise with three forks, one called the Caney Fork, one the East Fork and the other the Middle Fork."

he made himself acquainted with Simpson's Creek and knew of four forks; Caney Fork, Middle Fork, the East Fork, and the fork running by the Burnt Station.

Q. - Did you know of any improvements near any of these forks?

A. - I knew of four; One on the Caney Fork called M<sup>c</sup> Cullomb; Capt Polk's on the Burnt Station Fork; any other on Simpson's Creek; and one between any improvement and Polk's but I do not know for who it was made.

Page 380 - Book D, Court Records. Deposition of Thomas Polk: "In the month of April 1776 this deponent in company with <sup>Judge Cox and</sup> Joseph Cox made an improvement on the waters of Simpson's Creek at the mouth of a branch now called John Blauk's Spring Branch. This deponent further saith that the improvement by himself, in company of Joseph Cox, was a small logged wall about three or four logs high."

Page 20, Book B, James Davis vs. Wm Day. Deposition of John Dozier: "Some time in the Spring or Summer of 1780 he for the first time saw an improvement standing at the mouth of what is now called John Blauk's Spring Branch, a head water of Simpson's Creek. This deponent further saith that he resided two or three years at Kuncheloes Station where William Kuncheloes lived, since called the Burnt Station, which station was lower down the same water than the improvement above mentioned, the distance between called by some a mile, by others three quarters of a mile.

Deposition of Dozier vs. Blauk

Q. - Where did you make your home in the aforesaid years (1781-1782)?
A. - At Polke's alias the Burnt Station on Simpson's Creek until it was taken by the Indians and after that time within the bounds of Nelson County and generally for some time at Cox's Station.

Page 252 - Same case - Deposition of Wm. Smiley: Q. At what time did you come into that part of the country called Cox's Station and Kanchelsee Station, afterwards called the Burnt Station?
A. - In the fall of 1780.
Q. - Were they places of general notoriety? A. - Yes.

Page 26 - James Davis vs. Wm. Day, Dep. of Aronton Mackliffe: "In the year 1780 the said deponent came to Kentucky, then the County of Kentucky, and after being in the county aforesaid he came down from Harrodsburg to Kanchelsee's Station, now called the Burnt Station. This deponent further saith that the Burnt Station was about one mile below the mouth of John Blank's Spring Branch. That to his knowledge Wm. Kanchelsee lived at the Burnt Station from 1780 to 1781 in November, or if he was absent at any time his family was not absent. This deponent lived there from May 1780 till 1781 in November."

Book D, Michael Coger vs. Abraham Kite, Dep. of William Lent: "He was living at Kanchelsee's Station in April 1780, and in the neighborhood till 1790."

Page 26, Book D, James Davis vs. William Day. Deposition of Jesse Davis:
"Capt. Kanchelsee about the first of April 1780 was living at the Burnt Station and it was at this place the said Kanchelsee first settled when he came to Kentucky. The Station was called Kanchelsee's Station until it was burned by the Indians; it then assumed the name of the Burnt Station. It was a place of general notoriety, there being no settlement between the Falls of Ohio and Harrodsburg but that one, except at Salt River.
Q. - Was that Creek on which the Burnt Station was erected called Simpson's branch? A. - Yes.
Q. - Did you know of any other Capt. Kanchelsee in the Spring of eighty (1780) except the one alluded to in your deposition?
A. - No, I knew no other.
Q. - Was that Burnt Station built on Simpson's branch?
A. - Yes, it was on the waters then called Simpson's Creek and called so yet."

Page 253 - Patrick Davis vs. Jesse Davis & John Young. Dep. of David Cox:
Q. - At what time did Isaac Davis live at the Burnt Station?
A. - He lived at the Station now called the Burnt Station from the Spring 1780 till it was taken by the Indians.
Q. - Was not Polke's or the Burnt Station and Cox's Station the two nearest settlements to Ash's Settlement?
A. - Yes, the nearest in the Spring 1780.

(10) Page 157 - Job Hammond vs. Fitch Deceased (John Rowan, Wm. Thornton, Eliza Sall, Charles Nourse and Charlotte Nourse, Representatives Jas. Nourse) Deposition of Isaac Davis: "In the Spring 1780 a certain John Suddoth employed this deponent to show him lands to lay warrants on for himself, for Thomas Suddoth, and for Wm. Day. We proceeded from what is called the Burnt Station on to the Southwest fork of Simpson's Creek. The said Suddoth held the land up the Creek and said he would enter his 1000-acre warrant here. Capt. Kincheloe wrote him a location by this deponent's direction."

Page 166. - Same Case, Deposition of Richard Bunner: Q. - In the Spring of 1780 was not Kincheloe's Station a place of general notoriety, and known to people generally by that name, and had it not acquired that name before May 1780? A. - Yes.

Page 167 - Same Case, Deposition of Thos. Polke: Q. - At what time was Bunner's Improvement, for which he obtained his preemption on Simpson's Creek made? A. - In April 1776. (Note by S.F.P. Have this year verified)

Page 166 - Same Case, Deposition of Richard Bunner: In the fall of the year 1780 John Fitch came to Cox's Station. I heard him say, he had a 300-acre warrant he intended to lay on the Southwest branch of Simpson's Creek so as not to interfere with Capt. Thos. Polke's preemption.

Page 167 - Same Case, John Fitch's entry on Simpson's Creek, Sept. 11, 1780. "John Fitch withdraws 300 acres of his Entry on Cox's Creek and from the west side thereof, and locates the same on a Southwest branch of Simpson's Creek, about three-fourths of a mile from where it empties into the branch that runs by Kincheloe's."

