

The Filson Historical Society
Bush-Beauchamp Family Papers

Papers of the allied Bush, Beauchamp, Crockett, Lewis, and Stone families of Ky., especially Hancock County. Includes papers of the Robert Y. Bush family.

For information regarding literary and copyright interests for these papers, see the Curator of Manuscripts James J. Holmberg.

Size of Collection

2 cubic feet

Locator Number Mss.A\B978

Scope and Content Note

Included is correspondence of the Robert Y. Bush family, 1846-1969, referring to Civil War incidents, politics, and family life in Hancock County, Ky.; school compositions and diplomas; legal papers; genealogical data; and Roberta Y. Bush's correspondence, 1890-1969, and her original fiction and papers, and business accounts of Joseph A. Beauchamp, 1855-1982.

Correspondence of the Stone and Lewis families, 1832-1889; sermons; school experiences; newspaper clippings on the Bush, Boyd, Beauchamp, Lewis, and Humphries families.

Also includes land records; data on Edwards family antecedents; three record books, 1839-1874, regarding the Hancock County Court; Morrison Presbyterian Church records, 1889-1953; and Baptist Church records, 1819-1840, for Hancock and adjacent counties.