Do you have any information on the Fox Run Baptist Church in Shelby Co. Ky, that met in the home of James & Mary Hoagland 1794 Jan 26th. I was wondering if a cemetery was with it. The church was on the ^{Courthouse} Records. a Book History of Shelby Co. Ky written by Geo L Willis Sr. 1929 Page 71. The church organized by John Whitaker Joshua Morris. Charter members: Jesse Buzan Elijah Buzan, James & Mary Hoagland, Wm Metcalf Nester metcalf, James metcalf, Thomas metcalf Mary League milly Long, Robert & Jane London, Joseph and Margaret Erwin & one other.

William Marshall was first Pastor.

27 member 1803 65 in 1812 153 in 1826 or 27

Then members shifted to Campbell's Christian now I think I have information who James M. Hoagland parents are. If I can get some clue to which James belong too. James M Hoagland rode horse back to Macon Mo to home stead land, before April 16 1844 ^{La Plata mo} when James & Elizabeth Wilson was married. Elizabeth lived 99 1/2 years but James died Jan 6 1883 ^{macon mo.}

These Houghlands was on the ~~Shelby~~ ^{oldham co} tax rolls until 1837. The county was divided a couple of times.

Seems like the Houghlands was all along the Ohio River Shelby co. Nelson co. Green co. Elizabeth Wilson was born in Hardin co. Ky. The story of 2 Houghland brothers floated down the Ohio River and went different ways Ky, Ind.

When they first come into the country was New Jersey, 1634. from the Corner of Holland & Germany (I think),

The James M Houghland parents I am looking for the census record says James father born in Va and his mother Md.

So now will have to find out if this Elais Houghland was born in Va. & Sarah Wood in Md.

Elais 1772-1831 m. Sarah Wood 1817.

A man I write to in Ala. seems to think that my James M Houghland might belong to Henry 1768-1793 m 1791 Rachel Pyker.

But both seem to be married too long before my James was born 1823.

I have 12 pages of Tax records sent to me along with this Genealogy paper. So make I will have to send them to you in order to straighten this all out. Thank you

Mrs. Houghland:

I have taken another look at your request and am unable to determine the parentage of James M. Houghland born in Kentucky in 1823.

I cannot find any helpful printed material here on your branch of this family. Not knowing in what county to look limits my search.

I have taken a more careful look at the early census indexes, and find the following.: This may help you to determine a possible county (all possible spellings).

Mrs. Hougland:

After taking a look at your request I have looked in the 1820 census for Ky. I see the following: Mary Hoagland in Gallatin, Mose in Gallatin, Abraham Hougland in Muhlenburg and a William in Union Counties in Kentucky.

In looking at various materials that we have on Gallatin Co. I see mention of a Jane, Delia, Mary Caroline, and Moses and Cornelius Hougland.

We have one book that has some Hougland material on the Ohio Co. Ky. branch of the Hougland family.

If you can supply me with any other information or clues I'll take another look.