Page 605 - Cuthbert Combs vs. Levin Powell's Heirs. Dep. of John Galloway: "In the year 1782 he first became acquainted with Simpson's Creek. At the time he heard of no other place called the forks but where the south and east forks came together, which this deponent thinks is about one and a half miles above Mc Gee's Lick where salt has been made. The south fork is the one running down by Kincheloe's Station that was burnt. The east fork is the one runs by the place generally called "Gander Town." (Note - That part of Blount on the west side of Simpson's Creek is still sometimes referred to as "Gander Town.")

Page 777 - Overton vs. Lacy, Deposition of Isaac Davis, taken in 1818 at the house of Wm. Kincheloe, Howard County, Territory of Missouri: "In the fall of the year 1780 Blough Overton came to this deponent's house on Simpson's Creek, Kincheloe's Station, now in Nelson County Kentucky, in company with Isaac Hite who was the surveyor, and Cornelius Davis. Said Blough Overton wished this deponent to assist him in making some surveys."

Page 230 - Patrick Davis vs. Jesse Davis & John Young, Deposition of Wm. Pearl: Q. - Do you recollect of being at Kincheloe's Station after you returned from the Settlement? A. - Yes, I recollect of being there often times between my return and the latter end of the year 1782.

Q - Was not the place now called the Burnt Station the same place that was formerly called Kincicheloe's Station?

A - Yes, and the name was altered from Kincicheloe's Station to the "Burnt Station" in consequence of the Indians taking and burning the Kincicheloe Station which I think took place in August 1782."

(Note. - After the Battle of Blue Licks in August 1782 the Indian Forces scattered. Historians are of the opinion that one of these marauding bands, nineteen or twenty in number, stormed Kincicheloe's Fort, taking the garrison by surprise. The men had just returned from the defense of Bryan's Station, weary, and thinking that the Indians had been dispersed they were not on guard that night. A number were killed, some taken prisoners, and the Station burned to the ground.

"Osburn Bland, a son of the old pioneer John Bland, and his wife were taken prisoners by the Indians at the Burnt Station or Simpson's Creek, also their son. Osburn Bland was bound, but his wife succeeded in slipping away, and was in the woods seventeen days before being found by some hunters. Her husband returned after an absence of three years and they raised a large and influential family." - From the "Autobiography of Elijah Bland" who was the father of Dr. Bland who died here some months ago.)

For a number of years before this town was organized there had been a small settlement on Simpson's Creek. Dr. John Berniss, the founder of Bloomfield, emigrated from Rockland, N. Y., in 1799 and came into possession of the land where the town is now located. He married a Miss Bloomer and their daughter Frances married a Dr. Merrifield. When naming the town Dr. Berniss combined Bloom with Field, thus honoring his wife and the Merrifield family. A Survey and Plat were made in 1817 by Dr. Berniss and Isaac Harrell, then County Surveyor. The town was incorporated in 1819. The portion on the west side of the Creek was then as "Gander Town", that on the east side was Bloomfield proper. The former received its name from the "Gander Pulling" which were held here a sport of the early days. A post was set into the ground and a cross piece, which would revolve, was set across the top. A gander with a soaped neck was suspended by its feet from one end of the cross piece. The sports of the town and county would gather there; mounted on horses and riding at full speed they would make a grab at the bird's neck. The one who succeeded in getting the head off was considered the best man and entitled to a prize.

Bloomfield Baptist Church
(See Spender's History of Kentucky Baptists)

Big Spring Presbyterian Church

is located about two miles from Bloomfield, on the Taylorville road, and was organized in 1794 by Dr. Archibald Cameron. We find among the names of the first members: M<sup>c</sup>Clay, Wakefield, Howard, Russell, Anderson, M<sup>c</sup>Kinley, Hughes, Allen, Glass, Gutterie, Boyle, Neal, Zaggart, Bond, Carr, Heston, Minor, Duncan, M<sup>c</sup>Culloch, Ash, Davis, Durrett, Snider and Dr. Berniss.

Dr. Archibald Cameron was born in Scotland in 1770 or 1771. When very young he was brought by his parents to America. His father was John Cameron who married Janet McDonald. They lived in Pennsylvania where they remained till 1781. In that year they removed to Nelson County Kentucky and settled at the foot of <sup>Cameron's</sup> Knob. The son attended Dr. Priestley's school in Bardonia where he was the brightest scholar among a class of distinguished names. He died in Shelbyville Dec. 4, 1831.

POTTENGER'S STATION.

The account of Pottenger's Station as told by Depositions

Page 383 - Andrew Rowan vs. Samuel Oldham Dep. of Jonah Heaton:

"He left Cox on Cox's Creek and together with Daniel Holman, Richard Richardson, Samuel Richardson, Thos. Jones (which group he calls his Company) went out to make improvements. They kept on in a southwest direction until they crossed a large branch of Salt River which is now called the Beech Fork. This deponent and his Company made improvements by building small cabins such as were common in those days, that at the time these improvements were made, which was in the year 1775, those who composed this deponent and Company mutually agreed that the Creek on which the said improvements were at the time made, should be called and known by the name of Heaton's Creek and by this name and no other. (Note - Afterward named Pottenger's Creek by John Harrod upon which Pottenger's Station was built.) This company then returned to Cox's Creek.

