Arthur E. Hopkins
Photograph Collection, ca. 1890s – 1944

Scope and Content Note

The photographic collection of Judge Arthur Earle Hopkins (1881-1944) reflects his lifelong love of steamboats and river travel. Hopkins was a prominent Louisville, Kentucky attorney, judge, 1941 mayoral candidate, and president of the Board of Aldermen at the time of his death. His avocation was Ohio and Mississippi river history and steam boating. The Arthur Earle Hopkins collection includes photographs (002PC8.1 - .1088), scrapbooks (002PC8.1089 - .1093), glass plate negatives (1 - 555), and lantern slides (1 - 38). In addition, the collection features: post cards, engravings, and lithographs of steamboats and river scenes.

A selection of the photographs from this collection has been scanned. Due to scanner restrictions none of the negatives or the lantern slides have been scanned. Access restricted. Most of the photographs of steamboats have been arranged and an index compiled.

Biographical Note

Judge Arthur Earlle Hopkins was born on August 13th, 1881 to Edwin Sylvester Hopkins Sr. (1846-1919) and Mary Orissa Scrugham Hopkins (c. 1851-1898) in Jeffersonville, Maryland. Hopkins married Eleanor Hillman Hopkins (1879-1942) in 1912.

Throughout his life, Hopkins was a prominent attorney and judge in Louisville, Kentucky. Hopkins ran for Louisville mayor in 1941. He was a long-time member of the Filson Club (now The Filson Historical Society) and the Amateur Cinema League (ACL). Hopkins served as the president of the Louisville Board of Aldermen until his death.

Arthur E. Hopkins died on September 30th, 1944 in Jefferson County, Kentucky. Upon his death, Judge Hopkins bequeathed film reels as well his entire collection of prints, photographs, paintings, books, and steamboat related scrapbooks to The Filson Historical Society.
