Brown-Walker
Photograph Collection, 1864-1965

Scope and Content Note

Photographs of the J. T. S. Brown family and the Ernest Walker Family, including many images related to Old Prentice distillery and the Kentucky distilling industry, whiskey row in downtown Louisville, and J. T. S. Brown, Jr.'s family home, Glen Rhea. Glen Rhea was built by J. T. S. Brown, Jr. in 1900 in Prospect, Ky. Several negatives are available for the Old Prentice Distillery.

These photographs were separated from the Brown-Walker Family Papers (Mss. A/B879b).

Brown-Walker

Biographical Note

Ernest Walker Jr. was the son of Emily Brown Walker and Ernest Walker. His parents divorced while he was a child. These papers consist of papers from both sides of his family. Emily Brown Walker was the daughter of Creel Brown, who was the son of John Thompson Street Brown, Jr. of distilling fame. These papers include material from the Brown family and their distilling business. They also include some materials from the side branches of the Brown family such as the Graham family, the Street family and other Kentucky families related to the Browns. The Walker material is mostly the papers of Ernest Walker who lived in Texarkana, Texas.