- Q. - In what year did you leave this country Kentucky, and at what time did you return?
- A. - I left in the Spring 1775 and returned in 1779 in the Spring of the year, say April.
- Q. - In the year 1775 how long did you remain in this country?
- A. - Six or eight weeks.
- Q. - Did your company leave this country with you?
- A. - Yes, we all went up the Ohio River together.
- Q. - On your return to this country in 1779 did any of yr. Company return with you?
- A. - No.
- Q. - Were there any settlements in this country in 1775?
- A. - I did not see any settlements of people at any place, except one at the mouth of the Kentucky, founded by one Robert Elliott.

Page 385 - Same case. Deposition of Thos. Polke: "That said Heaton accompanied by Samuel and Richard Richardson, Daniel Holman, Thos. Jones, went out with the express design of improving lands on the Rolling Fork. That the said company of Heaton returned to Cox's Creek after the space of two or three weeks as well as this deponent now recollects. H. - When we were about to leave the Creek we conceived it necessary to call it by some certain name in order to give information to inquirers of this Country or the place we had been at. Jonah Heston got interested and cut copy and we the company determined to call it Heston's Creek. (Gene & Holman named it Heston's Creek)
376. Same Case. Answer of Samuel Oldham (Extracts from): " Says it is true that he made on the 29th of May 1780 an entry for 400 acres on Heston's Creek. That said Creek was named Heston's Creek in the year 1776 in consequence of Jonah Heston & Company making survey improvements thereon. And that it is the same creek which was afterwards and is now called Pottenger's Creek. This defendant further states that on the 28th day of February 1780 Samuel Pottenger entered 400 acres in Kentucky by virtue of Certificate and lying on Pottenger's Creek beginning a quarter of a mile below his covered cobbler and extending up the Creek for quantity. Pottenger's Creek was the same creek named by the said Eaton & his Company Eaton's Creek, and this defendant is informed and believes that the said Creek was notoriously known at Pottenger's Station and all the Settlements thereon to be the very same Creek so named by Eaton. (Note - the names Heston and Eaton were used interchangeably, meaning the same person.)"

Q. - Is not Pottenger's Creek the first fork or Creek of any note after leaving the Beech Fork an going from Cox's Station to Pottenger's Creek?
A. - It is.
Q. - Is not the course from Cox's Station to Pottenger's Creek a little west of South?
A. - It is, in my opinion.
Q. - Would you call the country from Cox's Station to Pottenger's Creek on a direct line after you crossed the Beech Fork a hilly country or a level country?
A. - I would call it a hilly country.
Q. - Is there not a remarkable Knoll about the head of Pottenger's Creek and a large clay lick on the south side thereof?
A. - There is a large Knoll and some of licks, some very large ones, at that place. (Note - The Knoll mentioned was first known as Big Lick Knoll; then named for Father Bohan.)

Page 396- Same Case. Deposition of Samuel Pottenger: "He was on the Creek now called Pottenger's Creek in the year 1778 and the Creek was then called Pottenger's Creek; that in the year 1778 Mr. James Harrod and this deponent came on the waters of said Creek and Harrod then called it Pottenger's Creek and it has gone by that name ever since. The deponent states that shortly afterwards he saw two or three improvements that had been made on said Creek which were three or four rounds of logs high and appeared to be two or three years old. He states that in that winter (1778) he built a cabin on his Settlement on the said Creek and has made said Settlement his place of residence ever since except when absent sometimes on business. He states that in 1781 a Station was made where he now lives on said Creek and that he don't recollect of any other Settlements being made on the waters of said Creek until the Spring 1783. The Fort from the time it was erected on the deponents land in 1781 was notoriously known by the name of Pottenger's Station."

Page 399- Q. When did you first after you and Harrod were on this Creek return to this Creek and stay on it any considerable time?

A. - Some time before Christmas in the year 1778.

Page 398- Same Case. Deposition of William Choughath: "In the year 1779 in Aug. or September he was on Pottenger's Creek with John Seaverns who carried him to Pottenger's cabin and told him that it was Pottenger's Creek and that he expected to find Pottenger in his cabin."

Page 400- Same Case Deposition of Samuel Godwin: "I came down the River in the year 1779 with Jonah Heaton. I left said Heaton at the Falls of Ohio and came out on Pottenger's Creek and several improvements were made by my Company. I saw no improvements on the Creek at that time."

Q. - Did you return to the Falls and tell Heaton where you had been and did he then tell you anything about Heaton's Creek or of his having been on the Creek now called Pottenger's Creek improving?

A. - I took some ore from Pottenger's Creek, Heaton and I tried to melt it, but I do not recollect I told him the place where I got it. I never heard Heaton mention that this or any other Creek was Heaton's Creek or that he made any improvements on this Creek.

Q. - On what part of the Creek were you in 1779? A. - About the falls. (Note. - Samuel's brother Isaac Godwin also states facts as above).

Page 401- Same Case Deposition of Benjamin Lyman: "In the fall 1778 this deponent traveled from the mouth of Pottenger's Creek to the head of the same and he saw no improvements on said Creek; but in the Spring 1779 this deponent traveled up said Creek and he saw Samuel Pottenger and Henry Brather at Pottenger's improvement."

Page 403- Same Case. Deposition of Samuel Pottenger:

Q. - Did not a certain James Ray and John Ray keep a number of horses on Pottenger's Creek in the years 1778-1779, 1780-1781?

