Romeo by Monda Berkman

"Romeo!"

Romeo, Romeo, you are so suave and delectable, There's no doubt why you gather such a crowd of ladies fair.

You are tall, dark and handsome, too,
To your love Juliet, you are true blue.

You look the most in that new tie and suit,
And girls always rave of how "Romeo looks so cute!"

The girls in Femmes think you would be a perfect steady.

With you they would love to go out anytime your ready.

Oh Romeo, Romeo please stay single,
So with all the girls you will be able to mingle.

JULIET

I am Juliet, Juliet,
I am Juliet fair,
My lover was Romeo the coolest,
But marry we did not dare.
For me a dance (by Modern Femmes) was named,
My annual successor will then be crowned,
By all the goers she will be acclaimed,
As the fairest of all the girls around.

MODERN FEMMES

Modern Femmes is very active at present. Our basketball team, with 5 wins and 2 losses is tied for first place. We are very proud of this record and hope they keep it up.

Plans are under way for our annual Romeo & Juliet Dance, which will be held April 13, from 9 - 1, in the Continental Ball Room of the Henry Clay Hotel. The music will be by that great guy, Frankie Blue. Sure hope we see y'all there.

We have 3 new pledges beginning their fateful weeks on Feb. 1. They are Minda Ashkenaz, Joan Goldsmith and Shellie Tannenhaus. Congratulations to them! We know they will make might fine members. Guess that's it for next issue. Don't forget to make April 13 on your calendar.

Model: Joyce Applebaum.

Dear Debbie,

THE INSIDE STORY

Now it comes out, and you will have the facts (good or bad, but facts, nevertheless). Anxious to get the old ball rolling last September, we summoned nine new members. The inmates worked hard and successfully completed a trying pledgship. The "ex-cons": Margie Berman, Barbara Blieden, Barbara Gale, Sharon Kippen, Sylvia Roth, Judy Sonnheim, Esther Wolff, Joy Yudofsky, and Carol Merade, who ran off with the traditional Best Pledge bracelet.

To give them a proper welcome, us chicks threw a Hobo Party. Those characters from Skid Row couldn't outshine us! Naturally, the shindig cost greenbacks, so we recuperated from the blow by selling delicious (?) cakes baked by the famed French chefs of M. F. Some people actually bought them!

Around that time, basketball teams were being organized, so we put in our two cents worth. Incidentally, that two cents doubled, tripled, and quadrupled--we brought home the league and then won the tournament finals. Congratulations, girls--you done it!

Christmas was approaching, and we made little tray favors for the Children's Hospital (even though we're not too artistic). We also gave a generous basket of food, clothes, and toys to a needy family.

After Christmas (Chanukah), preparations began for the big dance, Romeo and Juliet. To select the candidates, indeed a difficult decision, the club bravely stayed awake for an all-night session. As you can see, we did an excellent job.

For the record. . . Deb Erlen won first place honors for us at the Presidential Ball.

Pledges again. . . We never let up. The last pledge class included Minda Askenaz, Joan Goldsmith, and Shellie Tannenhaus. They were given a surprise initiation, and Minda was presented with the B. P. bracelet.

Once a month. . . Sticking our fingers in everything that comes along, we give the U.S.O., a hand, also. The girls turn out to entertain the soldiers for an evening, and everyone has a great time!!

That's all there is, there ain't no mo'! See ya' next year with new news.

Anybody's Guess

Mysterious Couple To Be Exposed

Mystery fans, the night we have been eagerly awaiting has finally arrived. The clues have been gone over many times, and the evidence proves that the decision will be a tough one. The suspects of this case are: Clarice Heiler, Nancy Herman, Nancy Opper, Miriam Shapira, Bonnye Waldman, Louise Welenken, Happy Abrams, Gordon Baer, Eddie Berman, Pudgy Marks, and Robby Solinger. The line-up will be at 10:30 P.M.

Needless to say, any of them would make swell convicts. Don't forget to testify for your favorite suspect. The witness (ballot) box will close at 11:30 P.M.

OUR GAL

This year we are privileged to have Mrs. Sidney Wumser as our advisor. A busy woman, she still has time to help solve our problems. She is an active worker in the U.S.O., and is responsible for the wonderful entertainment which the Fort Knox soldiers enjoy. Much of the success of our activities is due to her excellent guidance and advice. Many deserved thanks to you, Mrs. Wumser!

WELCOME . . .

I'd like to welcome all of you to our 13th (we're not superstitious) Annual Romeo and Juliet Dance. We've worked hard to make it a success, and Rita, Margie, and Garry have done a swell job as chaimen of the whole works. Thanks to Sondra and her crew, who have made this piece of literature (?) possible. Last, but not least, I thank each of you for coming. Have a great time and make this dance the best ever!
