

The Filson Historical Society
Highbaugh Enterprises, Inc.
Architectural drawings, 1941-1979

For information regarding literary and copyright interest for this collection, contact the Curator of Collections.

Size of Collection:
3 ovsz. folders

Locator Number:
Mss. AR H638

Highbaugh Enterprises, Inc.
Architectural drawings, 1941-1979

Historical Note

L. Leroy Highbaugh, Sr. and L. Leroy Highbaugh, Jr. were real estate developers in Louisville, Kentucky operating under the name Highbaugh Enterprises, Inc. The Highbaughs acquired the 1,000+ acre Hurstbourne Farms estate from Mrs. Sallie Hert in 1949, changing the name to Highbaugh Farms. The Highbaughs lived on the property for a number of years. In 1965 they began to develop the estate into a community to be known as Hurstbourne, with plans for a shopping center, offices, schools, and churches. The former residence of Mrs. Hert, known as Lyndon Hall, became the club house of the Hurstbourne Country Club complex. In addition to their work in Hurstbourne, the Highbaughs were involved in other development projects around Louisville.

Highbaugh Enterprises, Inc.
Architectural drawings, 1941-1979

Scope and Content Note

Surveys and plans relating to the development of Hurstbourne residential areas, 1965-1974, including architectural plans for particular houses, as well as business areas and utilities.
Surveys and plans related to other Louisville area development projects, 1941-1979.

See the project index for a complete list.

Related Collections:

Hutchings, E. T. Mrs. A. T. Hert residence architectural drawings (Mss. AR H973)

Lyndon Hall and Lyndon Cottage research material (014x58)

Lyndon Hall and Lyndon Cottage photographs (014PC59)

Marble bust of Mrs. Sallie Hert; "Hurstbourne Farms" sign (2014.33.1-2)

Highbaugh Enterprises, Inc.
Architectural drawings, 1941-1979

Folder List

Folders

Folder 1: Residential maps and site development plans, Hurstbourne, 1965-1974

Folder 2: Residential and commercial development, Hurstbourne area, 1970-1974, undated

Folder 3: Residential and commercial development, Louisville area, 1941-1979

Highbaugh Enterprises, Inc.
Architectural drawings, 1941-1979

Subject Headings

Architecture – Design and plans.
Architecture, Domestic – Kentucky – Louisville.
Architecture – Kentucky – Louisville.
Brookhaven (Louisville, Ky.)
Commercial buildings – Kentucky – Louisville.
Industrial buildings – Kentucky – Louisville.
Hurstbourne (Louisville, Ky.)
Louisville (Ky.) – Buildings, structures, etc.