A. - I don't know whether they kept horses there in 1778, but I know they had a number there in 1779 and 1780.

Page 407 - Same Case - Deposition of Samuel Pottenger:

- Q. - Where did Abednego Carter live 1782, 1783, 1784? Was he or was he not often at Pottenger's Station, and did or did not some of his relations live at or near said Station in those years, or some of them?
- A. - Abednego Carter lived in the year 1782 at Goodwin's Station. In the year 1783, I do not know where he lived. In the year 1784, he lived where he now lives I believe. He was often at Pottenger's Station in those years. His brother Maseheak Carter, lived about three quarters of a mile or a mile from Pottenger's Station within those years.

Book D. Deposition of John Jackson: Were there any persons living at Cartwright's Station in December, 1782?

- A. - Not as I now recollect or because those that lived there were at starvation and Capt. Samuel Pottenger took them to Pottenger's Station."

Deposition of Atkinson Hill: "Some time in the year 1780 in the summer time of the year, this deponent found a certain Peter Bellis (Billows) and one Isaac Romine lost in the woods, who informed this deponent that they were in search of some lands belonging to Jonah Eaton."

When Oldham came there and inquired of Jonah Heaton if he had any improvements for he said Oldham had a parcel of Land Warrants. Said Heaton told him that himself and others had made several improvements but no part of the Company was in the Country at the time but himself. Oldham then agreed to give Heaton one hundred acres out of every thousand for the location on Heaton's Creek.

- Q. - Did not you purchase of Heaton some of the land he was to get from Oldham?
- A. - I bargained for the whole he was to get but can't recollect what I was to give him for it, but think it was a Shunk of a Mare or a Bell, - the Bell I will recollect.
- Q. - What broke off the bargain?
- A. - He did not show me the land.
- Q. - Did not Heaton give you instructions so that you might find the land?
- A. - He did. He fell at Pottenger's Creek. - - - we went on down the Creek to Pottenger's Cabin to inquire how to find the land but he was not at home. - - - - - From that I think we came home. I did not suppose it to be the place.
- Q. - Who was with you?
- A. - Isaac Romine and no other persons.
- Q. - Were you not then and now called Peter Billows?
- A. - Yes, but my name is Peter Billows Felt.
- Q. - When Jonah Heaton was leaving the Country in the fall 1780 did he not call on you to go with him to show you the land?
- A. - He did. I went with him part of the way but his wife prevailed on him to keep straight on to the old Settlement and not trouble his head about the land, and then I returned.
- Q. - At the time Heaton and his wife and yourself were on your way to see the land do you think he could have found the land if his wife had not prevailed on him to go on to the old Settlement?
- A. - He was on a straight line for Pottenger's Creek.
- Q. - Is your memory now good?
- A. - Some things I can remember and some not. It is not so good as it

(16) has been, since I have had the palsy. I am now infirm."

Page 405 Rowan vs. Oldham - Deposition of David Glen; "In the month of May 1780 Thos. Stewart and myself started for Green River from Wilson's Dr. We went by a number of Stewart's improvements, after which we struck the head waters of Prather's Creek. We came to other improvements. Stewart and myself fell into conversation respecting those improvements. He told me the name on Eatons and his company improving in 1776."

The following article is by S. Forrest Pottenger, a lineal descendant of Capt. Samuel Pottenger, the founder of Pottenger's Station:

"It is positively established that this Station was built in the Spring of 1781. To accommodate the large number of persons who occupied it at first, with their live-stock which had to be taken within the enclosure for safe-keeping, the fortification must have covered considerable ground. The inmates at first, besides Capt. Pottenger and his nine brothers and sisters who accompanied him to Kentucky, were: his uncle of the same name ("Old Sam" Pottenger) and his seven children; Griffith Hallett (Capt. Pottenger's uncle) and his family and the Graffitt step-children; three families named Gickey; three Withrows, "Uncle Johnnie" Gray (brother of Capt. Pottenger's first wife who was born Jane Gray); Zachariah Masterson and family; Jacob Miller and family (his wife having been Elizabeth Masterson); the Kincaid family; besides several unmarried connections of these persons who came along. This number was greatly added to by immigrations and by the deserting the first few succeeding years. The Gickies, Withrows and "Uncle Johnnie" Gray came from North Carolina and the Mastersons, Millers and Kincaids were from Pennsylvania.

The first brick residence in the county outside of Bardstam was built in 1788 by Capt. Pottenger one-half mile east of the Station. His first child born in the Fort was "Betsey" who married James Phillips (son of the pioneer and surveyor Philip Phillips) and lived in the Cox's Creek neighborhood, while the first one born in the old brick house was John who was born in 1789 and died of cholera in the epidemic of 1833.

Capt. Pottenger was born in Prince Georges County, Maryland, April 29, 1754, and died January 20, 1831, at the home of his daughter "Betsey" Phillips. He is buried in the cemetery of the Cox's Creek Baptist Church.

Capt. Samuel Pottenger was the son of Robert Pottenger and Elizabeth Hallett, whose home was "Patriotic Manor" in Prince Georges County, Maryland, a legacy from Robert's grandfather, Colonel Robert Tyler. Col. Tyler was a member of the Maryland House of Burgesses from Prince Georges County and served as a Burgess in that body for ten years. He was elected Speaker but declined to serve in that capacity.

GOODWIN'S STATION

Goodwin's Station was located near the present site of Old Boston and "In 1780 Isaac Goodwin established his Fort." The two brothers, Isaac and Samuel Goodwin, were in this part of the Country in 1779, making improvements.

