Scope and Content Note

Collection of papers compiled by Halsey regarding the allied Thompson, Wallace, Hart, Taylor, and Vance families of Ky.

Correspondence, 1771-1866, of the Nathaniel and Susanna Hart family, George Claiborne and Sarah Simpson Hart Thompson family, Arthur Hooe and Letitia P. Hart Wallace family, and William L. and Letitia Thompson Vance family discussing routine and personal matters; plantation activities; slaves; business; the Civil War, and local affairs.

Also included are copies of Hart family Bible records; Hart family genealogical records; and a copy of an 1846 resolution of the Ky. legislature replacing Jack Hart's (Nathaniel Hart's slave) rifle which was lost at the Battle of Blue Licks.

In addition, a small group of John Jay Halsey papers, 1847-1849, includes letters, commissions, etc. regarding the Mexican War.
