Courier-journal
Editorial Records, 1968-2002

Scope and content Note

A collection of newspaper and magazine clippings, pamphlets and booklets dealing with a variety of subjects that were used as research material for editorial columns at the newspaper. Subjects include a variety of international, national, state and local issues as well as political and economic topics and people.

Courier-journal

Biographical Note

In 1868, the Louisville Journal, Louisville Courier, and the Louisville Democrat were merged into the Courier-journal. With editor Henry Watterson, the paper quickly gained a national reputation. In 1918 the paper was sold to Robert Worth Bingham and remained in the Bingham family until 1986 when the paper was sold to Gannett.