Page 400 - Andrew Rowan vs. Samuel Oldham, Deposition of Isaac Goodwin: "In the year 1779 I left Jonah Heaton at the Falls of the Ohio, and came out to Pottenger's Creek where several improvements were made by my company."

I took one back with me to the Falls of the Ohio. (Jonah Heaton) and I tried to smelt it." (17)

(Note - There was at one time an old Iron Furnace at the present site of Nelsonville. This may have been where Isaac Goodwin panned up his specimens of ore. In the early days of the Knaysville Dist. of the Little R.R. Nelsonville was called "Nelson Furnace.") No. the one was taken from Pottinger's acct. Incorrectly copied

Page 400 - Same Case, Deposition of Samuel Goodwin: "I came down the River in the year 1779 with Jonah Heaton. I left said Heaton at the Falls of Ohio and came on out to Pottinger's Creek, and several improvements were made by my Company."

Q. - Can you tell where Isaac Goodwin's Fort was located? - I mean as regards the rivers Rolling Fork and Beech Fork?

A. - Yes, it stood three miles from the Rolling Fork, and five miles from the junction of Beech Fork with the Rolling Fork, between these two places.

Q. Do you know when Atkinson Hill made his removal to this Fort?

A. - Yes, Atkinson Hill first located with James Rogers at his fort (Rogers Station) and in 1781 they had a disagreement over religion. It was then that Atkinson Hill and Hamilton took up their property and removed to Isaac Goodwin's Station.

Page 403 - Andrew Rowan vs. Samuel Oldham - Deposition of Aaron Atherton: "Said that he lived at Goodwin's Station on the Rolling Fork in the year 1780."

P. 397 "Came here on 10th Feb. in Aug. 79 + at P. Carter. Was in same case"

(18) (This presumption Capt. James Rogers bought of Wm. Bard who made the improvement mentioned in 1775)

Page 475 - Kendall vs. Slaughtes - Deposition of James Rogers taken the 26th day of June 1813, he being aged about 40 years: "In the year 1779 this deponent came out with William Bard and others from the Falls of Ohio to see Improvements which the said Bard proposed selling to this deponent. They came to the land that this deponent settled his Station on, called Rogers' Station. The said Bard shewed this deponent four or five improvements which he called his. The land pleased this deponent and the price was agreed upon and they were to enter into writings. When they returned to the Falls of Ohio Bard refused to let this deponent have all the improvements that they had bargained for and only let him have that part which he settled his Station on. This deponent states that he was to have had all the said Bard's improvements on the west side of Buffalo Creek, including the improvement where he first settled.

Q. - Was not one of the improvements you got of Wm. Bard near the Station where you first settled in the year 1780? A. - Yes, it was."

Page 472 - Same Case - Deposition of Mesitrick Carter: "He moved with his family to James Rogers' Station in the year 1780 and having land warrants to enter, after being there some time, made inquiry if there was any vacant land near the said Station. The said Rogers told him that he thought the flat adjoining Rogers' presumption on the east side he advised me to lay one warrant on the lower end of the flat and one in the upper end. This deponent further states that Atkinson Hill went with him to the upper end of the flat and entered 200 acres of land, and when we returned to the lower end of Bard's flat to a spring and marked two trees.

Q. - The flat above mentioned, was it not known as Bard's flat. A. - It was.

Page 473 - Same Case - Deposition of John Ray: "He went out from Rogers' Station to an improvement at the Mouth of John Rogers' Spring Branch which empties into Buffalo Creek on the South side of said Creek in company with James Rogers, Wm. Bard, and others to the said improvement which Wm. Bard shewed for his presumption and claimed it as his. Wm. Stewart and said Bard had a very warm dispute about the said improvement. Stewart said it was Deremiah's improvement.

Q. - How long do you suppose the flat of land known as Bard's flat is from the Knobs to the lower end of said flat which lies between Buffalo Creek and Rogers' Station? A. - About two miles.

Q. - Did William Stewart show John Deremiah to include the said improvement at the mouth of John Rogers' Spring Branch in what is called Deremiah's Presumption? A. - No, he did not.

Q. - Was not Wm. Bard in the habit about the year 1778 of making improvements for other people? A. - I have heard that he was in the habit of making improvements for other people; from my own knowledge I know not!

Page 760. Jonathan Rogers vs. John McJee - Naming of Rogers' Trace, Deposition of Ewan Williams: Some time in April 1780 he with Col. James Rogers was passing from the Long Lick to Rogers' Station and we came pursuing an old Buffalo Road, upon a water course which the said Rogers informed him was a branch of Cox's Creek; that they traveled down said branch, still pursuing the old Buffalo track, until they came near where George Kurtz now lives (1805), when just above a little fall in said Branch at a place this day shown James Cox, Esq., they crossed said Branch and took a direction through the woods to Rogers' Station, -- and after that time the said old Buffalo Trace was called Rogers' Trace and became very notorious by that name. That afterwards, in the year 1781, Froman came along that trace with his waggon and other company and in coming down the Branch aforesaid left the trace called Rogers' Trace some short distance below a drain which is the first that empties into said Branch below a fork of said Branch in which there stands a walnut tree marked J. R. After said Froman passed with his waggon, the road he pursued after he left Rogers' Trace was called and became notorious as Froman's Waggon Road, -- he thinks, but of this he is not positive, that the whole road from Salt River was so called." (19)

Q. - How far is the head of Wilson's Creek from Paul Froman's Station which was settled and made in the year 1781? A. - About five miles

Q. - Did not the Trace leading from Paul Froman's Station on Salt River to his Station on Cox's Creek cross the waters of Wilson's Creek? A. - Yes, it did.

