Charles D. Waggoner genealogical papers

Scope and Content Note

Genealogical material on the Eastin/Easton family and allied families compiled by Charles D. Waggoner. The Eastin family lived in Virginia during colonial times, migrated to Kentucky, and then spread throughout the United States. A significant portion of the collection is material received from Ms. Dorothy Eastin, of Fort Worth, Texas. Mrs. Maruel Eastin Randles of Monticello, Utah, is another frequent correspondent. The collection is divided into three series: Eastin family files, Eastins in the United States, and allied families.

Eastin family files contain information on the Eastin coats of arms, the Eastin house in Louisville, Kentucky, and numerous folders on individual members of the Eastin family, including extensive research on William Eastin (1757-1822), of Albemarle county, Virginia. Also included are 2 plats filed in the Louisville Chancery court in 1862 regarding land claims.

The second series in the collection contains information on various branches of the Eastin family, including those who lived in California, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Rhode Island, and Virginia.

The third series contains information on allied branches of the Eastin family including: Barker-Sanders, Boulet, Dent, Drumb, English, Gatewood-Castleman, Hay, Houston-Huston-Paxton, Hoy, Johns, Moss, Oliver, Orr-Garvin-Brown, Howard Overstreet, Jr., Procter-Hall, Smith, Todd, Walden, and the Whitlock family. A family history entitled "Studer, Stoudre, Stouder: Switzerland – United States" by Willa Mae Studer-Johnston is also included in this series, as well as copies of a several deeds and indentures.

Biographical Note

Charles David Waggoner (1908-1988), researched the roots of the Eastin/Easton family and allied families. Charles D. Waggoner was the son of James F. Waggoner, Sr. (1861-1954).
