

The mounted Dragoons having lost all their horses on the journey to Beau Cuy, were on this march obliged to walk, their Colonel was some what of a gentleman, however by name insisted on every man carrying his trapsack etc as they were plodding along through the hot sand - an Irishman called out Pat - don't you wish you were a mounted Dragoon - & that you could carry your trapsack & walk!

The first day's march from Vera Cruz - by encouraging the men - assisting them by putting humpbacked mules over mountains in the rear occasionally taking an old soldier much too heavy for him to carry, the 6th Regt Co-brought up at the encampment that night
every man but four who arrived fifteen minutes later - this Regiment was one of the best marching Companies in the Army having marched five or six hundred miles in northern Mexico with their load.

First appointed after leaving West Point, 1844. Recd 2nd Lieutenant Company I. 2nd Inf. stationed at Sackets Harbor 2nd Y ear where I arrived the 3rd of Nov 1844. Maj Plimpton in command Capt J. B. Kingsbury. Capt Joseph B. Smith. 1st Lieut - Marsena R.
Patrick, com - company L. Lieut Christopher Lowell, Lieut Alfred Sully. Lieut. Nathaniel Lyon.
There were three companies - Lyon became a Brig Genl in Union Army and was killed at battle of Gettysburg Field. Mrs - Sully became son of the frontier, became brigadier Genl Union Army - and was distinguished as an Indian fighter after the war.
Patrick became Quarter Master Genl in the Field <sup>U.S. Army</sup>. There was social life such as you find in garrison and among amusements a drama club where several of Shakespeare's plays were studied & acted - and this was the my

On graduating the cadets are usually given 3 months holiday, I was detained two months of that time as Instructor of Broad sword exercises & fencing, was successful before the board of visitors of which Capt R. E. Lee was a member - The trip from Eticoe to Sackville Harbor was made in a sled 100 miles. Dr Foster suggested who commanded a company of Hemimite Cooper.

beginning of my 3

first real appreciation of the fact May Kirby was pay-mastress or rather the daughter of Genl Broom who had been com-in chief of the Army - who fought the battle of Sackett's Harbor 1813.

In Aug. 45 received orders from West Point to report there; on arrival was appointed ass-prof.
of Ethics and English Literature. remained there until May 1846.
Among the students were L a few miles north of the mouth of the Rio Grande - before we anchored about 3 miles from shore - the next morning I accompanied the boat of the basal ashore in a gale to report the arrival of recruits, our boat boat was caught among the breakers, half filled with water and was in danger of drowning me all, but by the time we were landed in a steam tug, took a steamer up the Rio Grande - to Matamoras, where we found Col Jno S Clarke in command in the mean time by the death of Major Brown filled at the siege of Ft Brown <sup>officially</sup> Matamoras I was promoted to the position of 2nd Lieut, company C 6th of which Col Clarke had recently been made Col - as the regiment was with Genl Wm

the march through Tex

8 toward Chihua - two Regt. Col. Class detained one at Matamoras, assigning one to Capt. Roman's company of the 1st Artillery - which constituted the Garrison of 4 L.

Pecos - at Matamoras remained

Filson Historical Society

While on duty as commander of the Scotts guard at Puebla, in 1847, he remarked during the dinner Lieutenant, at Puebla, Mexico

If I were dictator I would issue three decrees.

The first would be to abolish hot pants, the second to abolish feather beds, and the third to abolish flying pens.

Having issued these three decrees, I would consider that I had done the work sufficient and would absolute "

J. B. Bentmore

as was so outspoken at his expeditious about secession at the beginning of the war when in Texas, saying he would go out of the Union if his state did not.

~~Third Glass Works~~

Yun. Frost - writer in a book who recorded their impressions of the case. he was a great admirer of Gentry fashion and associated everything sublime with him; as a mammoth case. 'Oh! what a spot - In summer cold in winter hot, Oh' Great Jehovah what a wonder, Andrew Jackson Hell & thunder.