"In the year 1780 he came from Lewis' Station to Rogers' Station; that Froman's Waggon Road was not then cut out; that afterwards, he thinks in the Spring 1781 he traveled the same road and found that Froman had cut in part, if not the whole of his Waggon Road. He knows that the Waggon Road pursued a Trace down a Branch of Cox's Creek called Rogers' Trace."

Page 762 - Same Case - Deposition of James Collins: "In the year 1782 he moved his family up Froman's hole along the road called Froman's Waggon Road which was connected with Rogers' Trace until they parted on Rogers' Run"

Page 766 - Same Case - Deposition of Col. Jas. Rogers:

Q. - Did you in the year 1783 act as agent for your brother Jonathan's heirs, or were you guardian to them?

A. - I acted as neither as agent or guardian. I administered the estate as a friend to the heirs and had the land in dispute surveyed.

Q. - Was you sworn an entry of the land in dispute?

A. - When Col. Isaac Cox surveyed Pearson's Preemption I was along. That survey embraced a considerable part of Jonathan Rogers' Survey. That was left of Rogers' Survey Col. Cox told me I might as well have a swathe, as he thought that by Pearson's Survey taking so considerable part of Rogers' that Rogers' would be invalid.

Q. - Were not Froman's Waggon Road and Rogers' Trace notorious in the Spring of 1781 and afterwards?

A. - I believe they were and Cox's Creek, also, notorious. In the year 1780 I came in company with Wm. Keith, Evan Williams and others from the Falls of Ohio to Rogers' Station. In pursuing a Buffalo path we came upon the head of the Run afterwards called Rogers' Run, then down it on the north side passing two or three of its branches, till some small distance above where Kurtz's Mill now stands (1808) then left the Buffalo path. The said Run was then called by me a branch of the waters of Cox's Creek. The second branch above the Kurtz's Mill was noted by myself, Jonathan Rogers

20) and I believe others to be the forks of the Run. Some time after the death of Jonathon Rogers I had Col. Isaac Cox, Surveyor, to survey said entry and began on the forks of the Run, but did not return the plat to the Register's Office by reason of a presumption by Samuel Pearman.

(Note. - Capt. James Rogers served Nelson County in two of the Danville Conventions. Other members from Nelson County May 1785 were Isaac Cox, Isaac Morrison, Andrew Hines, Jas. Morrison, Gen. Matthew Walton. At Rogers Station may be seen the original log house. It stands well, preserved and is used as a residence, it having been much improved. Patterson's Station is still standing, but these are the only ones remaining in the County.)

(Spencer's "History of Kentucky Baptists")

SALEM--BARDSTOWN.

David Bard was a citizen of Pennsylvania. In 1776 he was issued by the Province of Virginia a land warrant for 1000 acres of land in the then District of Kentucky. The records do not show that David Bard lived in Nelson County but his brother William Bard came in 1780 to make the location and to supervise the management and disposal of the land.

During 1780 a small settlement was formed on the present site of Bardstown, called Salem, and we have reason to believe that the following names were among the thirty-three original settlers: Samuel and Thomas Morton, John Cockey, Owings, Wm. Bard, Wm. Rogers, John Moore, Conrad Lutz, Adam Noble, Dennis Purcell, John Unsel, Elias Ewing, George and Lucibent Harrison, Gabriel Cox, Capt. Benjamin Frye, Joseph Bany, Gen. Joseph Davis, James Bard. These were soon followed by Alexander McCown, James and Thomas Speed, Walter Beall, John Caldwell, Isaac Morrison and others.

The settlement was known as Salem until 1784, then for a few years as Bard's Town, but when the town was organized in 1788 by an Act of the Virginia Legislature, Wm. Bard petitioned that the name become definitely Bardstown.

Salem was not fortified but depended upon the outlying settlements for protection. During Indian alarms, the settlers would take refuge in a cave which extends under the town from a cliff on the eastern outskirts.

SALEM.

The following Depositions of early settlers tell of the first years in the town:

Page 738 - John Moore vs. Wm. D. Owings: Preamble: We would respectfully shew that Thos. Morton and Samuel Morton were two of the original settlers of the town of Bard's Town, and that the said Morton built a house, having complied with the terms of the settlement as set forth by David Bard and assented to by John C. Owings. David Bard (donator of the 100 acres of land for a town site) and John C. Owings the slider, became the proprietors of the land whereon Bardstown is situated, and the terms which are stated above as having been complied with, were (2) the terms set forth by them to the settlers-----. Since Christmas Day 1780 said Thos. Morton settled said lot (No. 98) improved and built thereon, and lived six or seven years, and then sold to your orator, John Moore----- Said John Moore was one of the thirty-three original settlers."

Page 422- Jacob Burty vs. Atkinson Hill, John C. Ewing, David Bard.
"I, Wm. Bard, being about to dispose of a number of unappropriated lots in Bards Town, ----- Mr. Chas. Ewing, George and Gauthier Harrison are hereby empowered to let the lots, ----- each person taking a lot to pay Mr. Chas. Ewing two shillings and six pence. Oct. 6, 1785.
Wm. Bard."

Page 426 same case.-- Jacob Burty by his attorney Samuel Carpenter files an amendment to his bill (1810) for the reason----- "it was currently reported and generally believed that David Bard was dead----- your orator is informed that said Bard is now living, but is no inhabitant of this Commonwealth."

