

The Filson Historical Society

The Papers of Jacob Walter

The papers of Jacob Walter, carpenter and builder of Louisville, Ky.

For information regarding literary and copyright interests for these papers, see the Curator of Manuscripts, James J. Holmberg.

Size of Collection

0.33 cubic feet

Locator Number Mss.\A\W232

Biographical Note

Jacob Walter (1831-1878) was a carpenter and builder of Louisville, Ky. who operated the Louisville Planing Mill in partnership with Adolph N. Struck, 1866-1875, and established Jacob Walter's Planing Mill in 1876.

Scope and Content Note

Papers contain deeds and contracts for land in Louisville, 1866-1875; legal papers in the case of Dr. Samuel D. Gross v. Jacob Walter, 1876-1879; statements of account, receipts, notes, etc., 1867-1878; accounts of Walter and Struck, 1868-1876; statements of account against Jacob Walter's Planing Mill, 1876-1878; canceled checks, 1875-1877; receipts for premiums on policy of the Germania Life Insurance Co., 1867-1878; accounts against Jacob Walter's estate, 1879, 1881; and papers of Mrs. Margaret (Mann) Walter, 1863-1908.

Mss.

A Jacob Walter
W232 Papers. 1866-1881.

Box 1

- fl. 1 Louisville land papers, 1866-1875.
- fl. 2 Legal papers: Samuel D. Gross v. Jacob Walter, 1876-1879.
- fl. 3 Statements of account, receipts, notes, etc., 1867-1878.
- fl. 4 Walter and Struck accounts, 1868-1876.
- fl. 5 Statements of account against Walter's Planing Mill, 1876-1878.
- fl. 6 Canceled checks, 1875-1877.
- fl. 7 Receipts for premiums on policy of the Germania Life Insurance Co., 1867-1878.
- fl. 8 Estate accounts, 1879-1881.
- fl. 9 Correspondence to Margaret Walter, 1863-1908.
- fl. 10 Margaret Walter accounts, 1888-1907.
- fl. 11 Printed materials.