Intervenor with

Anecdote of Capt. Sharpe, of Bowling Green -
When wooing his bride in Chicago - before ~~after~~ the war - the father of his fiancee was an intense ~~abolitionist~~ <sup>abolitionist</sup> and thought all southern men <sup>new horses & talons</sup> - Capt. Sharpe addressed full of abuse for Capt. Sharpe - his parents were extremely distasteful to the parents, but not to the daughter.
Friends would rally him occasionally and say "Sharp I would not stand what you do - Wait said Sharp - Do you remember the yankee who was in Rome during some sacred festival and was to play the part of Jesus - setting an acre with his face to the tail, and to receive every indignity, precisely there came a rotten egg - which struck him on the forehead and ran down his face - D - n your soul be cried, just wait until I am done playing Jesus, & I'll give you hell I am playing the part of Jesus now, just wait until ~~that~~ is over -

A ~~cartoon~~ cartoon by Lord Lytton who was in Washington at the time of the battle of Manassas -

The Government up to that time refused all titles to the Southern comanders - "a party of men commanded by Genl J. E. Johnston, or Genl Beauregard, the Southern Soldiers were not acknowledged even as rebels.
After the unexpected and dreadful defeat at Bull Run - Lord Lytton said he supposed "Mr. Lincoln would certainly consider the Southern soldiers now as rebels".

A vigorous March, an incident related by General Buckner immediately after his surrender at Gl.
Donelson; on the Steamer in the presence of Gen'l Grant, whether he had gone to secure better care & comforts for his soldiers - when approaching the boat he passed Hæder's <sup>cooper who</sup> had cheered him giving those on the Steamer some idea who he was - as he stepped on the gang way the band struck up Yankee Doodle - he was conducted into the presence of Gen'l Grant who was seated in the ladies cabin surrounded by his officers - Gen'l Grant stepped forward and shook hands - as they were seated, one of the staff a colonel from Illinois said Gen'l Buckner does not that air remind you of the glories of the old flag under which you fought in Mexico? Gen'l B. paused <sup>to see if</sup> Gen'l Grant would not object what was intended as an insult to a prisoner - not doing

So he said, it rather reminds me of an incident which occurred recently in our army when a man was being drummed out of ~~the~~<sup>our</sup> army for some offense - ~~as you~~ the custom is your know to play the rogue's march - stop said he indignantly, why don't you play Yankee Doodle - for a half million rogues march by that time every day."

Gent John Bankhead an officer of the war of 1812 - uncle of General John B. - in command of the army & Capt James in a general of the navy.
Gent Bankhead was an bon-vivant fond of society, and on the occasion of the visits of his two nephews - the Columbus, however Dr. gave a dinner, during the progress of the dinner, being warmed up by the wine became communicative and said to his guests I wish you would tell me how it is that these two boys are so different, they were both orphans at an early age & he became their guardian, he secured an appointment for James at Annapolis, her graduated and entered the Navy and has all the bilities of a Christian gentleman. John at West Point graduated and entered the Army and the day has all the air of youth. tell me gentlemen how it is with & give them the best advice - I can tell you said John "brother James followed yester advice and by your example" Yours Magister was known in the Army as Prince John.

Filson Historical Society

Family History

Came to Va in 1650 and settled.

First printing press - time of Rev Burkley.

Went to Ky — . 2 ox-carts full of books.

Bron furnace in Hart Co. Pig-iron to New Orleans.

Ophelia T., 1st man to bring molasses to Hart Co. His prediction

In war of 1812, Dan DeBarnard killed by Whitley.

F. born 1823. Nearly deaf. Of ten children, mother, James Shuck, 6 ft 4". Bayoneted bear (no wood) kills Calf.

"noble character". F. Went to Mumfordville (named after Mumford). Story of squirrel lightning and great snaf. Also frog and came back for. Uncle Shelburne took him down Fri.

dog knew Fri and started himself of Shelburne and not start at usual time.

F. was 9 when first went to school and did not know letters. Caught up with contemporaries in first year.

F. at 15 put in charge of grist mill in Ohio - Full charge, took it Furnace and family moved to Muhlenberg Co due to failure of furnace affected by bank failure (Chancellors) by Shadrach.