Page 426. Same case - Deposition of Dennis Purcell. "In the year 1782, some time in the month of March, Old Conrad Burty settled on two one-fourth acre lots, formerly occupied by Mrs. Lansdale and Benjamin Frye, being the same lot now occupied by Mrs. Ruth Roach (1812) and being the lot below where Wm. McArthur now lives, and being the corner lot west of Jacob White. The said lots were just in the woods when Conrad Burty encamped upon them."

Page 428 - Same case - Deposition of Peter Ballard: "On the 18th day of March 1782 he this deponent moved to Bards Town, which was then called Salem, and Conrad Burty moved the same spring and settled on two one-fourth acre lots making altogether one-half acre Lot (No. 94) then in the Woods. The said Burty cut timber enough to build a double house covering part of each one-fourth acre lot with a view to hold each one-fourth acre lot."

Page 428 - Same case - Deposition of Adam Wible: "This deponent says that Old Conrad Burty settled on said lot and that it was entirely woodland when the said Burty first settled thereon. The said Burty built a double house with a partition running through said house near the line that divides the two one-fourth acre lots."

Q. - How old were you when you first came to this town? and were you old enough to help raise houses? A. - Yes, I was.

Q. - Was Wm. Bard generally about the town at that time?

A. - Yes, Wm. Bard was generally about the town at that time, and it was understood by him and the settlers that Burty went to hold both lots by building a double house thereon."

P. 429. Same case, Deposition by Samuel Morton: Says that he measured the house built by Conrad Burty and that he is fully of the opinion that the said house was large enough to save both lots on which the said house was built, agreeable to the advertisement of Wm. Bard."

Deposition: "In 1782 Atkinson Hill got an appointment as deputy sheriff, 22) and then he went to Bardstown and bought the Conrad Curtz property." Page 740 - John Moore vs. Thos. D. Owings; "Advertisement" "Salem - February 11, 1782, - Whereas it appears to the Inhabitants that Jefferson County requires to be divided, and that the new town called Salem is central for a Court House, therefore the following terms are proposed, viz: In lots containing one quarter of an acre with an out lot containing three acres, only a quit rent of Two Silver Dollars per year to be paid. To the prospector thereof good titles will be given on demand, after David Bard obtains preemption patent for same, & the whole clear of rent during the present Indian War disturbance in these parts, and until the lots are properly laid off after the War. Settlers may clear as much adjacent land as is necessary for the support of their families, and those getting by Lottery the cleared land in these outlots shall pay the value of the improvements, or clear as much to him that made it. Settlers on their out lots who build a home at least sixteen feet square and clear off the underbrush, shall have a right to their lots. William Bard for David Bard."

Page 743 - "Salem Town - March the Tenth, 1784"

"This is to give notice that all the out lots, which I mean to give, are already taken. Those wanting lots in future may only obtain a right to them by agreement under handwrite from the Subscriber. Those having Compliment of Clear Land adjoining the Town may make use of the same agreeable to the custom of the Country until it pays them for clearing. The outlots I expect will be laid off this Summer or Fall, and as the abuse of stumps may in time be felt by the Inhabitants of the Town, I request that none be felled or cut any Green Timber except for building. Wm. Bard."

Page 742 - Moore vs. Owings - "William Bard in his actings and doings in the Settlement of Bardstown acted with the Knowledge, assent and appointment of said David Bard as well as John C. Owings." The town was organized in 1788 by an Act of the Virginia Legislature and the title to all the lots within the one hundred acres, as well as those that had been laid off, was vested in the following Trustees: Isaac Morrison, Walter Beall, James Bard, John Reed, Andrew Hyman, Philip Phillips, John Goodenow, Gabriel Cox, James Adams, James Morrison and Michael Campbell, to be let by them or a majority of them or their successors."

Note - When Kentucky was admitted to the Union in 1792 (23)
Bardstons was a prosperous inland town, business was thriving, schools and churches were being organized, and fine homes were being built.

The Old Beall Residence

Walter Beall was a merchant in Bardstons in 1788, a man of wealth, a large landholder, and a figure of importance in the local history of those times. Samuel Beall, his son, was a contractor and many specimens of his designing and construction may still be seen here, notably St. Joseph's College.

One of these many projects was a large hotel occupying what is now Crum's Drug Store Corner. It never materialized, but peculiar arched ceilings in some of the business houses are evidence of this plan. Another scheme, never carried out, was the building of a city on the Rolling Fork.

The Beall home was one of the most famous residences of Old Bardstons and still remains one of the handsomest. It was built by Walter Beall and his son Samuel in 1798 and was of brick which were burned in a yard nearby. It was of unusual construction, there being two octagonal rooms jutting out on each side of the front entrance which could be entered only from this porch. Upon the roof was a fish pond, but it was found impossible to prevent leakage. The water was drained off and the space converted into a flower garden.

Being a sportsman, Mr. Beall had a wide race track constructed upon his farm, one of the first in Kentucky, and here many record races were run. Standing on the porch of the present residence, the depression in the ground may still be seen, as it encircled the house in an immense horse shoe. In later years when the home was being remodelled, an old blotter was found recording a sale of goods amounting to £3000 in one day.

The Beall family, such as they remain, the descendants are scattered. One street bearing the name, and old records, tell the story of their having lived in Bardstons. This residence has been in the possession of the same family for many years and at the present time is occupied by Henry L. Meier.

