Scope and Content Note

The papers of Robert W. Bingham span his years as a practicing attorney in Louisville, Ky. 1897-1918 and include material covering his personal life. The bulk of the collection covers the years 1899-1910, but the collection includes material as early as 1876 and as late as 1982.

The correspondence section includes family letters between family members, including Bingham's father Col. Robert Bingham. His personal business correspondence regards investments, expenses, water company business, and land and mining interests. Other correspondence includes letters from Harrison Randolph, S.R. McKee, and material relating to the Worth estate.

The Robert W. Bingham investments section consists of records regarding his interests in the U.S. Trust Co., Western National Bank, James C. Willson and Co., Citizens Fidelity Trust Co., Louisville, Ky., and several other companies. This section also includes records of stock investments through W.L. Lyons and Co. and J.J.B. Hilliard and Son 1900-1905, as well as investments with life insurance companies such as Aetna and Manhattan Life.

Business sections includes correspondence and records of the Western Kentucky Mining Company, 1899-1908; the Columbia Mining Company Buckeye Mine, 190-6-1907; and the White Picacho Mining Company, 1906-1907, 1922.

The land papers section contains records regarding land in Kentucky, Tennessee, Texas, and the Indian Territory, but the bulk of the material relates to his partnership in Florida land speculation with his friend and legal partner W.W. Davies, 1906-1909.

The political organization and club membership section include correspondence regarding his membership to the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, the Louisville Bar Association, Alumni Association of the university of Louisville Law School the Pendennis Club, a variety of hunting and shooting clubs, and several civic and charitable organizations including the Kentucky Children's Home Society.

Bingham's official papers include correspondence, records, and legal cases from his appointment as the Mayor of Louisville, 1905, and his appointment then election as Jefferson County Attorney, 1907. Also included are papers regarding his campaign to be judge of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, 1910 and his appointment as chancellor of the Jefferson Circuit Court in 1911.

The legal practice section includes correspondence regarding the firm he established with W.W. Davies in Louisville Ky. and later the firm of Kohn, Bingham, Sloss, and Spindle. Also included in this section are many legal cases in which Bingham served as an attorney.

The miscellaneous bills and receipts section includes material resulting from Bingham's personal life and from his practicing law. Also included are the personal bills and receipts of W.W. Davies.