(Rode around State on furnace business)

Army officer making geological investigation of resources of Ky visited A.H.B. in Muhlenberg Co. Much talk with F. Assisted that boy to West Point.

F. went for year to Hopkinsville where he stayed with his relative Mr Campbell (?) preparing for West Point.

Wrote own application for appointment to Senator Impelett and got appointment without outside assistance.

Started for West Point in stage coach. Congressman in coach surprised by his knowledge of Constitution.

Outfitted by prominent & wealthy merchant Devin Bell.

(Same - Different State money?)

• Trip to West Point. Probably via Ohio R & Washington.
? Passed through N.Y., a town of 250,000, and up Hudson on (Mary Powell?) (Newburgh?)

Reported

Reported at West Point. Early instruction prior to examination.

Early plebe life. Yams about most court martial and (then) Barracks acting as barbs.

C. T. Smith taught at W.P. (Donaldson)
"He was strong" "Freemond had the eye".

Not broad once a year at West Point

? very difficult, avoided traps.

Drawings still on wall or but 40 years after graduation.

& contemporaries:

Jackson - Wingate can't tell

Braun - Remarkable workman.

? Splendid workman. Won in finale. Left back after graduation as instructor - French - English - This?

? dementia mortis for visiting.

? Would run back confinement because he considered himself untried and his past no guarantee over him.

Graduated 1844, about middle of class.

? Retained at West Point as instructor in swordsmanship, etiquette and English?

? Did great deal of gymnastic work. Climbed Crown Rock, walked to N.Y. frequently. Woman in Tarrytown told him real details of Legend of Sleepy Hollow.

? Ordered to go to church, refused, order rescinded but sent away from West Point (shortest time at W.P.?)

? (Between W.P. detail and Mex War.)? (Sackets Harbor?)

Went to Mexico joining Taylor's command (Aug 7?) after (Monterey?)

"Cavorth", "Huevos" etc.

? of Taylor's command to join Scott (when?)

Rumor on U.S. fleet regarding Santa Anna.

Landing at Vera Cruz. Description of well-regulated movements of boats, snuffing woods etc. Punishment by various men said to being killed at landing.
"3d Illinois Regiment", "Worm toe".

Turns words. Remember seeing Capt R-E. Zerr plane to get around enemy.

Letter of our death to Mr. Triest, "Your fanfare made of insolence and conceit etc".

Made Pugil 9. M (promotion since it carried extra pay).

"mounted Riflemen - carry knapsack and walk".

Sift trains and participated in various battles.

Wounded at Burnside. Friend killed.
? On cutlass six months?

Cara Mota

Garrison took box in field. Shakespeare Conried march given by girl in later march.

Entrance to City of Mexico.

Piskill & Padre.
" in earthquake.

Popocatepetl. 5 got to top. Stones, but, first up and I was calling back. Blanket kept friend from freezing want turned back. But we fatigued.
Native said "What did the mountain say to you?
In account in Appleton's magazine.

"Star Spangled Banner" when lowering flag in City.

Forced march with company 42 miles returning to boat to go home - no stragglers, in hot sand.

Return to U.S.

? Densse after return. Another Wind Point tour.

? Marriage?

? Tour in west. (Wife not with him, Health).

Buffalo. Story about Col Boone & his band of Indians and lost man.

Treaty with Yellow Bear. Full dress coat, trapper and etc.
25 mi from nearest white man.

"Young Chick".

? My tour. (Kammon Island?)

Episode with one Grant.

Purchased when Captain about (1855?)

Toured in Danville on 6th St (See Walter Penrose).

(Probably moved out to present site of Glenrothes Park.
Meeting at old Bennett place)

? Editor of Danville Journal (?)

Daughter born 7 years after marriage (about 1858).
(on Bennett place)

Advocated Glenrothes Park as public park.

? State Adj. Gen.

Wrote State militia law.

Just before War, sent with Mr. Crittenden to arrange for Ky's neutrality. Lincoln said he would respect this but violated this before Fought home. (Total for 75,000 troops).

(See his warning to Confederates (Brown Statute Book).
Offered to join him in Federal Army.