Samuel & Paul Jones' Church

There is some interesting history concerning the old brick church now used by the Negro Baptists. There once lived in Bardstons a man named Paul Jones, a member of no church and not considered pious. He died in 1804 leaving a will in which he bequeathed that out of the proceeds of his estate a church should be built for the use of all denominations, white and colored. His home was built and considered very handsome, being of brick. Here the Presbyterians "held the session in 1816" and used it thereafter two Sundays a month. The Baptists used it occasionally, the Methodists once a month, members of these denominations being very strong at that time.

Paul Jones is buried in the southeast corner of the church lot.

Old Lutheran Church

Shortly before 1800 a colony of Pennsylvania settled near Bardstons along the old Shepherdsville road, and this community became known as Germantown Hill. Few of the early churches of Nelson County have a more interesting history than the old Lutheran Church about 5 mi. northwest of Bardstons.

A congregation was organized toward the beginning of 1800 and a small log church erected, but for some reason services were held for a long time in

24) Conrad Mathis' barn. A deed to the land upon which it was built was not made until 1818, by George Harrison, the owner, to the Trustees; Conrad Mathis, Amos Smith, and George Harrison. The first minister was the Rev. Jacob Z. In 1818 Henry A. Karty, a minister, organized there one of the first Sunday Schools in the county. He was also a school teacher and taught for 60 years in the schools of Nelson County.

The church through a brick building was erected, but gradually, interest waned and the old faithful members died, and it now stands deserted. On the stone slabs in the churchyard may be read the names of Mathis, Hefley, Miller, Strait, Miller, Shoptaugh, Karty - pioneer members of the old Lutheran Church.

John Caldwell

One of the most eccentric citizens of the early days in Bardonia was old John Caldwell. A man of considerable wealth at one time reverses came to him till finally of a vast fortune all that remained to him was a small yellow house on the northwest corner of the public square in Bardonia. This became known as the "Yellow Corner" because the little, rickety building was always painted a dull yellow. He took up his residence there alone and grew morose. His coffin was kept stored upstairs ready for use and when he died he was buried in the old Presbyterian cemetery near the Shepherdsville pike.

To the north of the "Yellow Corner" stood a row of single storied, dilapidated frame buildings used as law offices, barber shops, etc. These old buildings became an eyesore and were torn down to be replaced by a better frame structure.

On the corner in front of the Caldwell building was a large flat stone high above the level of the street, and here the negro traders placed their human chattels for sale. When the "Yellow Corner" was torn down the contractor, being told the history of the stone, sunk it to the level of the sidewalk, rounding off the corners and making it a part of the curbing.

Old citizens said this stone was John Caldwell's favorite resting place. Here he would stand for hours, silent and solitary, speaking at the rock with the iron fence of his career. In time two holes grew, one the size of a silver dollar, the other somewhat smaller, and for years these remained silent reminders of old John Caldwell.

Dr. Walter Brashear

Dr. Walter Brashear gained a national reputation for performing the first hip-joint amputation in America.

"The subject was a mulatto boy, seventeen years of age, a slave of the priests at St. Joseph's College. The time was August 1806. The place Bardonia (but exact location therein not known). The surgeon, Dr. Walter Brashear, the assistants, Dr. Peter Harrison (son of Cuthbert Harrison) and Dr. John Goodlet. The result a complete success." (From a paper of Dr. David Yankell, before the American Medical Society in Wash. D.C.)
Dr. Brashear came of a wealthy Catholic family, Maryland and was born February 1776. His father journeyed to Kentucky eight years later and cleared a farm near Shepherdsville in Bullitt County. Walter, a seventh son was set aside for the medical profession. He located in Bardonia, but removed to Lexington in 1813.

Dr. James Priestley

On Court Square, once stood a tiny school house where many men afterward prominent received their education. Dr. James Priestley taught this school and it was known all over the country (20) for the thoroughness and high standard of the training given. Dr. Priestley "was a man of deep learning, laborious habits, great firmness, and of a somewhat irascible and imperious temper. He was on the whole well suited to be a controller and instructor in the rough times in which he lived."

"The belief that he was born in Pennsylvania has not been verified. He had his training in Liberty Hall Academy, which later became Washington and Lee in Virginia. Here he taught for a year or two and it is quite likely that he came to Salem from Liberty Hall. He left Bardonia to become head master of a school in Annapolis, Maryland, and from there he went to the principalship of the male department of Cokebury College at Baltimore. From the Baltimore position he came in 1809 to Cumberland College at Nashville. In 1816 the college suspended activities temporarily and he retired to a farm six miles up Cumberland River where he opened what was perhaps the first girls' academy in this section of the country. In 1820 Cumberland College was reopened and again he became president. He died on February 6, 1821. Although he had few sons, I have been unable to trace them. The family seems suddenly to have faded out." (Dr. L. Craft, Prof. of Education, Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn.)

From Dr. James Priestley's log school on Court Square the following were graduated in one class: John Rowan, Felix Grundy, John Pope, Joseph H. Davies, John Allen, and Archibald Cameron, - all distinguished men in after life.

Ben Hardin was also a student under Dr. Priestley, as was Ben Schaefer.

In the foregoing the early settlements and stations which stood within the present boundaries of Nelson County are told by those who made them. The principal source of information has been the old court records, made during the process of adjusting conflicting surveys. The investigations necessary to settle these land disputes brought out much authentic data concerning the period between 1775 and 1806.

Depositions of the early settlers, taken while the events recorded were still clear in their minds and accepted by the County as reliable evidence upon which they based their decrees, cannot be questioned.
